The second order of the day was the consideration of the report of the Committee on Women's Work. During the consideration of this report, the delegates from the Women's Board, Mrs. Mary B. Reid and Mrs. Mary W. Porter, and also Mrs. D. S. Lytle and Miss Anna Y. Thompson, returned missionaries, addressed the Assembly. The report was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON WOMEN'S WORK.

Your Committee has studied with interest the admirable report of the Board of Directors of the Women's General Missionary Society. It shows an encouraging, aggressive work along seven distinct lines of missionary service: The Foreign Department, Home Mission and Ministerial Relief, Freedmen's Mission, Church Extension and Parsonage work, Junior Missionary Society, Literature Department, and the Thank-offering Department.

In all these divisions of activity the work of the Women has proved a most valuable factor in the life of our Church. This organized movement began only seventeen years ago, but its powers have been so quickened and its growth has been so vigorous that its records to-day show 977 societies with 26,927 members.

The work of the women has also proved one of the most effective agencies in developing the systematic beneficence of the Church. It has been singularly instrumental in leading many of our people into the spirit and practice of consecrated giving. We note with gratification that the last annual contribution amounted to $75,805.

A careful study of the report of the Women's Board will show that in the fields of India and Egypt most effective service has been rendered, service crowned with special blessings. We note with thankfulness that the work of the Women's Board is moving up the Nile Valley, and that soon a school for the training of girls will be opened in distant Luxor. A movement of so much significance, and having in it unmeasured possibilities for the millions of Egypt and the opening South country, should awaken the interest and be followed by the prayers of the whole Church.

The co-operation of this Board with the Board of Home Missions continues with the pleasantest and most cordial relations. Special mention is made of the large donations of $8,400 the past year, for the support of new work, in the care of the home board. This was a great assistance and encouragement in the effort that is being made to extend our home mission work. We recommend:

1. That the report of the Board of Directors of the Women's General Missionary Society be adopted.

2. That we commend the organized work of the women to all the mothers and daughters of our Church, and recognize in it a loud call to them from the Master.

3. That we would emphasize the earnest appeal which the Board is making for workers in the foreign field. We trust that in the future, as in the past, the womanhood of our Church will respond in loyal, loving devotion to the Saviour as he opens before them the weighty responsibilities of the heathen world.

4 That the representatives of the Board, Mrs. William J. Reid and Mrs. Mary W. Porter, now be heard by the Assembly.

The following resolutions in regard to the estate of Mrs. Mary Stewart were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS ON THE MARY STEWART ESTATE.

Whereas, This Assembly has learned that the executors of the estate of Mrs. Mary Stewart, late of Peoria county, Illinois, are now ready to pay over the bequest of $3,000 made by said Mrs. Stewart to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, but that said executors desire this Assembly to designate or appoint its representative or agent to receive and receipt for said legacy; therefore, be it resolved,

1. That the Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, the corporate representative of this Assembly, be and said corporation is hereby authorized and directed to receive and receipt for the legacy bequeathed to this Assembly by the said Mrs. Stewart, deceased.

2. That in accordance with the purpose of the testatrix as expressed in her will as to the use to which said bequest should be applied, the said Trustees of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, are hereby directed, upon receipt of said legacy, to pay over the same to the Women's General Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, in aid of the work of the Jewish mission in the city of Chicago, the support of which has been undertaken by said Society.

The consideration of the report of the Committee of the Board of Freedmen's Missions was made the second order of the day for Monday morning.

The report of the Committee on the Limitation of Appeals was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The report of the Committee to prepare a Book of Instruction for Juniors was read and adopted.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

So much of the report of the Committee on Article XV. of the Testimony as refers to the Membership Covenant was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

So much of the report of the Board of Publication as refers to Sabbath-schools was referred to the Committee on Sabbath-schools.

The report of our representatives on the Committee on the revision of the Metrical Psalms was read and adopted. Pres. R. G. Ferguson, D. D., resigned from further service on this Committee, and the filling of the vacancy was referred to the Committee on Nominations. The following resolution was adopted:

THANKS TO THE PSALM REVISION COMMITTEE.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and adopted.

A letter from the Porsony Reformed Congregation of Hungary was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a memorial service for ministers deceased during the year, the Moderator, Pres. J. A. Thompson, D.D., presiding. At the close of the conference the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Elder W. C. Hutchison.

SATURDAY.

May 25, 1901, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by J. C. K. Milligan, D.D.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the General Committee on the Revision of the Metrical Psalms was read and adopted. So much of the report as refers to expenses was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The report of the Committee on Ways and Means was read and, with accompanying papers, referred to the Committee on Finance.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The report of the General Committee on Young People's Work was read and referred to the Committee on Young People's Work.

The report of the Trustee of the United Society of Christian Endeavor was read and referred to the Committee on Young People's Work.

The report of the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian System, Western Section, was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence, except so much as refers to the expenses of the Alliance, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The General Assembly accepted the invitation to meet next year in the Eighth Church, Allegheny, Pa. The hour of meeting was fixed at 7:45 P. M. An invitation from the congregation at Bellevue, Pa., for the meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions, was accepted.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Overture on Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE OVERTURE ON MARRIAGE WITH A DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.

We find that the whole number of votes cast is 1,182, of which 772 are in the affirmative and 410 in the negative, making a clear majority of 362. We therefore recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions:

1. That the overture to repeal that part of Section IV., Chapter XXIV., of the Confession of Faith, which reads, "The man may not marry any of his wife's kindred nearer in blood than he may of his own, nor the woman of her husband's kindred nearer in blood than of her own," has received a clear constitutional majority of the votes of the Church, and, therefore, has been carried.

2. That this Assembly hereby ratifies the decision of the presbyteries, and declares that portion of Section IV. of Chapter XXIV. of the Confession of Faith that was in overture repealed.

The report of the Special Committee on Reform was read and adopted. The nomination of the delegation to the convention of the Anti-Saloon League, provided for in the first resolution of this report, was referred to the Committee on Nominations. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON REFORM.

Three papers were put into our hands: One from the American Anti-Saloon League, one from the superintendent of the Sabbath school department of the W. C. T. U., and the report of the Standing Committee on Reform.

It is time for the most serious thought and strenuous effort on the part of the followers of Christ to meet and withstand the tides of evil which characterize our times.

The rum traffic has always been a manifest anarchy against the law of God, and one of the most fruitful sources of social and political corruption, and of anarchy against civil law, and at the same time a perpetual destroyer of human interests. But the question becomes more serious when the "powers ordained of God" for the protection of human society are found to be in actual alliance with this great destroyer of humanity and at the same time protectors and promotors of its baleful influence. When Christ was inaugurated into his Messianic office, which included his offices of Prophet, Priest and King, he enunciated the fundamental principles of his administration of all his offices when he said, "Thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness." How can we, the followers of Christ, do otherwise than stand with him on this great platform? When Satan proposed to give him all the kingdoms of this world if he would fall down and worship him, our Lord replied: "Get thee hence, Satan, for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." When, therefore, the attainment and exercise of political power are involved, can Christian citizens do other than stand with Christ our Redeemer and King?

With these great principles in view we would say, as the redeemed of the Lord, that we are not omni-partisan, or non-partisan, when these great fundamental principles of Christ's government are set at naught by any party or administration, but we are distinctly and emphatically Christ-partisan. Yet believing that the Anti-Saloon League is accomplishing great good in temperance reform, we would recommend that members of this Assembly, or of the United Presbyterian Church, who expect to attend the sixth National Anti-Saloon League Convention, to be held in Washington, D. C., commencing Tuesday, Dec. 3, 1901, be entitled to credentials as delegates signed by the Principal Clerk of the Assembly.

In response to the request of the W. C. T. U. we would recommend that the fourth Sabbath of November be set apart by the Assembly as Temperance Sabbath, and that pastors and sessions be urged so to conduct the public service of that day as to promote this reform.

We also present to the Assembly the recommendations of the Standing Committee on Reform and commend them for adoption, viz.:

That it direct the Permanent Committee on Reform to meet and organize early in the year, and to proceed at once to open correspondence with committees or representatives of as many Churches as possible; and that, securing such co-operation for the present, and preparing the way for it in the future, the committee be authorized in the name of the General Assembly to act as its agent in seeking to secure needed reforms, and in preventing all efforts to legalize and popularize prevailing vices.

That we recommend to our people the discriminating support of all Christian reforms in civil and social life.

It was resolved that when the Assembly adjourn it adjourn until Monday at 9 o'clock.

The Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. J. M. Adair.

MONDAY.

May 27, 1901, 9 o'clock.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by J. P. Sankey, D.D.

The roll was called. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Samuel Collins, D.D., gave notice, for himself and others who may join with him, of a dissent from the action of the General Assembly in repealing Section 4, Chapter XXIV. of the Confession of Faith. The dissent is as follows:

DISSENT OF DR. S. COLLINS AND OTHERS.

The undersigned, for themselves and any others who may join them, would hereby very respectfully and kindly, yet most firmly, dissent from and protest against the action of this Assembly and of the Church in repealing and annulling the second sentence of section 4 of chapter XXIV. of the Confession of Faith, thus leaving the Church without any law on the subject of incest within or without the marriage relation.

A partial report of the Committee on Judiciary was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON JUDICIARY.

1. The National Women's Suffrage Association requests the Assembly to pass a resolution and petition Congress in favor of "women's suffrage." We recommend the following: Resolved, That inasmuch as the request relates to the civil status of woman, we do not deem it expedient that this ecclesiastical court shall take action in the matter.

2. In the appeal by Rev. J. R. Wallace from the decree of the county court of Allegheny county, dismissing his suit against the trustees of the General Assembly, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, reversed the degree and held the lower court should take cognizance of the case, and inquire into the regularity of the action of the General Assembly complained of by Mr. Wallace. The case was heard again, and the trial judge's finding has been filed, holding that the General Assembly had not followed its own rules, and that its action in 1893, sustaining the appeal of Lake Presbytery, was irregular and void. Exceptions to the court's rulings and findings of fact and law have been filed by our counsel. These have not yet been argued and no decision will be made until a hearing shall be had thereon. We recommend the following action: Resolved, That the course of the trustees be approved and that further proceedings in the case be left to the trustees of the Assembly.

3. The case of H. J. Kyle came to the Assembly in 1900 from the Synod of the Punjab by reference. That Assembly returned it to the Synod, recommending it be referred to the court in whose bounds Mr. Kyle is residing for issue upon the basis of evidences of repentance. This court is the Presbytery of Delaware. It reports that it has examined the case and, being satisfied of Mr. Kyle's repentance, has issued it by removal of the sentence of suspension and by restoration to the gospel ministry. We therefore recommend the following action: Resolved, That the action of the Presbytery of Delaware, in restoring Mr. H. J. Kyle to the office of the gospel ministry be approved, and that the Presbytery of Delaware be instructed to place his name on its roll.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, on limitations of appeals in cases of discipline, was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE LIMITATION OF APPEALS.

We have considered the report of the Committee on the Limitation of Appeals in cases of Discipline, and recommend the following action:

I. That this Assembly submits to the presbyteries the following overture:

Shall the Book of Government be amended in the following particulars, viz.:

1. Amend Part I., Chapter V., Article IV., by striking out Sec. 4.

2. Amend Part III., Chapter XII., Section 2, so as to read: "Every decision in any court, except the highest, having jurisdiction, is subject to the review of a superior court."

3. Amend Section 1, of Article II., Chapter XII., to read as follows: "A reference is a judicial representation made by an inferior to a superior court having jurisdiction, of a matter not yet decided."

4. Amend Article II., Chapter XII., by inserting the following as Section 2: "In cases of discipline an appeal or complaint may be made to the Synod as the court of final jurisdiction, but an appeal or complaint concerning doctrines, general regulations, the interpretation of law, or the regularity of proceedings, may be made direct from the presbytery or synod to the General Assembly, whose judgment shall be for the guidance of the lower courts.

Such appeal or complaint shall always be made in writing, and shall contain a clear statement of the issue involved. The General Assembly shall enter upon its records the appeal as presented from the lower court, a clear statement of its own decision, and the grounds upon which it is made."

II. That a competent committee be appointed to revise the Book of Government and Discipline so as to make it conform to the action limiting appeals in cases of discipline to the Synods, and in any other particulars in which revision may be necessary.

The Committee on the Board of Home Missions presented its report. Before entering upon its consideration E. S. McKitrick, D.D., led the Assembly in prayer. The report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

There have been placed in our hands the report of the Board of Home Missions, the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, and the report of the Special Committee on unemployed ministers and vacant congregations.

From the report of the Board it appears that 218 stations were aided during the past year. The amount of money thus expended was $79,658.72, an average of $382.97 to each station. The record shows that the work in the field has gone on encouragingly though not rapidly. There has been a net increase in membership of 1,394, and in the Sabbath schools, a gain of 121 teachers and 2,017 scholars. It is worthy of special notice that while the net gain in the membership of the whole Church in America was only 9-10 of one per cent., the gain in the home mission congregations was 8 1-10 per cent.

The total expenditure of the Board during the year was $82,585.76. The receipts from all sources were $80,920.36, leaving a deficit of $1,664.40. This amount, added to the debt reported at the close of last year, makes a total present indebtedness of $5,576.

From the report of the General Committee it appears that the aid asked for the coming year was greater than ever before in the history of the Church. The total amount applied for was $104,413. Of this $18,150 was for exclusively new work. Your committee look upon this as a satisfactory and highly encouraging fact. It shows that the Church is awaking to the possibilities opening to her in the home field, and sees the necessity of lengthening her cords as well as of strengthening her stakes. This is as it should be, and it indicates a future of increasing usefulness and power for our beloved Church. The committee, after prayerful deliberation, reduced the amount asked for to $100,550. It was felt that a further reduction could not be made without doing serious injury to the work. Appropriations aggregating this large sum are recommended to the General Assembly.

With these facts before us your committee beg leave to offer the following resolutions:

1. That the report of the Board of Home Missions be approved.
2. That the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, with the recommendations therein contained, be adopted.
3. That we render to God our sincere thanks for the blessings which he has given to our work during the past year.
4. That we express our entire confidence in the Board of Home Missions and its Corresponding Secretary, and commend the efforts made to stimulate the Church, not only to give more liberally of its means, but to enter into and establish work in new and inviting fields.
5. That presbyteries be directed to enforce more rigidly the rules relating to the applications for aid; namely, to the fifteen year limit rule, the rule of the sliding scale, and the rule requiring congregations organized three years and over to contribute not less than $5.00 per member for the support of pastor or stated supply.

6. That the time has come for a decided enlargement of our home mission work, and therefore we commend the action of the last General Committee in recommending appropriations reaching $100,000, and we call upon the Church to begin at once the work of raising this amount, so that when the year closes every dollar asked for shall be in the treasury.

In regard to the matter on unemployed ministers and the settlement of vacant congergations, your committee would recommend the approval of the report of the Special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly and would offer the following resolutions:

1. That each presbytery be instructed to hold a conference at an early date upon the authority and rights of the presbytery, and how these are to be maintained in the matter of vacancy and supply.

2. That the Board of Home Missions through its Corresponding Secretary be directed to furnish to the Superintendent of Missions upon request the names of ministers and licentiates desiring pastoral settlement, and that all such ministers and licentiates be urged to send their names to the board for such use.

3. That presbyteries be instructed to use great care in nominating men to fill the office of Superintendent of Missions, and to appoint a committee of supplies with the Superintendent of Missions as chairman, who shall be charged with the care of vacant pulpits. Congregations shall not be permitted to supply themselves excepting through said committee.

4. That the attention of presbyteries be called to the rule, and that they be instructed carefully to enforce it, that only licentiates or ordained ministers are to receive appointments in vacant pulpits.

The nomination of the Committee provided for in the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, part III., resolution 5, was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Freedmen's Missions was read. In order that this report might be finally disposed of, the time of adjournment was postponed ten minutes. The report was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

The Committee on Freedmen's Missions has had referred to it the report of the Freedmen's Board. We have also held an interesting consultation with the Corresponding Secretary. We beg leave to call attention to the following particulars in the Board's report:

First, The manifest favor of God in preserving the lives and in a large measure the health of the members of the Board, and of all the active workers in the field, and in making their labors instrumental in the conversion of an unusually large number of precious souls.

Second, The encouraging progress of the work. While no new fields have been entered, yet the report, as a whole, is more than ordinarily hopeful and cheering, and while the total number of church members is smaller, the increase by profession is more than three times larger than last year. Knoxville College has passed its twenty-fifth year of efficient work, and is evidently accomplishing more fully than ever before the great purpose for which it was founded. It is manifest that the Board and the College have been earnestly and successfully endeavoring to carry out the policy of evangelization as well as education. They have planted and fostered churches as well as schools, and the results prove that the United Presbyterian Church can and ought to be extended among the populations of the south.

Third, The financial condition. We notice with pleasure the growth of liberality among the freedmen themselves. They are making a commendable effort at self-support and the average per member this year for religious purposes is more than 33 per cent. larger than last year. We regret to notice, that while the total receipts by the Board have been larger than last year, yet the burdensome debt, which has been hampering the Board for so long, has increased rather than diminished.

Fourth, The work in Cuba. We notice that, owing to the lack of funds for this specific purpose and the evidence that the educational needs of the Cubans were being supplied in good measure from other sources, the Board did not deem it wise to enter this new field, as authorized by the last Assembly.

Fifth, The interest among the southern people. We hear with satisfaction from the Corresponding Secretary of the awakening interest among the white people of the south in our work. Men of wealth and influence are coming forward, offering their buildings and lands, and inviting our Board to occupy the field and carry on the work.

We offer the following resolutions:

1. We express our humble gratitude to God for his manifest favor and blessing upon the work and the workers.

2. Since we deem evangelization more vital to the welfare of the freedmen than secular education, we heartily commend the policy, which is being pursued, of establishing churches as well as schools throughout the south land.

3. In view of the manifest providence of God in opening up new fields of work, and the loud call that comes to us to enter these fields; and in view of the heavy debt resting upon the Board and effectually preventing the forward movement that ought to be undertaken; we earnestly commend the Freedmen's Board to the increased liberality of the Church, and urge upon pastors and sessions the duty of presenting the claims of this work to their congregations.

4. The Board is requested to embody in its annual report a statistical table of the educational work among the freedmen, showing the stations at which schools are being conducted, the number of teachers in each school, the number of pupils enrolled, the average attendance during the year, and the number of months each school is kept open.

5. In view of the increased demands of the work among the freedmen upon the time and thought of the Board and the rapidly enlarging interests involved, we deem the time not far distant when the Corresponding Secretary should devote his entire time to its oversight.

After prayer by J. B. McMichael, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. B. Jackson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

Proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. This report, as amended and adopted, is as follows :

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The annual report of the Board of Foreign Missions; papers concerning the Sudan mission; the report of Asyut College Committee, and a communication containing requests respecting a charter for Asyut Training College; the proper recognition of college instructors, medical and hospital assistants so as to secure privileges of transportation; and the method of securing interest and support in the establishing of colleges in our mission fields in Egypt and India, have been submitted to your committee for consideration.

The blessing of God has been freely bestowed upon the foreign work during the almost half a century of its history, success has attended the efforts of our missionaries, the Church has shown commendable liberality in her support of the work, and the prayers of God's people have been answered in the ingathering of souls.

Two missionaries have entered into rest during the year, Rev. R. R. McClure, of Zafarwal, India, on April 27, 1900, and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sowash, at Alexandria, Egypt, on Sept. 4, 1900. Two of the children of missionaries have passed away, Mary, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Cummings, at Pasrur, India, on May 1, 1900; and Agnes, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Reed, at Alexandria, Egypt, on May 15, 1900.

The educational work in the foreign field has received special favors in the liberal gifts secured through the agency of the committee for the purchasing of grounds and for the erection of buildings for the Asyut Training College, and by the donation of $12,000 from Miss Eleanor C. Law, and Miss Ina L. Robertson, for erecting and equipping a suitable building for Gordon Mission College, at Rawal Pindi, India. Already about $60,000 of the proposed $100,000 have been pledged for the Asyut College. The work is one of great importance, the persons who are prosecuting the enterprise are to be congratulated on the success attained, and the work itself is commended to the liberal hearted constituency of the foreign work.

The paper submitted to the Assembly in regard to establishing a series of colleges in Egypt and India, and the adoption of methods for their support, contains suggestions of very great importance respecting the future educational work in our foreign mission fields, and calls the attention of the Church to this special line of effort.

We mention with gratitude the fact that more than $30,000 passed through the hands of the treasurer of the Board for the relief of the famine sufferers in India. It is also worthy of note that the aggregate amount received from legacies and gifts exceeds $54,000, more than three times the average sum secured from the same sources during six preceding years. This liberality of a few cannot however take the place of the regular contributions of the Church, and ought not to be made an excuse for withholding from the treasury of the Lord.

During the year Revs. R. E. Carson and K. W. McFarland tendered their resignations. The Board is still in hope that the former may be able to return, so the resignation has not been accepted. In the case of Mr. McFarland, health and other conditions satisfactory to himself lead him to insist on the acceptance of his resignation.

Rev. Robert Stewart, D.D., Rev. W. J. Brandon, and Miss Helen J. Ferrier, appointed by the last Assembly, have entered upon the work to which they were assigned by the Board.

The vacancy, occasioned by the inability of Rev. O. A. Keach to accept the call of the General Assembly, was filled by the Board by the appointment of Rev. W. R. Coventry. The vacancy made by the death of Rev. R. R. McClure was supplied by the appointment of Rev. Robert Maxwell. Mrs. Alice McClure, after the death of her husband, was appointed by the Board as a missionary, her support being provided by the Women's Board.

The Board at the request of the mission appointed Dr. H. T. McLaughlin as the first medical missionary to the Sudan.

The Assembly is asked to confirm the appointment of Mr. J. H. Morton and Prof. W. E. Nichol, to the mission in India; of Miss Margaret A. Bell to the mission in Egypt, and to give authority to the Board to appoint and send out one or more young women to India, if suitable persons can be found.

It is with pleasure that we recognize the generous benefactions and helpfulness of individuals, societies, and periodicals in the prosecution in the work of the Board.

We recommend the following for adoption:

1. We express gratitude to God for all the blessings bestowed upon the missionaries, and for the success which has attended the work of the year.

2. That the report of the Board and its work during the year be approved.

3. We would bow with Christian submission to the providence of God in removing by death Rev. R. R. McClure and Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sowash from the active missionary forces; Mary Cummings and Agnes Reed, children of missionaries; at the same time assuring the sorrowing friends of our tenderest sympathy, and praying for the comforting presence and sustaining grace of God in all their bereavements.

4. The Assembly ratifies the action of the Board in the appointment of Revs. W. J. Brandon, W. R. Coventry and Robert Maxwell; Mrs. Alice McClure and Miss Helen J. Ferrier; also the appointment of Dr. H. T. McLaughlin as medical missionary to the Sudan.

5. The Assembly confirms the appointment of Mr. J. H. Morton and Prof. W. E. Nichol to the mission in India, of Miss Margaret A. Bell to the mission in Egypt, and authorizes the Board to send out one or more young women to India, if suitable persons can be found, and two male missionaries and two young women to the mission in Egypt in case the finances will permit.

6. That the Assembly establish a distinct work to be known as the Sudan Mission, work to begin at a station named Dolaib Hill, that $5,075 be appropriated from the Sudan fund to meet the expense of the new mission for the current year, and that the work be prosecuted in accordance with recommendations submitted by the missionaries who have explored the field.

7. That the rules of the Board, governing the return of missionaries to the foreign field after the first term of service, be approved.

8. That the missions be required in the beginning of each year not to exceed the appropriations of the preceding year, until they shall be notified of the amount appropriated for the new year by the General Assembly; that the Missionary Associations shall not overdraw the appropriations made, and that the year shall begin with the first of July and end with the 30th of June.

9. The Assembly directs the Board of Foreign Missions to take the necessary steps to secure charters for Asyut Training College in Egypt, and Gordon Mission College in India, giving authority to these institutions to confer academic degrees.

10. The Assembly authorizes the Board to commission as missionaries college instructors, nurses and assistants in medical and hospital work, and others who are under contract for a term of years, but without the right to membership in the Missionary Associations.

11. That all matters placed before the Assembly by communications relating to the establishment of colleges in our foreign mission fields, and to methods of securing interest and support in the educational work of these fields, be committed to the Board for consideration and approval, and that the Board be requested to give publicity to its conclusions.

The Committee on Finance was instructed to submit to the Assembly a rule governing the Boards in the acceptance of life annuity donations.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A telegram from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

After prayer by W. H. McMillan, D.D., the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by J. W. Martin, M.D.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

An address to the General Assembly in behalf of the American Bible Society was read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Proceeded to the order of the day, a conference on "A Living Church, Its Methods," G. W. Hamilton, D.D., presiding. At 9:40 P. M. the conference rose and reported, through its chairman, an interesting conference on the subject assigned by the Assembly.

After prayer by Rev. Robert Hood the Assembly adjourned.

TUESDAY.

May 28, 1901, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by Rev. A. K. Strane.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of he last session were read and approved.

A resolution for the appointment of a committee to prepare a list of forbidden degrees of consanguinity and affinity in marriage was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

A resolution of thanks from the Ministerial Association of Des Moines was read and accepted. It is as follows:

PAPER FROM THE DES MOINES MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

Dear Brethren: The Ministerial Association of this city, desirous of recognizing and welcoming your presence among us, passed this morning the following resolution, which I am instructed to forward to you with our fraternal greetings:

"Resolved, That the Ministerial Association of Des Moines express their cordial appreciation of the presence of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in this city; and they also put themselves on record as appreciating the graceful courtesy of the visiting brethren in filling so many of the pulpits of the city on the Lord's Day just passed."

Wishing you the abundant blessing of our common Lord and Master in your work. I am yours sincerely,

D. B. Spencer, Secretary.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 27, 1901.

The report of the Committee on Revision was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON REVISION.

There have been submitted to us the minutes of the General Assembly, and of the Synods of New York, Pittsburgh, First of the West, Second, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and Columbia; all of 1900 and certified; besides, as ordered by the Assembly, a translation of the minutes of the Synod of the Nile for 1901 and certified.

These have been examined by your committee and found to be correctly kept, and are recommended for approval.

The following report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Synod of the Nile was read and adopted:

REPORT ON THE COMPOSITION OF THE SYNOD OF THE NILE.

By request of the four presbyteries composing the Synod of the Nile, the General Assembly of 1899 authorized them to organize the Synod as a representative body, composed of one-third of the members of the presbyteries. The Synod now makes request to be constituted in the regular way, according to the rules of the United Presbyterian Church. The following action is recommended:

Resolved, That the request of the Synod of the Nile, to be composed of all the members of the presbyteries, be granted.

These recommendations of the Secretaries of the Boards of the Church on matters financial were read and adopted:

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SECRETARIES OF THE BOARDS.

Realizing the need of more money for the support of the work in the care of the Boards which we respectively represent, and desiring to see it greatly enlarged and extended, also believing that larger offerings for it can be secured if the right steps are taken to bring this work and its needs before the people of our Church, we beg leave to make to this General Assembly the following recommendations:

1. That this General Assembly recommends that each presbytery at its next meeting hold a conference on the work in the care of the different Boards of the Church, and adopt some plan for quickening the interest of congregations in it and enlarging their contributions to it.
2. That pastors and sessions arrange a service in the interest of this work once a quarter during the coming year, for the special purpose of securing for it larger offerings.
3. That pastors and sessions make special effort to secure from each member of their congregations a contribution to this work, and make a proportionate distribution of the funds thus secured according to the appropriations made by the General Assembly.
4. That the Boards be instructed to prepare, acting jointly, a program to be suggested for the services to be held by congregations.
5. That the Committee on Ways and Means be urged to begin its work at once, and earnestly continue it throughout the year.

The report of the Committee on Judiciary on Article XV. of the Testimony was read. During the discussion of this report a motion was adopted limiting speeches in all following debates during this Assembly to five minutes each. This report was laid aside to permit the hearing of Jesse W. Brooks, D.D., agent for the American Tract Society, who then addressed the Assembly. The order of the day was postponed until after final action upon the report of the Committee on Judiciary. During the consideration of this report the Assembly was led in prayer by the Principal Clerk. Before disposing of the report the hour of adjournment arrived, and the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. E. K. Smith.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by Rev. F. W. Crosbie.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Took up unfinished business—the report of the Committee on Judiciary. This report was adopted and it is as follows:

REPORT ON ARTICLE XV. OF THE TESTIMONY.

In view of the existing diversity in the interpretation of Article XV. of the Testimony and in the application of it by sessions in the admission of members of secret orders, and in view of the great multiplication of these orders and of their diversity in purpose and character, the General Assembly adopts the following as expressive of the mind of the Church on this subject:

Article XV. of the Testimony continues to express the general sentiment of the Church and is hereby affirmed. Members of the Church of Christ ought not to have fellowship in associations which bind their members by oaths or affirmations to obey unknown obligations, and to immoral secrecy, or which establish a fraternal fellowship among men subversive of the unity of the body of Christ. It is especially obligatory upon Christians to stand aloof from the societies which, by their moral teachings and religious ritual, foster a belief in the salvability of men apart from the mediation of Christ. We condemn such organizations as most dishonoring to our Lord and injurious to men, and persons who, with knowledge of the truth concerning them, wilfully adhere to such associations, shall not be received into Church membership. All such societies are included in the phrase of the Testimony, "Inconsistent with the genius and spirit of Christianity." The entire contents and bearings of the Article should be emphasized in the pulpit teaching, and the Testimony faithfully maintained by all.

This Article is not to be construed so as to exclude from the Church the membership of such societies as are not bound by oath or affirmation, do not pledge to secrecy in things unknown, or inculcate a Christless religion.

In the administration of this Article, as of others of the Testimony, sessions possess the right to exercise a wise discretion in dealing with such cases as may arise on their merits, and in such a way as may best promote the glory of God and the edification of the Church. It is supposed that sessions are composed of men of understanding, that they are acquainted with the principles which they have embraced, and that they are faithful to the trust committed to them as officers of the Church. They may safely be trusted in the exercise of this power as courts of the Church, being, of course, responsible for the manner in which they exercise this discretion.

The second order of the day for this afternoon was made the consideration of the report on the Board of Church Extension.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief was read. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your committee, having considered carefully the report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, find much to commend it to the sympathy and consideration of the Church. The report and the statements of the representative of the Board here, Rev. Frank Getty, indicate the efficiency and economy with which the funds contributed by the Church towards this object are being distributed.

It is very gratifying to note that the Board has suggested enlarged plans for increasing the amount of relief hitherto granted to those seeking aid, and consequently recommend certain changes in the administration of this fund. The Board, feeling that the maximum amount to which, by the rules under which it acted in the past, limited the amount of relief given in any one case to a sum entirely inadequate, believe that the time has come to justify a change in the rules which hitherto governed the power to give relief.

We note with pleasure the conformity of the Board this year, for the first time, to the regulations of the Assembly in having an expert accountant audit its accounts.

In view of the proposed changes, we recommend:

1. That the maximum annuity paid to beneficiaries be increased from $200 to $250.

2. That any honorably retired minister, who has reached the age of 70 years, and who has been engaged in the service of the United Presbyterian Church as a missionary of the Foreign, Home or Freedmen's Board, or as a pastor or stated supply, for a period aggregating not less than 30 years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief, an annual sum for his support, without annual recommendation from his presbytery; that after due examination by the presbytery, it shall be the duty of the stated clerk of the presbytery to forward the application to the Board with his endorsement; and that then it shall be the duty of the Board to pay such applicant an annuity not exceeding $250 during the remainder of his life, unless because of some change in his circumstances, the presbytery or the applicant himself shall otherwise direct, this sum being a substitute for the annuity allowed to ordinary beneficiaries.

3. That a standing committee of one or more, to be known as the Ministerial Relief Committee, shall be appointed by each presbytery whose duty shall be to examine every application for aid, and report to the presbytery the result of such investigation.

4. That pastors and sessions be urged to put forth earnest efforts to increase the interest of the congregations of our Church in the work of this Board.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension, as read and adopted, is as follows:

REPORT ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

From the report of the Board of Church Extension and other data placed in our hands, we glean the following facts:

The Board has sustained a serious loss in the death of two of its leading members.

The blessing of God has manifestly attended the efforts of the Church in this branch of her work. Twenty-one congregations have been assisted by donations aggregating $36,975, and one has received a loan of $5,000.

As to funds, demand is in excess of supply. Pressing appeals are coming from every quarter for help, which can be only partially supplied. This difficulty arises from various causes. In cities and towns that are rapidly increasing in wealth, there is a demand for more expensive churches than would have been thought sufficient some years ago. That only 54.3 per cent. of the amount appropriated by last Assembly has been paid may be, at least in part, the result of numerous appeals on behalf of special objects. The demand for aggressive effort is constantly increasing. Especially in manufacturing districts, large populations are being brought together, who are practically without church privileges.

We are convinced that the funds at the command of the Board have been economically and wisely expended. The business methods of the Board cannot be too highly commended. Funds are invested in such manner as to bring in the largest returns consistent with utmost security, and all accounts are audited by an expert accountant, who certifies the result to the Board.

The committee offers the following resolutions for adoption by the Assembly:

1. That the Assembly very decidedly approves the work of the Board for the past year.

2. That, in reference to the death of Messrs. Thomas McCance and William J. Sawyer, the General Assembly places on record its high appreciation of these two willing "witness bearers to the truth"; in their lives, beloved for their self-sacrifices on behalf of the cause of Christ in the world; in their death, revered in memory as men of God, "Whose memorial is on high." May our prayer be that of the Psalmist, "Help, Lord, for the Godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men."

3. That the Assembly gratefully acknowledges the goodness of God in the prosperity that has attended the work during the year.

4. The Assembly commends the work to the earnest consideration of the Church, and recommends that pastors and sessions urge upon their congregations the importance of greater liberality in its support.

As a result of the prosperity of our work in Boston, the church finds itself in pressing need of enlarged quarters. The title to the property is held by the Trustees of the General Assembly. That the congregation may be enabled to meet the urgent demand for more room and provide for its rapid growth, your committee would recommend:

1. That the Trustees of the Assembly be authorized and directed to convey the title to the property to the congregation at such time and under such conditions as the Board of Church Extension may approve.

2. That the Board be authorized to appropriate as a donation a sum not exceeding $5,000, and to permit a first mortgage for such sum as in their judgment may be necessary and prudent.

A partial report of the Committee on Finance was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

PARTIAL REPORT ON FINANCE.

I. Your Committee respectfully report that we have examined the statements of the treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions, Church Extension, Education, Publication, Ministerial Relief, Gibson Trust Fund, and of the General Assembly, and find that these have been properly audited and certified as correct, and we recommend their approval. We have examined the report of the executors and trustees of the Reed estate, and recommend its approval.

II. In view of the added burden placed upon the treasurer of the General Assembly, by the establishment of the general delegate fund, your committee would call attention to the faithful and laborious service, which he gratuitously and cheerfully renders to the Church, and recommend that the thanks of the General Assembly be tendered to him, and to the treasurers of all the Boards and funds of the Church for their services.

III. We ask that warrants be drawn on the Assembly fund for the payment of the following bills:

Expenses of Delegate to Synod of Christian Reformed Church	$ 40.00
" " Moderator's Alternate for 1900	9.40
" " Retiring Moderator	25.00
" " Committee on Article XV	30.00
" " United Presbyterian members of the Committee on Revision of Psalms	68.62
" " Committee of Ways and Means	15.39
" " The Alliance of Reformed Churches	270.00
" " General Committee on Revision of Psalms	15.00
" " Principal Clerk	58.54
" " Second Clerk, including printing	69.00
Bill of Murdoch, Kerr & Co., for printing	19.50
Bill of Rufus Johnson for printing	2.50
Janitor of Albia Church	10.00
Janitor 1st Church, Des Moines	20.00

IV. On the memorial from the Synod of Iowa, asking that the action of the last General Assembly increasing the salary of the Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, $300, be repealed, your committee, while fully sympathizing with all efforts in the direction of wisely economizing the mission funds of the Church, yet in view of the ever increasing efficiency of our worthy Secretary, who for so many years has judiciously and most successfully administered the affairs of our Board of Church Extension, devoting his best energies and practically his whole time to that work, recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be not granted.

V. On the memorial from the Presbytery of Omaha, asking that the treasurers of the Home Mission, Church Extension and Women's Boards be directed to furnish annual statements to the clerks of presbyteries in order to facilitate the auditing of the accounts of Superintendents of Missions, we beg leave to say that in the opinion of your committee the statements accompanying remittances from the treasurers of these Boards is a sufficient voucher. We recommend that the prayer of the memorialists be not granted. .

VI. On the request of the treasurer of the Quarter Centennial Commission, asking for direction in the disposal of a small sum of money in his hands, we recommend that it be made a nucleus for the proposed dormitory at Camden.

VII. The report of the Committee on Ways and Means has been placed in our hands. We call attention to the model constitution prepared by the committee for the use of congregations, and to the sample pages of a church treasurer's record. We commend the efforts put forth by the committee to keep the duty of proportionate and systematic giving before the Church. We sympathize most fully with them in their expressions of appreciation of the character and work of Mr. W. J. Sawyer, and of the loss sustained by the whole Church in his death. We recommend:

1. That By-Law No. 3 of the Model Constitution, submitted by the Committee on Ways and Means, be amended by the substitution of the words "are expected to contribute to," for the words, "pledge themselves to a systematic contribution for."

2. That this Constitution, as thus amended, be adopted as a Model Constitution for the government of congregations.

3. That the Board of Publication be directed to publish this Constitution in pamphlet form and advertise the same.

4. That the Board of Publication be directed to prepare a Church treasurer's record book after the model recommended by the Committee on Ways and Means, and advertize the same.

VIII. On the question of annuities referred to your committee we recommend the adoption of the following: Resolved, That it is the judgment of this General Assembly that, in all ordinary cases, the action of the Assembly of 1897, namely, "the General Assembly hereby authorizes all the Boards to receive donations subject to such annuities and payable in such manner as may be agreed upon, such contributions to be securely invested and the annuity never to exceed the annual interest received." (Vol. IX., p. 288) should be adhered to, yet in exceptional cases discretion be granted to the several Boards.

IX. In the judgment of your committee $5,000 is the amount estimated for the Delegate Fund for the coming year.

X. Your Committee on Finance, to whom was referred the memorial from the officers of the General Assembly on the delegate fund, recommend the adoption of the following rules as permanent regulations for the management of this fund:

REGULATIONS FOR THE DELEGATE FUND.

1. The General Assembly, through its Committee on Finance, shall make an assessment upon all the presbyteries in America for a general delegate fund, the same to be included in the appropriation for the General Assembly Fund.

The assessment shall be according to the membership in the several presbyteries as reported to the Assembly making the assessment, and shall in no case exceed ten cents per member.

2. The financial agent of each presbytery shall receive the amount collected, and forward the same to the treasurer of the General Assembly not later than April 20 of each year. He shall also report to the General Assembly at its first session the distance by the most direct route from a central point in the presbytery to the place of meeting of the General Assembly.

3. The treasurer of the General Assembly shall report to the Assembly at its first session the apportionment to each presbytery for the General Assembly Fund, the amount received from each presbytery, and the percentage of the latter to the former. This report shall be referred to the Committee on Finance.

4. The Committee on Finance shall compute the expenses of each delegate entitled to receive allowance from this fund at the rate of 1½ cents per mile for ministers and 2 cents per mile for ruling elders, and prorate the same to each delegate on the basis of the percentage paid by his presbytery as reported by the treasurer of the General Assembly, and report by presbyteries to the General Assembly. In exceptional cases, where concessions cannot be obtained from the railroad companies, the committee is authorized to allow a higher rate.

5. All the commissioners in attendeance on the sessions of the General Assembly are entitled to the benefits of this fund. The roll of the Assembly, as certified by the principal clerk, shall be accepted as evidence of the attendance required. The expenses to be provided for shall be limited to railroad fare, and that by the shortest route to and from the place of meeting of the Assembly, the delegates availing themselves of any commutation, or special rates that may be offered. Commissioners from presbyteries in foreign lands shall be allowed mileage from their place of residence in this country.

6. The principal clerk, not later than the close of the morning session of the last day of the General Assembly, shall certify to the Committee on Finance the attendance of the commissioners on the sessions of the Assembly.

7. When the report of the Committee on Finance shall have been adopted, the principal clerk shall draw a warrant on the Treasurer of the General Assembly for the aggregate amount, and certify to the Treasurer the amount due to each presbytery, together with the sum to be paid to each delegate.

8. The Treasurer of the General Assembly shall remit to the Financial Agent of each presbytery the amount due to the delegates of that presbytery, who shall, without delay, remit to each delegate the amount due to him.

9. The Committee on Finance shall submit to the General Assembly an estimate of the amount required for the delegate fund for the following year.

We also recommend the adoption of the following: Resolved, That, while we concede the right of a presbytery to provide for the expenses of its own delegates, yet in view of the fact that the establishment of a General Delegate Fund is the act of the highest court of our Church, whose authority we recognize, and that the principle on which it is based is Scriptural as well as fraternal, viz., that the strong should bear the infirmities of the weak and not please themselves, and that the success of the plan depends on the co-operation of all our presbyteries and congregations; we urge all the presbyteries to contribute their full quota to the General Assembly Fund.

After prayer by Rev. James Dodds the Assembly adjourned.

7:45 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with devotional exercises, and prayer by Elder George Gordon.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The report of the Committee on Devotional Exercises was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

Your committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly engage in appropriate devotional exercises at each session, especially before the consideration of the more important questions, and that the time thus spent be wholly at the discretion of the Moderator.
2. That Rev. J. K. McClurkin, D.D., be the alternate of the Moderator to preach the opening sermon of the Forty-fourth General Assembly.
3. That the following pastors of Allegheny, Pa., constitute a Committee on Conferences for the next Assembly: Revs. W. I. Wishart, J. W. Witherspoon, D.D., Geo. W. McDonald.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on a Reform Field Agent was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON A REFORM FIELD AGENT.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures on the memorial from the Presbytery of Conemaugh, asking the General Assembly to appoint a minister to present the cause of moral and national reform from our pulpits, recommend the adoption of the following:

1. That the General Assembly recognizes the great importance of the movement for National Reform and the need of thorough discussion of the subjects involved by competent men.
2. Inasmuch, however, as there exists already an organization, inter-denominational in character and organized for this especial work, and with which we have affiliated for many years, and under whose auspices a number of our ministers have been employed, it does not seem advisable to make the appointment requested by the Presbytery of Conemaugh.
3. We urge our pastors to give special attention to this matter, and see to it that their people are thoroughly informed on the important subjects connected with moral reform.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Distribution of Important Papers was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE DISTRIBUTION OF IMPORTANT PAPERS.

There has been referred to us a memorial from the Presbytery of Allegheny, asking that the Clerks of the General Assembly be directed to prepare and distribute annually to presbyteries and sessions official circulars setting forth a schedule of all matters of reference from the General Assembly requiring presbyterial action, and such as are important for the information of sessions. Since it seems to be important that the Assembly should be in direct communication with the inferior courts that are expected to know and carry out its official actions, and since full and accurate information is always helpful in developing interest and in guiding to intelligent and loyal support of our Church, we therefore recommend for adoption the following:

1. That the Clerks of the General Assembly be directed to prepare annually and distribute to all the presbyteries an official schedule of all matters of reference from the General Assembly requiring presbyterial notice and action, including overtures, appointments of days for special observance, quotas, and whatever else should be brought to the attention of presbyteries.

2. That similar schedules, with such modifications as may be found necessary, be annually prepared and distributed to all the sessions throughout the Church for purposes of information.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Publication was read. As amended and adopted, it is as follows:

REPORT ON PUBLICATION.

Your Committee on the Board of Publication would respectfully report that we have examined the matters referred to us, and offer for your adoption the following resolutions:

1. We commend the Board to the confidence and patronage of the Church and the public in general.

2. We heartily approve the action of the Board in making grants to mission churches and Sabbath schools in need, and urge it in the future to do all in its power in this line of work.

3. We are pleased to learn that the Board has prepared a new and enlarged edition of Bible Songs.

4. We urge the Board to collect, as soon as practicable, the various amounts due it, and would advise Sabbath schools and individuals, having accounts with the Board, to settle them as promptly as they can.

The report of the Committee on Sabbath Schools was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Two papers were placed in our hands: The statistical table prepared by the chairman of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath schools, and that part of the report of the Board of Publication which refers to Sabbath school work. These papers have been well prepared and are full of interesting information. They show that our Sabbath school work is in excellent condition and is making steady advancement. The number of schools reporting is the same as last year, 932. No reports were received from 39 schools. The total enrollment is 121,755, an increase of 3,192. The average attendance has been 74,912, an increase of 788. The contributions were $121,041, or $11,431 more than ever before. Of this amount $39,115 have been contributed to the Boards of the Church. One of the most gratifying features is the fact that, of 6,158 additions to the Church during the year upon profession of faith, 3,192 were from the Sabbath schools, another proof of its vital importance to the life of the Church. This was a gain of 514 conversions over the preceding year.

The Home Department shows a growing interest. There were 28 Presbyterial conventions during the year, all of which were helpful to the work. Eight hundred and twenty-seven congregations have pastors or stated supplies, and 740 of these are in the Sabbath school. Of the 3,776 elders reported, 2,995 attend the schools. This indicates a deep interest on the part of pastors and elders which is to be commended. May others emulate their worthy example! The desire for music better adapted to children's voices will be partly realized when the next edition of Bible Songs is published. Your committee would submit the following resolutions:

1. We recommend the adoption of the usual order for missionary contributions, viz.: 1st quarter, Foreign Missions; 2d quarter, Home Missions; 3d quarter, Church Extension; 4th quarter, Freedmen's Missions; and that these objects be kept before the schools that the missionary spirit may be developed.

2. We recommend that the 2d Sabbath in June be observed as, "Children's Day," the fourth Sabbath of November as Temperance Day; and that the third Sabbath of October be appointed as a day of special prayer in all our congregations for Sabbath schools.

3. The Home Department is proving to be a helpful auxiliary and should be encouraged.

4. We commend the holding of presbyterial and synodical Sabbath school conventions; and we recommend co-operation with association work in county and state.

5. We urge pastors and presbyterial superintendents to canvass carefully their fields with a view of establishing mission schools..

6. That we may become more efficient in our Sabbath school work, we would urge pastors and superintendents to hold teachers' meetings where practical, to have normal classes, and to study the best methods of work among children. We believe that much good can be derived from introducing kindergarten methods in the primary department, and by acquainting our teachers with established pedagogic principles.

After prayer by Rev. W. M. Butler the Assembly adjourned.

WEDNESDAY.

May 29, 1901, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. B. A. McBride.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A request from the Board of Publication for an appropriation was read and referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

The report of the Committee on Statistics was read. As amended and adopted, it is as follows:

REPORT ON STATISTICS.

Your committee would report that there has been submitted to us a memorial from the Synod of Iowa, praying, "Inasmuch as it is desirable and just that a full and clear acknowledgment of all the contributions of the people of the Church be made to them; and inasmuch as, of the four hundred salaries paid in whole or in part from the general funds of the Church, not one is directly reported in the current issue of the minutes of the General Assembly. We therefore petition your honorable body to see that these general funds be reported in the minutes of the General Assembly every year in a complete and clear way, giving definitely the salary of each officer of the Assembly and of the Boards, naming each person and classifying in the same way the salaries of missionaries, professors, and teachers, receiving pay from the general fund in our Church."

Your committee is of the opinion that not all of the items here petitioned for are in the province of the General Assembly to grant; and that other items are already published as requested; for example, the salaries of the officers of many of the Boards, and the expenditures of the Board of Home Missions.

1. However, as the fullest knowledge is needful, we recommend that all the Boards publish separate items of the salaries of their secretary and treasurer, in the summary appended to the minutes.

2. We further recommend that the statistical tables as reported by the Second Clerk be heartily approved by this General Assembly.

3. We further recommend that all pastors be urged to pay special attention to distributing among their people the statistical literature furnished by the several Boards for gratuitous distribution.

The report of the Special Committee on Young People's Work was read. It was adopted and is as follows:

REPORT ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Three papers have been placed in our hands: 1. A memorial from the young people's presbyterial association of Cedar Rapids Presbytery, asking that "the constitution of the Young People's Christian Union be so amended as to provide for a general convention once in three years." 2. A communication from Rev. W. H. McMillan, D.D., the representative of the United Presbyterian Church on the Board of Trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, stating that the term of office for which he was nominated had expired, and that the United Society desired that this Assembly should again nominate a person to represent them in that body. 3. The annual report of the General Committee on Young People's Work.

I. As to the first; we recommend that the memorialists take the course provided in the constitution of the Young People's Christian Union, and come through the Convention and General Committee on Young People's Work.

II. As to the second; we recommend that the Assembly continue its interest in the Christian Endeavor Society by nominating some one to represent the United Presbyterian Church on the Board of Trustees of the Christian Endeavor Society.

III. As the report of the General Committee on Young People's Work will be printed in the minutes of the Assembly, we give attention only to such recommendations as require special action. We recommend:

1. That Mr. E. B. McKown, acting chairman of the General Committee, be permitted to fill regularly his own term of office as chairman of the General Committee the coming year.

2. That all our young people's societies desiring to print and use the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting topics be directed to correspond with the United Society of Christian Endeavor and obtain their consent to use the same.

W. H. McMillan, D.D., was nominated as Trustee of the United Society of Christian Endeavor for a term of three years.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Membership Covenant was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MEMBERSHIP COVENANT.

In addition to that part of the report of the Committee on Article XV. of the Testimony concerning the "formula" of questions for the admission of members, which was referred to your committee, there were also put into our hands memorials from the Presbyteries of Lake, Spokane and Puget Sound on the some subject. It is evident from the various representations that there is a demand for some change in the formula of questions to be administered in receiving members into Church fellowship. After a careful examination of the various papers before us, however, we are of the opinion that none of them covers the entire ground which is desirable to embrace in such a covenant. There are matters of supreme importance, as the doctrine of the trinity, the divinity and atoning work of Christ, the Holy Spirit and his work, not mentioned in any of these formulas, but which should have specific assent on the part of all who are received into the membership of the Church. We therefore recommend the following for adoption:

1. There is a demand for an amended and revised formula for the reception of members into the Church.
2. That a committee of five be appointed to prepare such a membership covenant and submit it to the next General Assembly for its consideration, and for overture to the presbyteries if it shall prove satisfactory.
3. That this committee be instructed to publish their report in the Church papers not later than January 1, 1902.

The nomination of the Committee provided for in the second resolution of the above report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The report of the Committee on Correspondence was read and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON CORRESPONDENCE.

1. Your Committee on Correspondence would respectfully report that two memorials have been put into our hands; one from College Springs Presbytery, asking the Assembly to take some formal action with reference to the international conference of Psalm-singing churches, known as the "Twentieth Century Psalmody Convention," to be held in Belfast, Ireland, during the summer of 1902; and one from Allegheny Presbytery on the same subject, recommending a delegation of ten ministers and ten elders and laymen. We recommend that, as a denomination specially interested in maintaining a Scripture psalmody, the Assembly designate such number, as may be deemed wise, to represent the Church and who can go without expense to the Church.

2. We recommend that the report of Rev. James A. Reed, delegate to the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church in America, announcing his cordial reception and their appointment of two delegates to this Assembly, expressive of their kindly feeling and interest in our United Presbyterian Church, be received.

3. We recommend that the letter of Rev. D. G. Phillips, of Bradley S. C., the delegate appointed by the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, expressing regret at his inability to be present at this meeting of our Assembly, and assuring us of their "warm Christian sympathy and interest in all the doings and prosperity of our United Presbyterian Church" be received and duly acknowledged and reciprocated.

It gives us pleasure to state that from the reports received there is evidence of very cordial relations continued and progress made toward a closer union of effort in the great work of evangelizing the world, and we recommend that the Assembly continue the interchange of fraternal relations with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South and with the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church in America.

4. The report of the Committee on Union with the Associate Reformed Synod, announces no correspondence during the year on the subject of union, that hearty co-operation both in mission and young people's work has been continued and that there is evidence of a growing sentiment in favor of union, but for the present it is judged wise to take no direct steps toward its consummation. We recommend the report be received, and that the committee be continued for the coming year.

5. We would acknowledge the receipt of the certificate of the Executive Commission of the American Section of Reformed Churches, appointing A. G. Wallace, D.D., to present fraternal greetings to the General Assembly of 1901, and recommend that Dr. Wallace be heard immediately after the reading of this report, and that we express our hope and prayer that their effort in the good work be blest.

6. On a letter from the Reformed Church of Porsony, Hungary, narrating their efforts, trials and needs in maintaining and advancing the Lord's cause in that benighted land, your Committee, for want of information, can do no more than recommend them to the kind consideration of our people and friends of the truth everywhere.

7. Your Committee addressed a letter of invitation to Hon. E. H. Conger, U. S. minister to China, to address the General Assembly during the consideration of the report of the Board of Foreign Missions which he has acknowledged, expressing regret that prior engagements rendered it impossible for him to be present, assuring us, however, of his "lively sympathy with the missionaries and of their potent influence in civilizing the Chinese, and the very great need of them and their work in the advancing trade and commercial development of that country."

8. In reply to the fraternal greetings of the Presbyterian General Assembly, the following telegram was sent: "Greeting. Let brotherly love continue."

9. The American Bible Society, through its field secretary, presents its claims and some very interesting history of its workings and what it is accomplishing. We recommend the endorsement of its work and commend it to all our churches and people as worthy of their prayerful consideration and help.

10. Having heard from the field secretary of the American Tract Society for the Northwest of the missionary work accomplished and in progress, of the pressing need of literature, especially among the people of our new possessions and the thousands of immigrants in our great cities. Resolved, That we commend the work of this Society to the consideration and liberality of all our people in their offerings.

In accordance with resolution 5 of the above report, A. G. Wallace, D.D., delegate from the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the world holding to the Presbyterian System, Western Section, addressed the Assembly.

The following report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the preparation of a list of forbidden marriages was read and adopted:

REPORT ON FORBIDDEN MARRIAGES.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures on that portion of the dissent of Revs. Samuel Collins, D.D., and J. A. Bailey to the action of the Assembly on the overture on marriage with a deceased wife's sister, asking for a committee to be appointed "to report to the next Assembly a list of the degrees of consanguinity and affinity within which marriage should not be contracted or permitted," would report:

Inasmuch as the doctrine of the Confession, that "marriage ought not to be within the degrees of consanguinity and affinity forbidden in the Word; nor can such incestuous marriages ever be made lawful by any law of man, or consent of parties, so as those persons may live together as man and wife," was not touched by the overture, and stands unimpaired as the general law of the Church, and by which the courts of the Church are to be guided in determining particular cases as they may arise, it is the judgment of this General Assembly that such action as is contemplated in this request is not required. Therefore,

Resolved, That the request be not granted.

The report of the Committee on the Board of Education was read and adopted, the first resolution by a rising vote. It is as follows:

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The work of this Board, as appears in its published report, and referred to your Committee, is divided into two departments; one for aiding worthy students to get an education, the other, to aid colleges and seminaries. Your committee recommends the following action:

1. That thanks be given to almighty God for increasing interest in, and gifts to, the work of this Board.
2. As the amounts still fall far short of the appropriation, and as this is the most fundamental part of the Church's work, that pastors and sessions be directed to place the claims of this Board before their congregations for a more liberal financial support, especially the part of this fund for colleges and seminaries.
3. That the Young People's Christian Union be asked to consider this Board as an object of special financial support, inasmuch as education is especially for the youth.
4. That the academies of Pawnee City, Nebraska, and Waitsburg, Washington, be recommended for an appropriation of $500 each, from the College and Seminary fund for the ensuing year.
5. That the request of Southern Illinois Presbytery for $300 for Stutgart College be granted for the ensuing year.
6. That the work of the Board during the past year be heartily commended.

The report from the Committee on Theological Seminaries was read, amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

Through the General Assembly came into our hands reports from the Seminaries of Xenia and Allegheny, and a resolution offered by Rev. W. S. McClure, instructing the faculties of these seminaries at the close of each term to report the excused and unexcused absences from recitations of each student to the presbytery to which he belongs.

It appears that the work of both faculty and students has been thoroughly done; that thirty young men have been sent out recently well prepared to preach the everlasting gospel; that the installation of Prof. Joseph Kyle, D.D., in the Chair of Systematic Theology, during the session just closed in Xenia Seminary has given great pleasure to her Board of Managers and to all her students; that the lives and health of both professors and students have been precious in God's sight, the invasion of scarlet fever in Allegheny having resulted in only two cases, and these in the mildest form; that during the past year $20,000 have been added to Xenia's general endowment fund, and that, in addition to the regular instruction of the professors, helpful lectures have been delivered by invited brethren upon missions and the Sabbath school work. Under these conditions we may well praise the God of providence and grace for the good and great work which is being accomplished by these schools of the prophets. In view of the intellectual and spiritual equipment which may be obtained in these schools for the work of the gospel ministry, we offer for adoption the following:

1. That the pastors and presbyteries be urged to insist earnestly upon theological students to secure their education in our own seminaries.
2. That the propriety of largely increasing the endowment funds of these seminaries be commended to the favorable consideration of the well-to-do people in our communion.
3. That it shall be the duty of the faculties of our Theological Seminaries to keep a faithful record of the attendance of students upon recitations, and at the close of each term, report the excused and unexcused absences from recitations of each student, to the presbytery to which he belongs.

The following resolutions of thanks were offered and adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

1. That we offer our thanks to God for his manifest goodness to us during the meeting of the Assembly.
2. That we hereby express our appreciation of the manly, courteous and judicious manner in which our efficient Moderator has conducted the business of the Assembly.
3. That we thank the pastor of the Church in which we have held our meeting, and the other pastors of the city, for their wise provision to meet our needs and in every way minister to our comfort.
4. That we extend our thanks to the young ladies who have presided over the post office and operated the type-writers, provided for the use of the members of the Assembly, for their efficient and painstaking service.
5. That we extend our thanks to the railroads and street cars for the courtesies shown those in attendance upon the Assembly. .
6. That we express our appreciation of the work of our special committees and clerks for the conscientious discharge of the duties assigned to them during the past year.
7. We appreciate the notice by the daily papers of the proceedings of the General Assembly and the accuracy of the reports made by the reporters of the business and discussions.

The Assembly was dissolved, when the Moderator said, "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Eighth Church, Allegheny, Pa., on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1902, at 7:45 o'clock P. M."

The Assembly was led in prayer by A. G. Wallace, D.D. Psalm 133: 1-3 C. M. was sung and the Moderator pronounced the benediction.

J. A. THOMPSON,
Moderator.

WILLIAM J. REID,
Principal Clerk.

A. G. WALLACE,
Second Clerk.

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Trustees of the General Assembly would respectfully report:

1. The merciful preservation of our lives and our general health during the year.

2. The diligent attendance of most of our number at our meetings, and their interest in the business entrusted to our care.

3. The receipt in full of balance due on the Walker land in Kansas, and the distribution of this and other funds, pro rata, to the different boards.

4. That our appeal in the Mrs. Bell will case, Wis., has been decided in our favor. Whether the contestors will take an appeal, is not yet known. The property in the case will probably amount to $10,000, or $12.000.

5. In the appeal by Rev. J. R. Wallace from the decree of the county court dismissing his suit against the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania reversed the decree, and held that the lower court should take cognizance of the case, and inquire into the regularity of the action of the General Assembly, complained of by Mr. Wallace. The case was heard again, and the trial judge's finding (a copy of which is herewith presented) has been filed, holding that the General Assembly had failed to follow its own rules, and that its action in 1893, sustaining the appeal of Lake Presbytery, was irregular and void. Exceptions to the court's rulings, and findings of fact and law, have been filed by our counsel. These have not yet been argued, and no decision will be made until a hearing shall be had thereon.

6. The executors of the will of Mrs. Mary Stewart, late of Peoria Co., Ill., are now ready to pay over her bequest of $3,000, and they desire the Assembly to designate its agent to receive and receipt for said legacy.

7. The report of the Treasurer, J. D. Fraser, Esq., will be laid before you duly audited.

8. The terms of office of J. D. Fraser, S. L. McHenry and H. W. McKee, Esqs., expire with this meeting of Assembly.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Trustees,

S. Collins, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

I. Introductory.

Since the last annual report was made to the General Assembly we have glided out of the old century into the new. The nineteenth century, with its marvelous progress in civilization, the arts and sciences, and especially in publishing the gospel among the nations, has gone its way and is numbered with the ages that have preceded it. Its record, on the whole, bids us thank God and take courage. The twentieth century has dawned hopefully for the world and specially for the cause of foreign missions. The world is opening up more and more for the gospel, and the call of the nations to the Church to come over and help is heard more and more distinctly. The check given to the work by the terrible scenes of the past year in China, it is believed, is only temporary. The missionaries that have survived are returning to their fields and work. The Church at home is more than ever resolved to give the gospel to that land. The soil that has drunk in the precious blood of missionaries and of native Christians, who gave up their lives rather than deny their Lord, will yield more abundant fruit, and China will be blessed as she could not have been save as the result of the rage of many of her misguided people. Like results will no doubt follow the lamentable war that draws to its close in South Africa, and our own war with the Philippinos. The outlook over the world is hopeful.

As we enter the new century the condition of our own foreign mission work bids us to be of good cheer. It is not yet half a century since we entered our present foreign mission fields. The work has made steady and almost uninterrupted progress. It has now advanced to a condition of success that draws the attention and elicits the admiration of the missionary world. Thanks be unto God for his gracious favor to our missionaries and their work, and for his cheering voice calling us to go forward into the century which has opened.

II. The Year.

Life has been continued to the officers and other members of the Board, but the messenger of death has, we grieve to say, visited our foreign fields. While the last Assembly was yet in session, word came from India that Rev. Robert Reed McClure was seriously ill. Earnest prayer was offered by the whole Assembly for him if he yet survived. The day following the Assembly's adjournment the sad news came that Mr. McClure had died at Zafarwal on April 27, of typhoid fever. The stroke was a terrible one, not only to his beloved companion, but also to the whole mission. Mr. McClure had been but a little over two years in the field, and but a short time in the station to which he had been assigned. He was acquiring a good working knowledge of the language. Being an adept in music, his service in that greatly needed line was highly prized. He was a brother beloved by all the mission, and by the native Christians and people. Just when he was entering actively upon his great work in India, and when he was giving promise of being one of the most useful and successful of missionaries, his life came to an end, his work in India was done and his Lord called him to his reward in a higher sphere. The mystery of his being taken so early, and from a sphere in which he was so much needed, and from effective labor for which he was so well qualified by nature, by acquisition and by grace, is beyond our ken. We can only say, "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight."

Near the close of September the sorrowful word came from Alexandria, Egypt, that Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sowash had died in the hospital at that place on the 4th of that month. She was ill of typhoid fever only a week. Her unexpected death was a crushing blow not only to her husband, but to the whole mission. By her amiable life she had endeared herself to all. Her husband, left with three motherless children, the oldest being less than four years of age, had the tender sympathy of all the missionaries, and of the Board and the whole Church at home.

We record also in this connection the death of Mary Cummings, little daughter of Rev. T. F. and Mrs. Anna A. Cummings, at Pasrur, India, on May 1, 1900, and that of little Agnes Reed, daughter of Rev. W. H. and Mrs. B. E. Reed, in the hospital at Alexandria, Egypt, on May 15. The bodies of these little ones were laid to rest in mission cemeteries, with faith in him who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me."

The Work in both mission fields has continued during the year along the usual and well-established lines. The annual report, prepared with much care by the missionaries, will be published soon after the adjournment of the Assembly, and will show a good measure of success in the various departments of missionary effort.

The Educational Work has received a special stimulus. The mission in Egypt requested the Board to authorize J. R. Alexander, D.D., while on his furlough in this country, to solicit funds for the better equipment of Asyut Training College, of which he is President. The Board granted Dr. Alexander leave to solicit aid for this object, especially from individuals having means. A number of brethren in Pittsburgh and vicinity took hold of the matter with great earnestness, resolving to raise $100,000 for necessary buildings and the equipment of the institution. It is confidently expected that the entire amount will be subscribed and paid within three years. This is noble, and will be a blessing to Asyut College and to Egypt for all time to come.

The Mission in India, at the annual meeting in October last, resolved to ask the Board to add $12,000 to the estimates for the current year for the purpose of erecting and equipping a suitable building for Gordon Mission College, at Rawal Pindi. This was only beginning to be known in this country, when Miss Eleanor C. Law and Miss Ina Law Robertson, of Chicago, gladdened the hearts of the members of the Board by the information that they had decided to contribute the entire amount of $12,000 for the object specified. For this munificent gift they received the most hearty thanks of the Board, and the whole mission in India has been made to rejoice. The Board has directed the mission to proceed with the building for the college, and as speedily as possible it will be pushed to completion. The new building was absolutely essential to the success of the institution. When it shall be completed it is confidently anticipated that the college will take a fresh start forward, and that it will in time become a blessing to the mission in India, like the blessing that Asyut Training College has become to the mission in Egypt.

The Famine in India, while not affecting our mission field directly, except in the increase of the price of the necessaries of life, yet elicited the sympathy of our whole Church in this country. Contributions for the relief of the sufferers were freely made, and more than $30,000 passed through the hands of our Treasurer. A considerable part of the money was sent by our missionaries to fellow-missionaries in the famine-smitten districts, and was by them distributed. Some of our missionaries, accompanied by native workers, personally visited famine districts and brought back with them a large number of orphan children. Many of these, weakened by starvation, died by the way or after reaching our field. Those that have survived have been provided for in industrial schools established for the purpose. In these they are being instructed religiously, and will be taught at the same time some handicraft by which, when grown, they will be able to support themselves. A number of them have already accepted and confessed Christ as their Saviour. Those that give evidence of ability will be further taught in the mission schools, and it is hoped that not a few of them will, in time, become effective laborers in the mission, some of them ministers of the gospel. The mission has made arrangements for expending the balance of the fund in educating and training these orphans.

III. The Finances.

The Assembly last year, including an excess of expenditure by the mission in Egypt for the year 1898, appropriated for the entire work for the year $132,836.48. This amount did not include $24,000 pledged by the Women's Board, Presbyterial Societies, etc., and did include $12,262 indebtedness from the year preceding. The whole amount to meet all the demands for the year was $156,836.48. From all sources our Treasurer has received for the regular work for the current year $162,727.92. Were it not for indebtedness not included in the appropriations of last year and for expenditures then underestimated, the Board would have closed the year without debt.

It should be stated in this connection that, of the whole amount received by our Treasurer, $54,419.04 was from legacies, or gifts which were substantially legacies. The average amount from legacies which came into the treasury annually for the six preceding years was $14,600. Had the Board received only this average amount from legacies for the past year, the sum of the receipts would have been nearly $40,000 less than they were, and the debt of the Board at the end of the year would have been more than $42,000, instead of $8,949.07, as it is. It is believed that the receipts by the Treasurer were lessened considerably by the knowledge of the fact that the Board had received such large amounts in legacies, by contributions to the India Famine Fund and other special objects. Be this as it may, it must be plain to every thoughtful mind that the Church should not rely upon legacies to meet, to any large extent, the appropriations for the work made by the Assembly. There is nothing certain about legacies from year to year but their uncertainty. They are received with gratitude when they come, and great good is done by money given in this way, but the Church must not rely upon a source of income that is so uncertain in its amounts from year to year. The aim should be to meet the entire appropriation made by the Assembly by direct contributions.

The Board would add in this connection that the mission in Egypt has again in its expenditures exceeded the appropriation made by the Assembly. At the time of the previous overexpenditure, the Board represented most strongly to the mission the imperative necessity of keeping the expenditures within the appropriations, and the serious consequences which must follow any other practice, and later also the President of the Board personally presented the same subject to the missionaries in the field. Notwithstanding this the Treasurer of the mission reports an expenditure of $4,988.36 above the amount authorized by the Assembly for the year 1900. The expenditure was more than the mission's own estimate for the work. As soon as this fact was learned, the Board gave the mission word that it could not recognize this extra expenditure, and recommended that the excess, as far as practicable, be charged to the account of the stations that had overdrawn the amounts to which they were legitimately entitled according to the appropriation made. The matter as thus stated is referred to the Assembly for such direction as it may deem best to give.

In order to prevent the recurrence of overexpenditure it should be stated that in the month of December last a series of new rules, relating to financial matters in our missions, was adopted and sent to the missions. These rules are now being acted upon in the missions, and it is believed that they will effectually prevent any expenditure in excess of the appropriations as made by the General Assembly from year to year.

V. Estimates for the Year.

The estimates, as received from the mission in Egypt for the current year, amount to $77,792. Those from India sum up $78,417. The Board cannot recommend the Assembly to appropriate these amounts with any reasonable hope that they, together with the amount required for all other absolutely necessary expenses, will be put into the treasury by the Church. After the most careful consideration the Assembly is asked to make the following appropriations:

To India	$ 65,000 00
" Egypt	70,000 00
For Salaries of Missionaries at Home	3,700 00
" Children of Missionaries in America	1,200 00
" Traveling Expenses of Missionaries	6,000 00
" Outfit for New Missionaries	1,200 00
" Salary of Cor. Sec. ($1,000), of Treas. ($500)	1,500 00
" Clerical Assistance for Treasurer	800 00
" Printing, Postage, and Incidentals	2,000 00
" Emergencies	3,000 00
" Interest on borrowed money	1,200 00
" Debt of past year	8,949 07
" Soudan Mission	5,075 00
	$169,624 07

These estimates include $24,000 pledged by the Women's Board, Presbyterial Societies, Sabbath schools, congregations, individuals, and $5,075.00 for the Soudan Missions, which amounts are to be deducted from the above total. The whole amount, which the Assembly is asked to appropriate for the year for the entire work of the Board, is thus $140,549.

VI. Missionaries.

(1) Home on Furlough.

It was reported to the last Assembly that Miss Elizabeth G. Gordon, Mrs. Belle G. Lytle and Miss Rosa A. McCullough were on the way to this country from India. They arrived safely on May 12, 1900. Miss Gordon and Mrs. Lytle have retired from the mission work. Miss McCullough hopes to return to her field in the ensuing autumn.

J. R. Alexander, D.D. and family, and Miss Leonora J. McDowell arrived in this country on furlough from Egypt on July 23, 1900. They expect to return in the fall of this year.

Miss Mary A. Lawrence and Miss Ella M. Gordon, having fulfilled their first term or service, were granted leave to come home from India on furlough. They came by the eastern route and arrived on the Pacific coast on April 24.

Mrs. A. B. Caldwell and two of her children accompanied them. It was necessary for her to come home in advance of her furlough in order to care for her other children, who had been left in this country. Her husband, Rev. A. B. Caldwell, will remain in the field until the regular time for his furlough. It having been found necessary for Mrs. T. L. Scott to come to this country from India on account of her children, she was granted leave to come home. She is expected here at an early day. The husband and father will remain in his place in the mission until his time for furlough shall expire. Miss Mary A. Platter, M.D., has also been granted leave to come from India on furlough. She will not leave her field until late in this year or early in 1902. William Harvey, D.D., Mrs. Harvey and Miss Anna Y. Thompson were given leave to come home on furlough from Egypt. Miss Thompson arrived on May 6. Dr. and Mrs. Harvey will come about midsummer.

Miss Jessie J. Hogg, by a special arrangement, was allowed to spend five months of this summer on furlough from her work in Egypt in Scotland, the residence of her mother. On account of the illness of her brother in Egypt, she may not be able to avail herself of this period of change and rest.

(a) To India.

Mrs. S. E. Johnson, M.D., sailed on August 11, and arrived in the mission on October 18. Rev. E. L. Porter and wife sailed on August 18, and, after spending some time with Mrs. Porter's relatives in England, arrived on November 23.

Robert Stewart, D.D., and Mrs. Stewart sailed from San Francisco on September 15, and arrived on November 10.

Rev. W. T. Anderson and family and Miss Marion M. Embleton sailed on September 2, and, after having spent a short time seeing the missionaries and work in Egypt, arrived on October 23.

(b) To Egypt.

John Giffen, D.D., leaving his family in this country, sailed on July 21, in order to act as President pro tem. of Asyut Training College during Dr. Alexander's absence. He arrived on August 19, and at once entered upon his special work in the college.

Rev. Samuel G. Hart and family, V. M. Henry, M.D., and family, and Miss Helen J. Ferrier sailed on October 6 and arrived October 28.

Miss Carrie M. Buchanan and Mrs. Amanda R. Morrow sailed on January 22, 1901, and arrived on February 7. By a private arrangement Mrs. Morrow has gone to have charge of the children and home of Rev. George A. Sowash.

(3) Resignations.

Rev. Ralph E. Carson, who has been at home from Egypt for several years on account of his health, sent his resignation as a missionary to the Board in the month of April. As he has not yet fully tested the matter of health, and as his heart is still in the work in Egypt, to which he hopes at some time to return, the Board for the present declined to accept the resignation.

Rev. K. W. McFarland, who last year returned on his first furlough from Egypt, deemed it best, because of the condition of his health and for other reasons satisfactory to himself, to offer his resignation as a missionary. The Board deeply sympathized with Mr. McFarland and regretfully accepted his resignation at their meeting on April 8. The relations of Mr. McFarland with the mission and the Board have been through all the years of his service of the most pleasant character. His experience in the mission field will no doubt be of great advantage to him in taking up work in this country.

(4) New Missionaries.

It was with regret that the Board learned that Rev. Orin A. Keach and Miss Charlotte McArthur, M.D., because of insuperable difficulties, could not go to the fields to which they were appointed by the last General Assembly. Rev. W. J. Brandon accepted his appointment to India. He and Mrs. Brandon set out for their field on September 15, and arrived safely in the mission on October 22.

Miss Helen J. Ferrier accepted her appointment to Egypt. She left this country on October 6 and reached her destination on October 28.

Dr. Robert Stewart accepted the position to which he had been chosen as theological professor by the Synod of the Punjab, and, after an absence of a number of years in this country, again resumed his work in the India mission.

As Rev. Orin A. Keach could not go to the mission in Egypt, the Board at their meeting on September 10 appointed Rev. W. R. Coventry to supply the vacancy. He accepted the appointment, and he and Mrs. Coventry sailed for their field on November 10. They arrived safely on December 5.

The death of Rev. Robert Reed McClure left a vacancy in the India mission. As the need was great the Board assumed the responsibility of appointing Rev. Robert Maxwell to fill the vacant place. The appointment was made on August 6, and on September 15 Mr. Maxwell and wife set out for their field. They reached the mission in the Punjab on October 22.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Alice McClure expressed her desire to remain in India and be employed in the capacity of a single woman missionary. As she had acquired a good working use of the language and had other excellent qualifications for effective work, and being also recommended by the Women's Board, she was, on November 12, appointed a missionary. Her support, as is that of all the single women missionaries, is provided by the Women's Board.

As Rev. J. Kelly Giffen was chosen by the Missionary Association in Egypt the first American missionary to the Soudan, and as it was not deemed wise or safe for him to be in that region beyond the reach of a physician, and as H. T. McLaughlin, M.D., had been two years in Egypt, the Board, by request of the mission, appointed Dr. McLaughlin as the first medical missionary to the Soudan.

The Assembly is asked to ratify all of these appointments which have been made in the interim of its meetings.

The mission in India requested that at least two ordained missionaries, four single women and two laymen to be employed as professors in Gordon Mission College, be sent out this year. The Board, to meet the request as far as possible, at their meeting on March 11, appointed Mr. J. H. Morton, who was completing his course of study in the Allegheny Seminary, and, on April 8, Professor W. E. Nichol, of Tarkio College, to that mission.

On the recommendation of the Women's Board, Miss Margaret A. Bell was appointed to the mission in Egypt at the meeting of the Board on May 6. The Assembly is asked to ratify the appointment of these new missionaries. As four single women missionaries are asked for by the mission in India, and as the Women's Board is not at this date prepared to make any nominations of suitable persons, the Assembly is asked to give authority to appoint and send out one or more young women to India, if the properly qualified ones can be found.

VII. The Missions.

(1) India.

The missionaries in India were cheered during the year by the return of those who had been on furlough in this country, and by the arrival of the new missionaries sent out. The munificent gift of $12,000 made by the Misses Law and Robertson for the erection and equipment of a suitable building for Gordon Mission College caused every heart to rejoice. A building for the Theological Seminary is greatly needed. That institution has been without a local habitation for twenty-three years. It is hoped that some generous friend, or friends, will in the near future supply the means to meet this pressing need. With a well-equipped college and theological seminary, the mission would go forward with new energy and greatly increased success.

While the famine did not directly affect any of our mission districts, yet the increase in cost because of it of the necessaries of life caused many removals of our native Christians and others to the new districts lately provided with irrigation by the government. This has rendered a change in some of the mission districts necessary, and the new district of Khangra Dogran has been established. It is believed that not a few of our members who have removed from other districts will thus be recovered and that this well-watered and prosperous region will show specially good results in the line of missionary effort.

The work has gone on during the year in the usual lines and with an encouraging measure of success.

Summarized Statistics.

Ordained ministers 18, wives of missionaries 17, unmarried women 23, medical missionaries 2. Total 59. Ordained native ministers 12, one ordained during the year, licentiates 9, theologues 9, teachers 91, other mission employees 139. Total native workers 260.

Synod 1, presbyteries 3, principal stations 9, out stations 218, work in villages 468, organized congregations 20, seven of which have pastors and one of which is self-supporting. Books—Bibles and portions sold (partial report) 977, other books 1,694. Receipts $266.

The total amount contributed by natives for all purposes was $9,820, a gain of $894 over the preceding year.

(2) Egypt.

The work in this mission has gone forward as usual during the year, and has been prospered in every department. The net gain in membership has not been as large as in some preceding years, but it shows that there is a steady and wholesome growth. Each year the mission expands, and new towns, villages and stations are occupied. The mission has been greatly cheered by the news of the movement here at home to secure buildings and equipment for Asyut Training College.

The following summary of statistics will be studied with interest:

Statistics.

Ordained ministers 18, wives of missionaries 17, unmarried women 11, medical missionaries 4, professors in college 1. Total 51. Native ordained ministers and pastors 33, licentiates 21, theological students 10, native workers 50, shopmen and colporteurs 36. These go into almost every part of the land. Synod 1, presbyteries 4, students licensed in February, 1901, 5; organized congregations 50, five of which are self-supporting. Other stations 213. Membership 6,526, a net gain of 147. Increase by profession 453. Attendance on Sabbath morning service 13,029. Contributions by natives for definitely religious purposes $24,258. The evangelical community numbers about 25,000.

Sabbath schools 147, teachers 375, scholars 9,697, contributions $790. Day schools 186, teachers 358, pupils 14,181. Tuition by natives $34,783. Asyut Training College enrolled during the year 604.

Books—Bibles sold 17,030. receipts $3,366: religious books 10,906, receipts $1,768; educational books 46,654, receipts $7,442; receipts for stationery $2,006; total volumes 74,590. Total receipts $13,582.

Medical missionaries 4, assistant 1, nurse 1, patients treated 24,954. Receipts not given.

The total receipts from the natives for all purposes, not including medical fees, were for the year $72,623, or considerably more than the entire sum appropriated by the General Assembly for the whole work for the year.

Surely these statistics of our missions should cause the whole Church to rejoice and to go forward in the work with increased energy.

VIII. The Soudan Mission.

The last General Assembly authorized the Board to begin work in the region of Khartum as soon as in its judgment might be practicable. The Board at their meeting in June directed the mission in Egypt to send one of their number, as soon as the way seemed open, to inaugurate the work. There was considerable delay in getting the consent of the government. When it was obtained, it was upon the condition that work be confined to the Protestants in the region of Khartum and the non-Moslem population of the White Nile.

The mission, as directed by the Board, after the most careful and prayerful consideration, selected Rev. J. Kelly Giffen as the first missionary to the Soudan. He left Egypt for Khartum on November 30, and arrived at Umderman on December 10. He was preceded by a native evangelist sent as the representative of the Synod of the Nile, and by a colporteur supported by the British and Foreign Bible Society. Dr. H. T. McLaughlin followed Mr. Giffen on December 19. Their path was opened up in a way that indicated the leading of the divine hand. The Governor General (Sirdar) showed them special kindness, and they were well received by all classes of the people. After remaining for a time at Khartum and beginning some work there, they went on a tour of exploration up the White Nile as far as Tewfikiah and also for some distance on the River Tobat. After the most careful consideration of the whole field, they report to the Mission Association in Egypt and to the Board in favor of opening mission work at a station which they designate Dolaib Hill, about ten miles above the mouth of the Sohab River and the same distance from Tewfikiah. As there is freedom to work among the non-Moslem tribes in this region, and as work in it will be in exact accordance with the conditions of the fund given to the Board by the Freedmen's Missions Aid Society of London, it is recommended that the mission work in the Soudan be begun at this station. The estimated cost of this mission for the year is $5,075. As the fund furnished by the London Society will more than meet the expenditure already made and the estimate for this year, it is recommended that the above sum be appropriated from the Soudan fund. It is further recommended that this shall be a distinct mission, to be known as the Soudan Mission. As the fund in hand for the support of this mission will be only about $3,600 after the end of the current year, it is earnestly hoped that those throughout the Church who have specially urged the advance by our Church on the Nile will make special and liberal contributions for the support of this mission to tribes that have never heard that there is a Saviour for lost and perishing sinners.

The report of the missionaries who have explored the field to the Association in Egypt and to the Board is herewith laid before the Assembly, that it may with the fullest intelligence possible consider and act upon this forward movement in our missionary operations. It should be added that the work that has been initiated in Khartum is to be continued and provided for by the native church in Egypt—or the Synod of the Nile.

IX. Miscellaneous.

1. The Board, being more and more convinced from year to year that only those missionaries should remain in the fields who have in the first term of their service acquired a fair working use of the language and otherwise shown that they have qualifications for effective work, at their meeting in December, 1900, adopted the following: "That the Board direct the Missionary Association in India and Egypt, in acting upon the application for a first furlough, to vote upon the application in this form: (1) Shall the application for a furlough be approved? (2) Shall the Board be requested to return the missionary to the field after furlough? (3) The vote in each case may be by ballot."

2. At the same meeting the following action relating to estimates was taken: "That the missions be absolutely required in the beginning of each year not to exceed the appropriations of the preceding year, until they shall be officially notified of the appropriations made for the new year by the General Assembly; and it is further directed that the appropriations for each year shall begin with July and end with June 30 of the next year."

3. The Missionary Association in Egypt at their last annual meeting adopted the following: "That we recommend that the Association ask the Board to take steps to secure a charter for Asyut Training College, with authority to confer academic degrees." The Board asks the Assembly to give effect to this action of the Association.

4. The Board hereby requests the Assembly so far to modify its action relating to annuities as to grant leave to pay interest on the same at a rate not exceeding five per cent. in any case.

X. Special Obligations.

The Board desires to express its special obligations to individuals, etc., for favors during the year as follows:

1. To Miss Eleanor C. Law and Miss Ina Law Robertson, for their munificent gift of $12,000 for the erection of a suitable building for Gordon Mission College, India.

2. To the heirs of the late Mr. John Christie, of East Greenwich, N. Y.; George Christie, Eliza Christie, Jane Christie, William D. Christie, Alexander McGeoch, William John McGeoch, Agnes McGeoch and Mrs. Jane Maxwell, for making good to the full amount the sum of $20,000 which their brother and uncle had verbally requested should go to the Board after his decease.

3. To Mr. Charles J. Deacon, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for managing in the Board's interest the donation of $22,200.13 by the late Mr. James Leghorn and settling up without remuneration after Mr. Leghorn's death the whole donation, according to the agreeement made some years previously between the said Mr. Leghorn and the Board.

4. To Lord Cromer, his Majesty's representative in Egypt, to Sir Wingate Pasha, Sirdar of the Soudan, for their very kind and generous treatment of our pioneer missionaries to Khartum and that region.

5. To the Women's Board for their continued support of the single women missionaries in our fields, the medical work by women, the Girls' Boarding School at Sialkot, India, and for generous contributions for other parts of the work.

6. To the American Bible Society, the British and Foreign Bible Society, the Turkish Mission's Aid Society, the Messrs. Muller in Egypt, and other friends in the mission fields who have generously aided our work.

7. To Mr. J. J. Porter, Dr. J. K. McClurkin, Dr. R. M. Russell, John D. Fraser and others in Pittsburgh and vicinity, who have devised and are working out so nobly the project for the equipment of Asyut Training College, in Egypt.

8. To Mrs. Eliza J. Blackwood, Erie, Pa.; Miss Elvina Mackenison, Monmouth, Ill.; Mrs. Sarah A. Wallace, East Palestine, Ohio; Mr. J. B. Clayworth, Oskaloosa, Iowa; Mrs. R. C. Montieth, Montieth, Mich.; Mr. Matthew Nickle, Hookstown, Pa.; Rev. J. Howard Tate, New York; John P. Duncan, Esq., New York; Mrs. D. C. Rockwell, Garrattsville, New York; E. Z. Paul, Monmouth, Ill.; Mr. D. T. Reed, Pittsburgh; Mr. James R. Connell; three members of South Henderson, Ill.; "X. Y. B." and many others, who would only be known as "Friend," "Contributor," "Friend of Missions," etc., etc., for liberal contributions to its funds.

9. To the several papers of the Church and the Women's Missionary Magazine for space freely given during the year for the "Monthly Statement," letters from missionaries and other communications relating to the great cause of missions.

10. The Assembly is asked to express its thanks to all of these special helpers, and, above all, to God for his favors to our Board, missions and work throughout another year.

By order of the Board,

M. G. Kyle, President.
W. W. Barr, Cor. Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board of Home Missions submits to the General Assembly its regular annual report, and in connection therewith begs leave to say that it has given diligent and prayerful attention to the work committed to its care during the year. The regular monthly meetings have been held and effort has been made to ascertain the needs of the home mission field and, as far as possible, provide for them.

Thankful acknowledgment is made of God's blessing upon the work. The Board also records its appreciation of the faithful labors of the missionaries, and the support which these workers and the congregations in their charge have received from the Church.

I. CONDITION AND PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

Payments to Presbyteries	71,051	72,532	79,659
Entire expenditures, year ending March 31	83,172	87,642	82,585

The foregoing figures show a net increase of 1,394 in membership, and a gain of 121 teachers and 2,017 scholars in the Sabbath schools. The stations raised $8,030 more for the salaries of their ministers, $449 less for the general work of the Church; the total for these two purposes being larger by $7,531. The amount paid to stations was $7,127 more than for last year, the total payments being the largest ever made. Twelve stations pass from the list of dependent congregations.

During the past two years quite a number of new missions have been started, and in the newer stations generally the work is in a more vigorous and prosperous condition than in the majority of those in the older class. The only limit to extending the work still farther into new fields is that fixed by the contributions of the Church for this work. The advance has already been pushed beyond what the Church has provided the means to sustain, and still there are scores of needy and promising fields that have not been entered by our Church. The Board respectfully and earnestly asks the General Assembly to take note of these conditions. It would also ask that this fundamental and all-important work be given a larger place, financially, in the consideration of the Church.

II. Grants by the Board. Acting upon the recommendation of the General Committee, the last General Assembly referred to the Board the applications for aid presented by several stations and, in order to meet their needs if grants should be made to them, the sum of $4,425 was placed at the disposal of the Board. In like manner, the sum of $5,000 was set apart to meet emergencies that might arise during the year.

The Board has appropriated for cases thus referred to it, as follows: A. R. Synod of the South, Charlotte, Second, N. C., $200; Corsicana, Texas, $450; Louisville, Ky., $175; Los Angeles, Los Angeles Second, $800, none of which has been called for, Wildomar, $500; New York, Bronx, $1,000; Omaha, Alliance, $600; San Francisco, Morgan Hill, $600. Total, $4,325.

To meet emergencies the following appropriations have been made, viz.: Chicago, Cuyler, $300, for three months, not called for; Cleveland, Barberton, $600; Kansas City, Lawrence, $200, settlement; Keokuk, Harrison, $200 additional on condition build parsonage before May 15, 1901; Lake, Erie, Brown Avenue, $700, settlement; Mansfield, Fredericksburg, $200, settlement; Monongahela, McDonald, French mission, $600; Thirteenth, Pittsburg, $200, settlement; Omaha, Dunbar, $100 additional; Pittsburg, Springfield, $25 additional; Puget Sound, Everett, Ebenezer, $300; Westmoreland, East McKeesport, $200, settlement; Wisconsin, exploring Minneapolis and St. Paul, $42; Xenia, Columbus, First, $105 additional, settlement. Total, $3,772. In some of these cases the grants do not apply from the first of the year and, therefore, the full amount will not be paid.

III. Special Missions. Thirty-two stations have been in the care of the Board as special missions during the past year. With few exceptions these missions have had the regular services of pastors or stated supplies. All are now so settled, and it is expected that the ministers at present in charge will so continue for the coming year, except in one or two cases.

Special reports have been received from all of these missions, and the work in nearly all of them is in an encouraging condition. In the case of all whose terms continue beyond the current year the Board, in accordance with the regulations, has made grants and appointed missionaries for the coming year. The amounts thus granted and other general facts in reference to these missions appear in the tabular statement which follows. In some instances the grant is less than was asked. It is the judgment of the Board that some of the congregations could reasonably be expected to give more for salary than was promised in the application.

At the end of this year expires the term of eleven of these stations, viz.: Burlington, Ia.; Columbus, Neil Ave.; Davenport, Ia.; Denver, Boulevard; Pasadena, Cal.; St. Louis, Wagoner Place; Spokane, Wash. All of these except Burlington, Columbus Neil Ave. and Denver Boulevard ask to be continued for another term. Their requests, together with those of stations seeking to be made special missions for the first time, will be considered and acted upon by the General Committee.

IV. The Work of the Women's Board. As in former years, the co-operation of the Women's Board has been a great aid in our home mission work.

For Indian work, which is wholly in their care, they expended, last year, $2,928.80; for Messiah mission, Jewish, Chicago, $1,200; Italian mission, Pittsburg, $422.50; Polish mission, $555; Salaries of missionaries under their direction, $2,422.40; McNaugher mission, Allegheny, $100; San Jose, $500; Oneonta, $500; to different missions, by request of donors, $137. This Board continues to support a number of women missionaries who labor chiefly in large cities in connection with congregations.

Acknowledgment is especially made of the generous aid given for the specific work in the care of our Board. After some correspondence and conference in reference to further co-operation, they kindly agreed to appropriate the amount required for the support of the new work in the care of our Board, $8,400. This generous help, which was greatly needed, is most cordially appreciated.

V. The Sliding Scale and the Fifteen-Year Limit Rules. Of the 218 stations that have been receiving aid, and that are applying for grants next year, there are only 54 that do not come under the sliding scale rule, and of these 13, on account of age, come under the 15-year limit. Thirty-eight ask no more than the sliding scale allows, but 15 of them come under the 15-year limit. One hundred and twenty-six ask more than is permitted by the sliding scale, and of this number 68 would be excluded by the time limit. Thus, exemption from the sliding scale for 126 stations, and from the 15-year limit for 96, is recommended by presbyteries.

The facts just stated show that there is little disposition to conform to these just and wholesome regulations. Some exceptions, of course, ought to be made, but when exemption is so generally sought and is so readily granted, the purpose of the rules in question is defeated. Advance in our home mission work will be slow, and often impossible, so long as this practice continues. If old stations are permitted to absorb all the money that the Church is willing to contribute for this work, new stations cannot be taken up.

VI. SUPPLIES FOR VACANT CONGREGATIONS AND EMPLOYMENT FOR UNSETTLED MINISTERS. As stated in the report of last year, the system supposed to be in operation at present is not effective, and evidently cannot be made so. After earnest effort on the part of the Board it was discovered that only about 12 per cent. of the unemployed ministers were willing to co-operate in the plan, and therefore it could not be carried out. According to it, save in the case of special missions, the Board can appoint only upon the specific request of presbytery. Not a single request for the appointment of a man whose name appeared on the list sent to presbyteries, was received. The Board has endeavored in every way in its power to aid presbyteries in procuring supplies for their vacancies and unemployed ministers in securing appointments. It is hoped that the report of the committee appointed by the last General Assembly will result in some satisfactory adjustment of this matter, though it will be difficult to devise a plan that will be practicable and satisfactory to all concerned.

Total Expenditure	$83,172 08	$87,642 08	$82,584 76

Under the head of Sabbath Schools and Young People, $1,761.33 were received from the 10th anniversary fund, and the balance, $33.40, includes only such offerings of the Sabbath schools as were sent directly to our treasurer, the amounts sent through financial agents not being separately reported. The amount from Ladies' Missionary Societies includes the special grant of $8,400 by the Women's Board.

The payments to presbyteries, as heretofore stated, were $7,126.50 more than for last year. This is accounted for by the extension of the work, especially in cities where the demands are large and have to be met almost entirely by grants.

The expenditures exceeded the total receipts by $1,664.40. There was an indebtedness at the beginning of the year of $3,903.35. Thus the year closes with a debt of $5,567.75.

Attention is called to the fact that the receipts from presbyteries were $3,036.52 less than for last year. The explanation of this the Board does not undertake to give, but it so vitally affects the work that it calls for serious consideration, especially in connection with the making of grants for the coming year. There is, perhaps, some explanation in the large amount contributed by the people of our Church to special objects during the year, but it is the belief of the Board that if the claims of the regular work of the Church were properly presented to the congregations they would give it larger financial support. Without discouraging the spirit of liberality toward all worthy objects, it is the feeling of the Board that congregations should be encouraged to give the regular work of the Church the first and chief place in the matter of contributions, and not permit outside calls, especially those for objects that are not in the care of responsible organizations, to interfere with their duty to this work.

The large receipts from other sources this year prevented the incurring of a large additional indebtedness, but support from such sources cannot be depended on; the reliance must be upon the regular offerings of the congregations, and if this work is to advance these offerings must be largely increased.

VIII. The Coming Year. From all of our presbyteries, except those in foreign countries, reports have been received. Fifty-seven presbyteries present requests for aid from the home mission funds for 240 stations. The A. R. Church of the South asks aid for five stations. Four old congregations ask aid for the first time, to the amount of $900. There are 18 applications for appropriations for strictly new work, aggregating $12,500, for specific requests. In three cases the applications are general and the amounts desired are not stated. The specific requests aggregate $98,793. This sum will be increased by the three general applications and those of two stations which came too late to be included in the statistical statement.

As heretofore stated, the Board has acted on the applications of special missions whose terms continue beyond the present year. According to the regulations prescribed by the General Assembly, all other cases will be presented to the General Committee of Home Missions, to meet in Albia, Iowa, May 15, 1901.

The term of service of the present corresponding secretary, who was elected to take the place of Rev. W. S. Owens, D.D., resigned, and of the following members of the Board: Rev. David Barclay, D.D., Rev. J. K. McClurkin, D.D., and A. M. Scott, Esq., expires June 30, 1901.

The statistical table of home mission congregations, and the report of the treasurer, which has been audited according to the requirement of the General Assembly, are herewith presented.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

Alexander Gilchrist,
Corresponding Secretary.

J. K. McClurkin, President.
J. W. English, Recording Secretary.

Pittsburg, May 6, 1901.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The forty-second annual meeting of the General Committee of Home Missions was held in Albia, Iowa, May 15-22, 1901. All the presbyteries in America, except Brookville, Illinois Central, Princeton and Vermont, were represented by delegates. Representatives of the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension were also present. Rev. C. H. Strong, D.D., of Arkansas Valley Presbytery, was elected chairman. Rev. J. D. Barr, of Mercer Presbytery, was elected recording secretary, and Rev. S. G. Huey, of Wisconsin Presbytery, was chosen assistant secretary.

Applications for aid from the home mission funds were presented by fifty-seven presbyteries for two hundred and forty-one stations. The total amount thus applied for was $104,413.

This is the largest number of applications ever presented in any year. It is worthy of notice, also, that the requests for new work exceeded in number and the amount asked those of any previous year. There were twenty-six applications in this list calling for $18,150, all but three being for strictly new work. These facts the committee regarded as evidence of a healthy condition, and the right spirit in our home mission work. The committee felt that almost without exception the requests for new work presented inviting fields, but at the same time it was felt that the amount that could reasonably be expected from the Church for home missions for the coming year would not warrant the taking up of work in all the fields thus presented, and great perplexity was experienced in selecting the ones to be entered. The work of the committee was entered upon and performed throughout with earnest prayer for divine guidance and with a desire to make the wisest appropriation of the Church's money. The following report gives the result of the committee's deliberations: Appropriations are recommended as follows: For special missions in the care of the Board, $23,070; for other stations aided in former years, $57,218; for new work, $9,745; to the Board to meet emergencies, $5,000; to provide for the payment of debt, $5,567. In the new work four stations with $3,000, and in the old work seven stations with $3,700, for special reasons, were referred either to the Board or to presbyteries.

The total amount granted, $100,550, is the least that in the judgment of the committee could be appropriated without doing serious injury to the work. After the stations had all been passed upon, it was found that the aggregate appropriations exceeded the sum that the committee was willing to recommend. As the most feasible way out of the embarrassment it was agreed that each representative, if he could see his way clear to do so, would suggest where further reductions might be made in his presbytery, the committee believing that under the circumstances all concerned would be willing to abide by the results thus reached. In this way the appropriations were reduced to the figure named.

The committee is firmly of the opinion that the people of our Church are able to provide the sum recommended, and that they will do so if the claims of the work are properly presented to them, and the right steps are taken to raise the money.

I. Aid Granted.

The following characters are used to express conditions upon which appropriations are made: p. s., continuance of existing pastoral settlement; s., settlement to be effected. In all other cases the condition is stated supply, unless something different is expressly indicated. A fraction after the appropriation shows the amount of time to be taken, as 1-2 or 2-3. When no figures are used, the grant is for full time.

II. Special and New Work.

1. Special Missions.—The term of eleven stations as special missions expires this year. Seven of these, viz., Davenport, Emporia, Kansas City, First, Kansas City, Second, Oakland, Cal., Pasadena and St. Louis, Wagoner Place, asked to be continued in this relation for another term. These requests, except in the case of Davenport, were granted, and appropriations made to the stations as shown in the foregoing list of grants. Everett, Wash., Middletown, Ohio, and Starkville, Miss., ask to be made special missions for the first time, and with the exception of Middletown, Ohio, these requests were granted. The amount appropriated in each case appears in connection with the name of the station in the regular list of grants.

2. First Grant.—The following is a list of stations that are granted aid for the first time. The amount and conditions are given in the general table: Oklahoma; Salem, Mass.; Evanston, Ill.; Seabring, Ohio; Starkville, Miss.; Bluffton, Ind.; Winchester, Kan.; South Sharon, Pa.; Pleasant Hill, Neb.; Philadelphia, South, Pa.; Washington, D. C.; Glendale, Wash.; Hooper and Washtucna, Wash.; Chester, W. Va.; Knoxville, Pa., and St. Paul or Minneapolis, Minn.

III. General.

Your Committee on recommendations and resolutions would respectfully report as follows:

1. We recommend that the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension be urged to send during the year their corresponding secretaries, or other representatives, to visit our frontier mission stations, especially those in the Synods of California and of the Columbia.

2. That the Home Mission Board be requested, if feasible, in making up the annual report to add another column and to give therein the average contributions for all purposes per member of congregations applying for aid.

3. That the Board be requested to send to the Superintendent of Missions of each presbytery, in connection with blank applications for aid, enough copies of the rules in reference to the making out of applications, to enable him to place a copy in the hands of each missionary.

4. That all applications for new work and from special missions to be continued as such, shall be investigated by the Home Mission Board, and shall be by them submitted to the General Committee, together with their recommendations thereon, as in other cases.

5. That we recommend the appointment by the General Assembly of a committee, to consist of one member from each Synod in America, to take into consideration the question of a change in the formation of the General Committee, and of the present method of distributing the home mission funds, to report to the next General Assembly; and, further, that the committee be directed to publish its report in the Church papers not later than January 1, 1902.

6. That the Board of Home Missions be directed to make investigation with reference to work among the mountain whites of the South, and to make suitable provision for carrying on work there, if in their judgment the way for it be open.

7. That the General Committee express its appreciation of the faithful and efficient service rendered to the Church by the members of the Home Board, and especially by the Corresponding Secretary, Alexander Gilchrist, D.D., and in view of the fact that Dr. Gilchrist's term of office expires at this time, we earnestly recommend to the General Assembly his re-election.

8. That we recommend the General Assembly to appropriate ten dollars to be paid to the sexton of Albia church for services rendered during the sessions of this General Committee.

ALEXANDER GILCHRIST.
C. H. STRONG, Chairman. Secretary.
J. D. BARR and S. G. HUEY, Assistant Secretaries.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

We most gratefully record the goodness of God in sparing the life of all the members of the Board, and of all the missionaries in the field during the last year. Two of the faithful workers were laid aside temporarily by sickness, but their health has been restored. The work in every mission has been carried on with much earnestness and self-denial on the part of the workers, and the year closes with the comforting assurance that the labor has not been in vain.

The Board.—Twelve regular and several special meetings have been held. The members have shown a deep interest in the entire work, and the material interests of the missions have been managed and guarded with the same care which successful business men give to their own business enterprises .

Schools Closed.—All the schools will be closed by the 15th of May for the summer, except Knoxville, whose closing wil be a month later, but the religious work will be continued in all the missions without interruption.

THE FIELD AND THE WORK.

General.—Tennessee and Alabama Stations:—The missions in Tennessee and Alabama are very closely connected. Knoxville College supplies all the teachers for the other missions. The principal in each of the stations makes his monthly report to the president of the college, who summarizes the reports for the Freedmen's Board. The president of the college visits the stations once or twice a year, and the workers in the missions all attend the Summer Bible School at Knoxville College in June of each year after commencement.

The year has been one of good work, of harmony and of good results in a spiritual way. There has been but little sickness among the workers and students. The prevalence of smallpox in many communities of the South has seriously interfered with attendance from some points.

The statistics of the congregations in these fields very inadequately represent the work done. Some are disappointed in noting the comparatively small membership as compared with the large attendance at our schools. There is a reason for this and the work cannot be measured by the net gain in membership. A very large number of our accessions are students, who in the very nature of the case move away where they will not find a United Presbyterian Church, and regret to sever connection with it. A large number of persons are converted also whose parents oppose their uniting with our Church. Denominational prejudice is strong. There are few colleges any where which can show a larger per cent. of church members than Knoxville College.

Our Alabama missions are located in the Black Belt, in Wilcox county, about one hundred miles from the Gulf. Of the four stations in the Black Belt only one is in a town, the rest being found in rural districts. This is rather a novel feature of the work and one that has been most highly endorsed by persons interested in the race problem. One great evil of the time is that so many of the colored youth are congregating in the cities. If they are given an education in the country, there is less probability of their leaving home for the city.

One characteristic that has marked all our missions has been the effort of the people to help themselves. The congregations of Athens, Miller's Ferry, Camden and Prairie each paid $50 on their pastor's salary in addition to their contributions to the boards and their own expenses. Miller's Ferry paid three months of their pastor's salary. Some are making an effort to build their own dormitories, and a most commendable effort has been put forth in this direction by all the missions.

KNOXVILLE COLLEGE.

Knoxville College.—Knoxville College celebrated the Quarter Centennial of its founding last June with appropriate exercises. It has been the fourth of a century of large achievements in the cause of the Master. Those who have received their education here are scattered all over the South, and wherever found are marked by a spirit of earnestness that is most praiseworthy.

During the year, Mrs. Agnes H. Wait, who was laid aside from active work four years ago, was called to her heavenly rest. While she has not been identified actively with the work since that time, yet her home has been in our midst and she has been counted one of the workers. Her last years have been full of suffering, and she leaves behind her the blessing of a life nobly spent.

Religious Work.—The regular Sabbath services consist of preaching morning and evening, Sabbath school in the morning, and Senior, Junior and Intermediate Young People's prayer meetings in the afternoon. All services are well attended. The change of the Sabbath school from the afternoon to the morning reduced the attendance somewhat, but resulted in great gain to the work, as it binds together the Sabbath school and preaching service, and much more effective work has been done. A mission school has been maintained by the Knoxville congregation in one of the most needy portions of the city, but was compelled to close its doors in February because of smallpox in the vicinity. This is under the management of the students, who have shown commendable zeal and earnestness in their work. Miss Jennie McCahon, as missionary, is faithful and untiring in sowing the good seed. The College Sabbath school has an enrollment of 275, with an average attendance of 222. Special meetings were held for a week at a time twice during the year. Thirty-three accessions to the Church are recorded, of which twenty-five were on profession of faith. A large number of others have accepted Christ and connected with other denominations.

The College.—The term college is used to apply to all the work in connection with the institution, from the classical course down to the primary. The need of primary instruction in many communities is so great that did we not provide such a course many would be denied instruction in the rudiments of learning. The maintaining of the primary and training departments not only affords opportunity for thorough instruction from the very beginning, but also an opportunity for the advanced students to obtain valuable experience in teaching under a skillful principal, as many of the classes are taught by advanced students.

Theological Department.—We have enrolled four students in this department. They are all in the first year. There are many still in the college course who look forward to entering this department, and the prospects for the future are good. It trains young men for the actual work, surrounded by many of the conditions that they must meet.

Medical Department.—Discontinued.—This department has been discontinued. It was started with an understanding on the part of the physicians that it would never be any expense to the institution. Of course that is quite impossible if proper equipment were to be secured. It was also inexpedient to have the Medical Department with the college without separate buildings. The work could not be done as it ought to be done, and it is desired that every department that is maintained must be maintained first-class.

Industrial Departments.—Students are taught the trades of printing, carpentry, agriculture, sewing, cooking, electrical work and in incidental ways other industries. All girls are required to take sewing as a part of the college corriculum. While the students are taught these industries they receive at the same time pay for the work that they do, the pay being based on the character of the work done. In this way over $800 has been paid out to students, of which $600 has been received from the State University Fund. In addition to the above twelve students have received State Normal Scholarships, of which the State of Tennessee furnishes 66, to be given by the senators to colored young men and women, with the privilege of using them in any of the recognized colored institutions. The State Scholarship gives its recipient $50. Through the Women's Board we have received to help students $245. Thus over $1,500 has been used to help students. The help given students is almost entirely in the way of compensation for labor. The only exception is in the case of the State Normal Scholarships and those too young to render a return for help given. There is great oportunity to those who wish to help some worthy young man or woman through school. The money will not be given to him outright, but he will be given work to do in some line that will bring returns that will help some other student to get work, and thus a small amount of money does great good.

Scholarships.—The faculty have provided for a free scholarship to the member of the Fourth Normal class who shall stand highest in his class, and whose deportment has been creditable. This scholarship provides for free boarding and tuition for one year. If the person who wins the scholarship does not desire to avail himself of its privileges, it shall be given to the second highest.

It is desired and hoped that before the next session opens scholarships with like provisions shall be provided for in all the schools under the control of the United Presbyterian Church, providing for the winner a free Knoxville College Scholarship. Four such scholarships have been provided and used this year — in Athens Academy, Athens, Tenn., given by the Ladies' Missionary Society of Morning Sun, Ohio, congregation; in Thyne Institute, Chase City, Va., given by Mrs. Mary McCleary, New Wilmington, Pa.; in Prairie, Ala., mission, given by Mr. J. M. Brown, of Wheeling, W. Va.; in Norfolk Mission College, given by Rev. J. D. Lytle, Hanover, Ind.

More Land Needed.—In order to properly develop our Industrial Department it is absolutely necessary that we have more land. An option has been secured on about thirty acres adjoining our property, which lies just outside the corporation limits, by which we may purchase the land before September 1st, for $7,500. Half of this has been pledged by a friend of the work, provided we can raise the other half elsewhere.

ATHENS.

Rev. J. T. Arter has been in charge of this station this year for the first, succeeding J. L. Cook. Mr. Arter has gained the confidence of the people and the work of the station has gone on without any jar because of the change of workers. The enrollment for the day school is 180. The attendance at church and Sabbath school is good, reaching almost one hundred. The spiritual growth of the congregation has been evidenced in increased liberality and mission work.

CLEVELAND, TENN.

Work was begun at this station more than two years ago by Rev. J. A. Cotton. The first year preaching services and Sabbath school were carried on, and this last year a school has been opened up. The church has not been formally organized, members having been received into it as members of the Athens congregation. The opposition arising from denominational prejudice has been very strong, but there has been much for which to thank God, and take courage. The people of the town have provided a building and maintained all the running expenses of the school except the salaries. The workers at this place are: Rev. J. A. Cotton, pastor and principal; Miss Mattie Warren and Miss Delia Parks.

BRISTOL, TENN.

Mission work at this point was opened up two years ago. Until April of this year no school was maintained. The church is not regularly organized, but members are received into the church as a part of the Knoxville congregation.

A new building was dedicated on April 2nd, which cost entire, including its furniture, almost $7,000. A prominent citizen and Christian worker of Bristol, Major A. D. Reynolds, donated a lot valued at more than $2,000 in one of the best locations in the city and gave $1,000 cash. The work has opened up most auspiciously; the field is an exceedingly promising one both for school and church work. Rev. Frank W. Woodfin is pastor and principal of this mission.

RICEVILLE.

Rev. J. H. Tarter is in charge of the work at this point. He began work last August. Previous to that time Sabbath school had been carried on by the Athens congregation, seven miles distant. A church building was purchased for $350 and arrangements made to accommodate both the church and day school. Mr. Tartar has been the only teacher in the school and has had an enrollment of more than 80. While the field is not unlimited, yet it promises to be a good one.

MILLER'S FERRY, ALA.

This, the oldest station of the Alabama missions, had a good year. The opening of a rival school in the same neighborhood reduced the attendance somewhat, but more than 200 have attended our school. The congregation is active and well organized. The people have contributed liberally and the work has prospered. In this field Rev. C. H. Johnson is pastor and principal.

PRAIRIE, ALA.

Rev. J. E. James, who graduated from the Knoxville College Theological Department last year, has been in charge of this mission during the past year. The work has been characterized by utmost harmony and good-will on the part of the community. The main feature of this station is the farm which is owned by the Women's Board and managed under the direction of N. B. Cotton, who has had charge of it during the past year. The purpose of this enterprise is to afford opportunity for promising persons to be properly taught farming and offered the privilege of purchasing small farms of their own. The school at this place charges a small tuition fee of twenty-five cents a year. The plan has worked well and is a feature that may be introduced into the other stations, as it would do its part toward educating the people to self help.

CAMDEN.

"The best year we have had," is the report from the pastor and principal, Rev. E. K. Smith. The church work has been active and the people have been revived. This mission is located in the county seat of Wilcox county, and is for more than one reason a very purportant point. The enrollment of the school has been 225. All the various departments of the church and school have been carried on actively.

CANTON BEND.

A sewing department was begun at this mission last year and it has had a successful year. Prof. J. N. Cotton, the principal at this station, is not a pastor or ordained minister, but a ruling elder. He looks after all the affairs of the congregation and along with the neighboring pastors expounds the Word to the people. The school has a strong hold on the community. The enrollment for the past year was 145.

SUMMERFIELD, ALA.

After carefully canvassing the situation the Board decided that it was best to discontinue the work at this point. There seemed to be little prospect of a congregation being built up in the near future, and it was thought best to concentrate efforts at other points. Prof. P. C. Cloud, who was in charge of the work for a number of years, has removed to Knoxville, where he will educate his family.

In all the stations the various organizations of well-managed congregations and Sabbath schools have been maintained. Young People's meetings, Junior societies, Mother's meetings, Missionary societies, and so on, have been kept up, and house to house visitation is always a very important part of the work.

CHASE CITY, VA.

A comparison of the statistics for this year with that of former years, furnishes some very gratifying evidences of progress in the work at Thyne Institute. There has been a much larger and more regular attendance, both in the church and day school. The average attendance at church for the school year is 223, or 41 more than that of last year The highest average for any one month last year was 203, or 20 less than that of the entire present school year.

On each alternate Sabbath evening the principal lectured on Christian doctrine to an audience ranging from one hundred to one hundred and fifty. The attendance at the Wednesday evening prayer meeting has been from 75 to 125. Junior and Young People's meetings have been held each Saturday afternoon during the school year. A three weeks' series of meetings was held last winter, resulting in an accession of twelve on profession of faith to the membership of the congregation. The Woman's Missionary Society met semi-monthly during the year and did good work under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Moore and Miss Margaret Kerr.

Girls' Industrial Home.—There were fourteen girls in the Home, and four young men in the Cottage most of the year. All the girls in the Home are instructed in cooking, baking, housework, and all that enters into the duties pertaining to housekeeping. This includes laundry work. The girls themselves do all the work and are graded upon it as in regular class work. Careful attention is also given to deportment, so that students shall become refined and lady-like. An effort is made to bring them under such training as will make them a source of refining influence in their own homes when they return thereto. Though there were but fourteen girls in the Home this year, who can measure the good that will result from their influence?

Sewing Department.—The enrollment for the year was 124. These were given instruction in plain sewing, and dressmaking was introduced into the schedule. This will be a permanent feature of this department hereafter. Each is required to make her own graduating dress.

BLUESTONE, VA.

Rev. W. M. Fowlkes withdrew from this mission at the close of the term of the public school, February 1st, and will soon be assigned to another field of work. Mr. W. G. Wilson succeeds Mr. Fowlkes and has entered upon his duties with energy and with good prospect of success. The total school enrollment for the year is 113, and of the Sabbath school 143. All the different parts of the work are carried on through the various organizations, as in the other missions.

NORFOLK, VA.

Thirteen persons have united with the congregation during the year. Four of these were baptized. Two members have died, one was dismissed on certificate, and six others were dismissed for cause. The attendance on the preaching services was larger than that of previous years. The daily collections amounted to $74.87.

Day School.—Seven hundred and six names are on the roll for the year. The average daily attendance is 552. Good work has been done. Thirteen young ladies and gentlemen graduate, and one young man receives a certificate.

Sabbath Schools.—There are two Sabbath schools — afternoon and evening. In the afternoon school 668 names are enrolled. Scholars who must use the street cars or the ferry are not required to attend on the Sabbath, but are examined on the lessons on Mondays. $164.47 were contributed by the school. The evening school is for the very poor, who are neglected by all others. These are gathered from the streets, many of whom cannot read, and not a few have no idea what the words God and Jesus Christ mean. These are able to repeat all the Golden Texts for the year. One hundred and ninety children are in this school.

Prayer Meetings.—Six prayer meetings are held in the school every Wednesday afternoon, into which the scholars are all gathered. These are conducted by the scholars themselves under the supervision of the teachers. The attendance at the congregational prayer meeting, on Wednesday evenings, has almost doubled in numbers. Good interest was manifested during the "Week of Prayer," the effect of which is still seen in the conduct and behavior of the school.

W. M. S.—There are 32 members in the society. Meetings are held monthly. The amount of collections for the year is $43.24.

Y. P. C. U.—Meets monthly for business and social entertainment. Meetings for prayer and conference are held each Sabbath morning. The work of the Union is carried on through its various committees. Amount of contribution, $54.58.

Sewing Department.—Two hundred and ninety-eight girls and one boy are learning to make all garments worn by women, and all articles made with the needle. The girls are required to become so efficient as to be able to plan, cut, fit and make their own graduating dresses. The work of the year is an advance of last year.

Cooking Department.—Ninety-six girls are learning to do neatly, economically, and well, all the work that pertains to the cooking in a well ordered household. Much more interest has been manifested in this department. The girls are required to be able to plan all the meals, to bake bread, and to cook and prepare a meal that will pass the inspection of competent judges before they are allowed to graduate.

Printing Department.—Twenty-eight girls and boys are learning to print. Besides the Bulletin, a monthly paper of eight pages, and all necessary work for the College, enough job work is done to pay all necessary expenses.

Miscellaneous.—The principal, besides the regular work of the school and congregation, teaches a class in the colored Y. M. C. A. building, of the teachers and superintendents of the various Sabbath schools, besides preaching occasionally for them and making other addresses. The teachers make house to house visitations in the evenings and on Saturdays. Three Sabbath schools in the country are supplied with suitable reading matter. Thousands of copies of our church papers and Sabbath school literature are thus distributed, and eagerly received and read. The mission has contributed $337.16. Two things are greatly needed to the procuring greater results for the labor done:—a church building and a dormitory where the girls may be protected from the temptations of the streets. God's blessing has evidently rested on the work of the year.

A Lot Purchased.—The Board has purchased a valuable lot of ground adjoining our mission property here. This property was so occupied that it has for years been a menace to the safety of our mission, and an intolerable nuisance besides. The owners held it at $4,500—but since the holidays it was sold at a forced sale and we bought it for $3,000. The Board believes that arrangements have been made by which this sum can be paid without drawing upon the regular funds in our treasury.

HENDERSON, N. C.

A change of administration was effected at the beginning of the last year. Rev. J. L. Cook, who for ten years had been in charge of the work at Athens, Tenn., was placed at the head of the work, as pastor and principal. He was given a band of tried and faithful teachers as his assistants, and the work has apparently prospered during the year. The school has flourished, having a total enrollment for the year of 706, we think the highest enrollment since its organization. The class room work has been of a high order and the progress of the pupils very satisfactory. The religious work has shown the most striking improvement.

The congregation has about doubled in membership and the Sabbath school has reached the highest mark as to numbers ever attained in any of our missions, the enrollment being 1,110. The methods of work adopted by Mr. Cook are the same as those used in his former mission. The Word is preached in the church once every Sabbath. At another hour a Bible school is conducted. Here the Bible is studied in an informal way. The members are given a chance to ask questions and express their opinion on the passages under consideration and the pastor corrects them if in error. Mr. Cook says, in the Bible school is where we get at our distinctives, and as a result of our work in this direction there are several young men who say they will leave the lodge and join our church. All the usual organizations are kept up here as in the other fields.

Industrial Work.—Some kind of industrial work is carried on in all our missions as far as our means will allow. Our Board is, however, a Missionary Board and our work primarily and chiefly a missionary work. Every school conducted by our Board is a missionary school, and moreover is a United Presbyterian school in which the doctrines "professed by this Church" are taught, and the effort is constantly made to have the pupils impressed with the phase of the Christian faith for which our church stands. The teachers are United Presbyterians.

NEW WORK.

No new work was undertaken by the Board during the last year.

The last General Assembly authorized your Board "to investigate the field of the island of Cuba, with a view to establishing a mission among the needy people." Upon this authorization the Board met shortly after the adjournment of the Assembly and took the matter under advisement. Subsequently, several meetings of the Board were held, and all the information that could be obtained by correspondence and otherwise laid before it. It appeared from reports by Governor-General Wood upon the question of the education of the Cubans, that their needs in this direction were being supplied in some good measure. He says: "Schools have increased, in a few months, from a few hundred to over three thousand—the school attendance has doubled and redoubled several times since our control was established, and there are now 160,000 children in school, and three-quarters of a million dollars' worth of supplies have been distributed." This year, Gen. Wood declares, "the expenditure for school funds will be over $4,000,000. Summer normal schools are to be established throughout Cuba, and pains taken to bring to the island first-class instructors in educational methods; while it is hoped that four or five hundred teachers may be sent to the United States to receive instruction." In view of these facts the Board did not deem it best to go farther in the matter, but rather to rest the case for the present and report thus far its action to this Assembly. This conclusion was reached the more readily owing to the fact that no part of the $2,000 appropriated by the last Assembly for investigating the field came to our treasury designated so as to warrant the using of it for this purpose, and, moreover, it became more evident every month that the receipts would not be sufficient to carry on the work already undertaken in our own country, and pay the burdensome debt, which has hindered the work for years. We leave the matter with the Assembly without suggestion or recommendation.

Women's Auxiliary Board.—This Board has heartily and cordially co-operated with us during the year, paying, as formerly, the salaries of all industrial teachers except those of the mechanical and agricultural professors of Knoxville College, and the salaries of the printers at Knoxville and Norfolk. Without this aid it would be impossible for us to carry on the work in its present form and extent. The amount received from the Women's Board for this purpose was $6,585.00.

Debt.—We are very sorry, and not a little disappointed, that we are still compelled to carry into the next year a debt which has so long burdened and hindered the work. It amounts to $20,350.

Appropriation.—The Board respectfully asks the Assembly to appropriate $55,000 for the work of the next year.

Vacancies.—The term of office of Revs. D. W. Carson, D.D., W. H. McMillan, D.D., and W. S. Harper, D.D., expires with this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. McMillan, President.

J. W. Witherspoon, Cor. Secretary.

Allegheny, Pa., May 9, 1901.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfully reports that the year has brought many blessings, but also great sorrow and loss, not to the Board only, but to the whole Church, in the death of two of its most faithful and efficient members.

After a short illness, Mr. William J. Sawyer died on the 12th of December. Mr. Sawyer was elected to this service by the General Assembly of 1883, and during these more than seventeen years gave special attention to the work of the Board, and for a considerable part of the time was a member of the Committee on Finance. The following minute was adopted:

"The members of the Board record their profound sorrow and sense of loss in the death of a member so much beloved and so valuable in counsel, and extend their sympathy to the bereaved friends.

"For over seventeen years Mr. Sawyer has been a member of this Board, and by his kindly courtesy and his eminently Christian spirit endeared himself to his fellow members. He brought into the service a large experience in benevolent work, an intimate knowledge of the United Presbyterian Church, with an intense desire to advance all its interests, and, above all a supreme faith in God and humble dependence on his grace. He was faithful in his attendance, and gave careful attention to the details of the work of the Board. His judgment was clear and always had great weight. He had a warm sympathy for the missions, and advocated the largest possible help for them. He in no measure spared himself in any duty assigned to him, his first thought being the prosperity of the Church and the advancement of the kingdom of God. In all his life his spirit was that of an earnest Christian who loved his Lord and was devoted to his service.

"We mourn him as a brother beloved, taken away from us in the midst of his days."

On the 8th of March Mr. Thomas McCance, the senior member of the Board, and a member of the Committee on Finance, ceased from his labors in the completeness of a life of usefulness in many departments of the work of the Church. The following minute was adopted:

"The members of the Board, thus called upon a second time within a few months to mourn the death of a brother greatly beloved, humbly bow before the will of our Lord by which sorrow is added to sorrow, and out of their own grief extend their sympathy to the breaved family and friends.

"Mr. McCance has been a member of the Board since 1877, and in this long term of service has proved himself worthy of the confidence placed in him and of the high esteem in which he was held by his brethren. He was courteous in manner, kindly and genial in spirit, ever ready for whatever the work of the Board required of him, and faithful in the discharge of the duty involved. He loved the Church, was familiar with its history and work, and brought into the service his large experience, his good judgment, his prudence, and his reverent and devoted love to the Lord Jesus. He never allowed personal interests to interfere with his service in the Board, and even when feebleness of health would have justified rest from active labor, he continued to give his remaining strength to the mission work. The Spirit of the Lord was upon him, and he wearied not until in the completeness of a long and useful Christian life he was called to enter the presence of the Lord."

The vacancies thus created were filled by the election of Mr. William H. Jamison and Mr. E. W. Hill.

The Board has endeavored to fulfill the trust committed to it. Monthly meetings have been held, and careful consideration has been given to every application presented. An effort has been made to distribute the funds at command equitably to every part of the Church. Special care has been taken to secure the adoption of suitable plans, and also to develop the spirit of self-dependence. The corresponding secretary visited as many of the synods as possible, and at others the cause was presented by the corresponding secretary of the Board of Home Missions, under an arrangement for mutual help. Circulars have been issued, and much correspondence has been had to make known the work and needs of the Board.

As noted in former reports, the applications are for much larger grants than formerly. The Church has everywhere felt the general change in the social life of the country, resulting from the increase of wealth. In all the cities and towns great public improvements have been made, and the general style of building is more elaborate and expensive. In all the churches more expensive houses of worship have been erected. The missions have felt the spirit, and ask for larger and more perfectly equipped churches, in order to be in harmony with their surroundings, and to be able to compete with well established congregations. The Board appreciates this feeling and recognizes that present methods of work and general social conditions require a better grade of churches than formerly, but is of the opinion that the tendency is towards a too large expenditure in the early part of the work. The Board has not been able, in every case, to prevent the missions from contracting debt, and so bringing upon themselves a burden heavy to be borne. In some cases this was clearly unavoidable except by appropriations not authorized by the General Assembly, but in others the Board has insisted, as much as was deemed prudent, on a less expenditure until the congregation would be well established. In very few cases have the presbyteries placed restrictions in this direction when endorsing the applications for aid.

As one result of these more expensive buildings private appeals have been made quite extensively in the Church at large. The Board has not the power to interfere with the individual right of giving, nor does it wish to do so, but it is convinced that the many appeals for special objects diminish the income for the work undertaken by the General Assembly through its Boards

No appropriation has been made for aid in the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, because of the large demands for our own missions.

The Women's Missionary Board has made grants to the following congregations for parsonages: New Haven, Mich.; Reinbeck, Iowa; Clarion, Iowa; Orchard, Neb.; Seattle, Wash.; Oak Harbor, Wash.; Superior, Neb.; Northfield, O.; St. Joseph, Mo.

The increase of parsonage building and the consequent new conditions have suggested the necessity for a revision of the regulations governing the co-operation of the two Boards. A conference on the subject will be held at an early day.

SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Fresno, Cal., church was designated as the Sabbath school memorial for the year now closed. The contributions of the Sabbath schools covered the cost of the very suitable house which has been erected. The detailed reports of the financial agents show that a large number of the Sabbath schools do not contribute to the erection of mission churches.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The Board considered every application with great care, and made such grants as, in its judgment, were necessary. This has not always been to the amount of the application, but the grant has generally proved sufficient.

The appropriations made are as follows:

CONGREGATION.	PRESBYTERY.	DONATION.	LOAN.
Allegheny, Duquesne Park	Allegheny	$ 1,300 00
Beaumont, Cal.	Los Angeles	300 00
Bolivar, Pa.	Conemaugh	1,500 00
Burlington Junction, Mo.	College Springs	1,250 00
Canon City, Col.	Colorado	500 00
Des Moines, Third, Iowa	Des Moines	2,500 00
East McKeesport, Pa.	Westmoreland	2,000 00
Erie, Pa., Brown Ave.	Lake	2,800 00
Everett, Wash., for the lot	Puget Sound	2,500 00
Fresno, Cal.	San Francisco	3,100 00
Jewell, Kan.	Pawnee	500 00
Moline, Ill., for the lot	Rock Island	3,500 00
New Haven, Mich.	Detroit	200 00
New York, Washington Heights	New York		$ 5,000 00
Philadelphia, Dales Memorial	Philadelphia	1,000 00
Pittsburgh, Thirteenth	Monongahela	3,000 00
Starkville, Miss.	Southern Illinois	425 00
Stowe, O.	Cleveland	$ 750 00
Topeka, Second, Kan.	Kansas City	2,000 00
Whatcom, Wash.	Puget Sound	2,350 00
Wilmington, Del.	Philadelphia	5,000 00
Youngstown, O., Second	Cleveland	500 00
		$36,975 00	$ 5,000 00
Total appropriations			41,975 00

The First church, Boston, Mass., which formerly received aid under the direct instructions of the General Assembly, finds its house of worship entirely inadequate. The present building is too small, and is not strong enough to bear remodelling. To buy the additional lot necessary and rebuild will require a very large sum. The Board is convinced that the congregation should have better accommodations, but did not feel free to do more than to consent to waive its claim so far as to permit a mortgage on the property. No progress has yet been made. The title is in the trustees of the General Assembly.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

As compared with the preceding year, the contributions from congregations and Sabbath schools have been larger, but the amount from societies is smaller, chiefly because but little of the Tenth Anniversary fund remained to be paid in. The exceptionally large individual contributions of last year have not been equalled.

The receipts from all sources have been:

From Congregations			$24,265 03
From Sabbath Schools			3,867 84
From Societies: General	$ 513 54
Tenth Anniversary Fund	970 35
			1,483 89
From Individuals			276 50
Total Contributions			$29,893 26
From Legacies	$ 2,120 00
From Loans Returned—Churches	3,083 35
Parsonages	3,762 55
From Rent, Allegheny Property	1,750 00

*The corresponding secretary has not drawn the increase of salary voted by the last General Assembly.

The contributions received, including individual donations, amount to 54.3 per cent. of the appropriation by the General Assembly.

Of the 909 congregations in America 172 have not contributed to this work.

The general financial prosperity of the country reasonably led to the expectation of large contributions for mission work, but there has been disappointment. The experience of this Board has been the experience of others. So far as this is because of the many appeals for special objects, it is to be regretted that the work undertaken by the General Assembly should be allowed to suffer. So far as it may be due to the absorption of the resources of the people by the great industrial, commercial and financial schemes of the past year, it is to be lamented. The General Assembly is asked to take measures to awaken the people to a sense of the obligations and privileges of the kingdom of God at the present time.

THE PERMANENT FUNDS.

The applications for parsonage loans having been all referred to the Women's Missionary Board, the payments received have reduced the amount of the parsonage loans to $7,463.69. The loans to congregations for churches have been reduced to $22,792.50. The loans from these funds thus paid in have been added temporarily to the permanent reserve fund, which now aggregates $111,894.96, including $16,700 subject to annuity. The total of all the permanent funds, including the memorial funds, is $142,121.15. The loans from these funds are made on first mortgage security. Each mortgage is carefully examined by a competent attorney before it is accepted.

A detailed statement of these funds accompanies this report.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, the "accounts, securities and investments" of the Board have been audited by an "expert accountant," well known in the city for his care, accuracy and thoroughness, who is not a member of the Board, and who has conducted the audit for several years. His certificate is attached to the treasurer's report.

The year has been one of very great anxiety concerning the work committed to the Board. From every quarter there is pressure for aid. The Board has made the appropriations according to the best light at command. The blessing of God has rested upon the missions, and the Assembly is asked to render special thanks for the divine favor. The year in which we are now entering gives promise of great missionary activity. In every part of the country, especially in the manufacturing districts, the population is increasing with remarkable rapidity. Towns of many thousand inhabitants are springing into existence. The Church must be awake to the demands of God's providence, and, in faithfulness to its great commission, endeavor to give to these the gospel of Christ and the ordinances of his grace. To do this very liberal appropriations will be required. The Board respectfully asks the General Assembly to give a prayerful consideration to the present conditions and to encourage and stimulate the people to seek a more intense spiritual life, and to make larger contributions for the work of the Lord.

The appropriation to the Board of Church Extension should be not less than last year, $55,000.

The term of office of M. M. Patterson, William H. Jamison, and E. W. Hill, expires this year.

The Board again acknowledges with gratitude the valuable services of the superintendents of missions and financial agents, and its obligations to William F. Robb, Esq., and F. L. Stephenson, Esq., as notaries.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Board,

M. M. PATTERSON, President.
C. F. DEAN, Secretary.
A. G. WALLACE, Cor. Sec.

Pittsburg, May 7, 1901.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

In submitting this our annual report to the General Assembly it becomes our sad duty to report the death of the Rev. Samuel H. Graham, a beloved brother, and for many years a faithful and efficient member of this Board, and its recording secretary.

OUR PUBLICATIONS.

Among these we mention a special edition of Songs of the Ages for The Midland; also two editions of Bible Songs; an edition of No. 501 Psalm Books, and Psalms for Bible use. A large edition of the Psalter has been published to supply those who by subscription have guaranteed its issue. A new and enlarged edition of Bible Songs has been prepared and is now in the hands of the printers. It will be ready by June 15. The first volume of "Junior Normal Lessons," ordered by the Assembly of 1900, has been prepared as directed. It has not met with the success that was expected. We have not undertaken the publication of any new books, as no manuscripts were offered, the publication of which, it was believed, would command such a sale as would justify the Board in their issue.

It is the purpose of the Board to engage more extensively than heretofore in the publication of small books and tracts of a denominational character, to be distributed, for the most part, gratuitiously.

The General Assembly of 1900 adopted this: "Resolved, that the Board of Publication be instructed by this Assembly to prepare a concise but comprehensive summary of the authoritative standards of the Church and submit its work to the General Assembly of 1901 for approval." A competent committee, appointed soon after the adjournment of the Assembly, has undertaken the work and finds it one of considerable magnitude, and is only able to report progress. The work cannot be completed until the meeting of Assembly of next year.

The following resolution was offered by the financial committee of the Assembly and adopted: "1. That the matter of preparing a suitable book for the use of financial agents in keeping their accounts be referred to the Board of Publication, with instructions to prepare such a book if the way be clear, and furnish a copy to each financial agent." This work is in the hands of a competent committee which is not yet able to report to the Board the completion of its work.

GRANTS.

The grants of the Board to mission churches and Sabbath schools have been as large as the means at our disposal would permit. We are glad to be able to say that no newly organized church or Sabbath school applying for help which was really needed has failed to receive a reasonable proportion of the aid asked.

Grants to the number of 136 have been made, principally to mission stations and Sabbath schools. Our donations in Psalm books, Bible Songs, periodicals and Bibles for eleven months, or up to March 31st, when our books close, amounted to $1,628.50, which is about $328 more than the amount at our disposal for the purpose. A complete list of donations made by the Board for eleven months, beginning with May 1, accompanies this report.

OUR SABBATH SCHOOL WORK.

We are gratified to be able to report an increased interest in Sabbath schools throughout the Church. The action of the General Assembly of 1900 was favorable and encouraging to the Board. It gave it an appropriation of $500. Of this amount $479.33 has been received to the date of this report.

ACTION OF THE SYNODS.

First Synod of the West.—"Synod notes with pleasure the work this Board is doing in the publication of Sabbath school literature; the energy with which it is pushing the Sabbath school work; and the liberal donations made from time to time of Bibles, Psalters, Bible Songs and Sabbath school literature to mission stations, and needy fields."

"The Board and its publications are most cordially commended to the patronage of our people."

Synod of Nebraska.—"4. That pastors and sessions using their best judgment as to time and place, press the mission Sabbath school as an excellent help in entering and holding the open doors for the gospel."

Synod of Iowa.—"4. That we ask special attention to the action of the General Assembly urging upon presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents a thorough canvass of their respective presbyteries with a view to establishing new mission schools under the supervision of their sessions."

The Synod of California.—We understand that this synod will present to the General Assembly a memorial asking it to appoint two missionary evangelists to labor under the direction of the Board of Publication.

Other synods have spoken in commendation of the work of the Board.

We respectfully ask the General Assembly to renew the action of the last Assembly concerning Sabbath school superintendents. It is as follows: "9. Responding to the suggestion of the Board of Publication, concerning a 'Twentieth Century Movement,' we urge upon the presbyterial Sabbath school superintendents a thorough canvass of their respective presbyteries with a view to the establishing of new mission schools under supervision of the session."

"10. Acting on a further suggestion of the Board of Publication we direct all presbyteries to require an annual report of their Sabbath school superintendents and that the Sabbath school superintendents be required to report all scholars which fail to report to them: and also that such schools be required on the floor of presbytery to give a reason for such failure."

We suggest further that it would be gratifying to the Board if the General Assembly would designate a part of the contributions of the Sabbath schools to the Board's Sabbath school work, and thus enable it to increase its grants to Mission churches and Mission Sabbath schools.

SABBATH SCHOOL STATISTICS.

Presbyterial Conventions.—Twenty-eight presbyteries report having held either conventions or conferences. These were all spoken of as profitable. Some recommend taking part in local union conventions. We earnestly urge every P. S. S. S. to press the importance of conventions or conferences upon the schools under his care.

Catechisms.—Seven hundred and six schools report that in them the Catechism is taught.

Home Department.—There are reported 5,407 scholars; yet this does not represent the total enrollment, as many schools report such a class without giving the number of scholars. We again call the attention of the Assembly to the vital importance of this department.

Mission Schools.—The reported number is 78, one more than a year ago. While many such schools have been organized during the year, almost an equal number have been dissolved. In many of our presbyteries there are fruitful fields for this kind of Christian work.

On the above statistics, and in the interest of the work in general, our Sabbath School Committee makes the following comments and suggestions, which we recommend to your careful consideration, viz.:

Presbyterial Sabbath School Superintendents.—With few exceptions they manifest a deep interest, and make a persevering effort to secure reports from all their schools.

Pastors.—There are 740 that are in attendance at the Sabbath school, a slight decrease from the previous year.

Elders.—Of the 3,776 reported, 2,995 attend our schools.

Enrollment.—The total reported enrollment is 121,755, or 3,192 more than one year ago. An increase is found in 39 presbyteries.

Average Attendance.—The reported number is 74,912. Proportionately there has been an increase in each of the last three years.

Contributions.—For many years there has been a gradual increase. This year, however, the proportionate increase is larger than formerly. The sum is $112,041, or $11,431 more than ever before. Of this amount $39,115 have been contributed to the Boards of the Church.

Scholars Confessing Christ.—The reported number is 3,941, or 514 more than last year. These figures, however, do not represent the entire number, as 236 schools have either reported no accessions or left this column blank.

RECOMMENDATION.

We recommend the third Sabbath of October as a day of special prayer for Sabbath schools; the second Sabbath in June as "Missionary and Children's Day"; and the fourth Sabbath in November as "Temperance Day."

The report of the business department of the Board for 1900 and 1901 is for eleven months only. The short time given in previous years in preparing the report was unsatisfactory and this year it was decided to close the books with the last of March instead of the last of April. This accounts for the small amount of money reported as having been received from the presbyteries. The treasurer's report will show the full amount of money received from this source up until the end of April as usual. Quite an amount has been received since our books were closed.

The building is profitably rented, every room, as for the past two years, being occupied, and we anticipate making some improvements which will reduce our expenses and we hope will increase our income.

The terms of the following members expire this year, viz.: Rev. D. S. Littell, D.D., Rev. J. A. Douthett, D.D., Jno. D. Fraser, S B. Donaldson, W. D. McGill, Rev. G. E. Hawes who was elected in place of Rev. S. H. Graham, deceased; also the term of Rev. J. C. Boyd, D.D., Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

It is with gratitude and thanksgiving to God that the Board of Education closes the work of the year. The educational institutions of the Church have been prospered, the work in these institutions has been successfully prosecuted, and the aggregate of students is about fifteen more than during the preceding year. The young men to whom appropriations of money have been made are reported as making commendable progress in their studies. The contributions of the Church, while falling much below the recommendations of the General Assembly, show that the presbyteries and synods are giving attention to this department of Christian work. A summary of the work for the year is herewith submitted:

I. Beneficiaries.

Fifty-two students received aid upon the recommendation of presbyteries. Forty of the students attended the seminary at Allegheny, Pa., and ten, the seminary at Xenia, Ohio. Two are literary students; one a member of the senior class of Cooper Memorial College, and one a member of the present senior class at Westminster.

Thirty-four students received $125 each; eight, $100 each; one, $80, and nine, $50 each. The total payment to students amounted to $5,580, or $813 more than the preceding year.

The following presbyteries have been represented: Allegheny, Monongahela, Muskingum, and Wheeling, four students each; College Springs, Garnett, Monmouth and Steubenville, three students each; Beaver Valley, Chartiers, Frankfort, Pawnee and Xenia, two students each; Albany, Argyle, Arkansas Valley, Butler, Chillicothe, Cleveland, Conemaugh, Kansas City, Kiskiminetas, Mansfield, Princeton, Rock Island, Tennessee and Westmoreland, one student each.

Twenty-seven of the young men receiving aid are graduates of our own colleges; twenty-two graduated from colleges of other denominations, or from non-denominational schools; and three are undergraduates.

Revs. P. C. Baird, J. W. Innis and J. B. Lee, who have entered the ministry of other denominations, have returned in part, or in full, the money received from the board; and Rev. R. S. Young has arranged for payment in the near future. Rev. J. P. Nesbit of our own Church, has returned the money received while in preparation for the ministry, and the amount has passed into the beneficiary found for the assistance of other young men.

II. Seminaries, Colleges and Academies.

The number of students in attendance at the theeological seminaries is 93, the same number as reported last year. The statements of the five colleges show an actual attendance in all departments of 1,317. There are 194 students in the two academies.

The Presbytery of Southern Illinois recommended an apportion of $300 from the College and Seminary Fund, for Stuttgart College, Arkansas. The General Assembly has heretofore designated the schools which are to receive appropriations, and the Board has not felt at liberty to add to the list of these beneficiary institutions. The Board refers the matter to the General Assembly for action.

The rule adopted by the General Assembly for the distribution of the College and Seminary Fund gives the institutions the following amounts:

Allegheny Seminary	$ 1,958 78
Xenia Seminary	874 55
Cooper Memorial College	766 80
Monmouth College	1,505 60
Muskingum College	1,156 70
Tarkio College	930 97
Westminster College	1,806 60
Pawnee City Academy	500 00
Waitsburg Academy	500 00

The several institutions have prepared the statements herewith submitted for the consideration of the Assembly.

Seminaries.

Allegheny, Pa. There are four professors. Seventy-four students have been in attendance during the session. The senior class numbers 21; the middle class, 30; the junior class, 20, and there are three irregulars. The present endowment is $245,000, and the property is valued at $150,000.

The year has been a good one in every respect. The young men have been studious and faithful. An especially good course of lectures in our special lecture course was given on "Modern Sabbath School Methods and Work." The blessing of God has been on the Board of Directors in its efforts to equip the seminary with a good building and all modern appliances. The new building is a model of convenience; its dormitories are unsurpassed; the gymnasium gives opportunity for needed exercise; the Law library fund is enabling us, in some measure, to keep our library abreast of the times; the reading room is provided with the best magazines and papers.

The effort of those in authority is to make this seminary second to none in its equipment and teaching force. This end will be constantly striven after, but there is still much to be done. There is a debt remaining on the new building. A seminary with only four professors cannot be said to be fully manned. There is urgent need of at least one more professor. A modern building has brought increased expense, so that but for the timely aid from the Board of Education our expenses would exceed our income, and this too with the most careful looking after the outlay. Another $100,000 added to our endowment would still leave us far short of that possessed by any first-class seminary undertaking the work committed to us. Such an addition to our endowment would mean much for our seminary. It would enable us at once to increase the faculty, and to enlarge in many ways. We have confidence to believe that this additional endowment will come in due time; for we are persuaded that the United Presbyterian Church will not be satisfied without having her seminaries adequately equipped for giving the best classical theological education.

Xenia, Ohio.—The faculty consists of four professors. During the year nineteen students have been in attendance. The classification is as follows: Seniors, seven; middle class, four; juniors, eight. The present endowment amounts to $150,000. Since the last report there has been an increase of $15,000, to the permanent endowment. The property is valued at $10,000.

The session of 1900-1901 has been in many respects very good, exceptionally good for pleasantness and for the diligence and progress of the students. The average grade in recitations was higher than it has ever been.

Colleges.

Cooper Memorial College.—There are ten professors. The actual attendance of students is 169. They are classified as follows: Collegiate department, 39; preparatory, 65; other departments, 65. The present senior class numbers eight; one of the number expects to enter the ministry. Seventy per cent. of the students are church members; the interest in the Christian work of the college is good. The Prayer Guild is the organization for Christian work.

The invested endowment amounts to $25,000, and the property is valued at $28.000. The college needs more money in order to do her work as it ought to be done. The competition with other institutions is close. The State institutions offer free tuition. They can offord large libraries and extensive apparatus. Many of the denominational institutions are obtaining large endowments. Cooper Memorial has a good field, and a bright future before her, if she can get the means needed to do her work. God can give her the money needed, and in his own time he will do it. By fourteen years of faithful, successful work, the college has gained a right to a warm place in the hearts of the Church.

Knoxville College.—The faculty consists of 14 professors, and there are 299 students. Twenty-two are in the regular collegiate classes, 81 in the preparatory, and 196 in other departments. Ninety-seven per cent. are members of the Church. The Christian organizations are the Y. P. C. U. and Y. M. C. A., and there is good interest taken by the students in Christian work. The property is valued at $110,000.

The year's work has been very satisfactory. The attendance has been good and an excellent spirit has pervaded the atmosphere. The teaching force, including matrons and foremen, numbers twenty-five. One new department has been opened up very successfully this year, a domestic science department. In this department students are taught cooking, including the chemistry of foods, and all that pertains to the proper management of the kitchen. The health of the teachers and students has been good. Professor W. G. Purdy has been away on a leave of absence during the year, on account of his health, but is greatly improved and will take up his work next year. The industrial feature of our work has been given more prominence than heretofore, and is proving a most important feature. The students are taught the trades of farming, carpentering, printing, sewing and cooking. They are not only thus enabled to learn useful trades for life, but are in these departments able to earn a part of their expense through school. The medical department of the college has been discontinued as there was no provision made for its proper equipment, and for evident reasons a medical department ought not to be so closely connected with the collegiate department. At the very best only second rate work could be done with the arrangement and equipment, and the standard of the college is that only first-class work can be tolerated. The graduates of the collegiate department number six, the normal department the same number. Knoxville College has celebrated her quarter centennial since the Assembly. It has been a quarter of a century of great achievement for the Lord. Her graduates and students are scattered all over the south land, and wherever they go carry the spirit of consecration and desire to be helpful to their communities.

The college needs very badly larger equipment in her industrial departments, and above all a liberal endowment. An option has been secured on a tract of thirty acres of land adjoining the college property, which must be secured if the industrial departments are developed as they ought. The land can be bought for $7,500. This is a very reasonable figure for it, as it is just outside the corporation limits of the city. We appeal to the Church to provide this much needed addition to our college property at once. The college ought to be endowed to relieve the Freedmen's Board of its burden, and thus enable them to place the offerings to the Board in other places from which the call is coming so urgently.

Monmouth College.—Professors and instructors, 18; students, 303. There are in the collegiate classes 147; preparatory, 102; other departments, 83. There are 30 in the present senior class. Of the 15 young men who graduate, nine expect to enter the ministry. Ninety-five per cent. of the students are members of the Church. The organizations for Christian work are the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. The report of the faculty states that the interest in Christian work among the students is only fair. The permanent envested endowment is $165,464.65, and the property is valued at $88.298.85. .

Monmouth College needs a library building, a scientific building and a larger endowment. A working library is as necessary to a college as a chest of tools is to a carpenter. Monmouth College has done noble work with very poor equipment, but that is the very reason why she should be well equipped. Working tools in the shape of a first-class library in a good library building is her most crying need to-day. Her prospects are bright, provided her support can be made strong. The small college well equipped, and doing first-class work under strong Christian influence, need have no fear of competition. Her future is secure. Many small colleges are doomed to go to the wall in the next quarter of a century unless their support is very greatly increased. In this respect Monmouth College is on the up grade. She will make heroic efforts to reach the top. With her strong faculty, her noble spirit and purpose, she ought to succeed and she will succeed. She claims the generous support of the Church because she is the child of the Church, and still more because she is at the same time the stay and strength of the Church. If our colleges cease graduating ministers and missionaries, what of the Church of the future? Monmouth College claims the support of God's people, because she is enlarging and strengthening the lives of God's children.

Muskingum College.—The number of professors and instructors is 13. The number of students in actual attendance during the year is 213, and the classification is, preparatory department, 85; collegiate, 96; other departments, 80. There are 21 in the present senior class, 13 males, 8 females. Of the young men, five to eight will enter the ministry. The per cent. of church members is 92. Very good interest is taken by the students in the Christian work of the college. The organizations are the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. and Missionary Society. The present endowment amounts to $37,000, and $500 have been added during the year. The property is valued at $33,000.

This has been a prosperous year. While the whole number of students in the preparatory and college classes for the year is but nineteen larger than last year, yet the attendance each session has been much larger. This is because the percentage attending but a small part of the year was much smaller, nearly all being students throughout the entire year—a fact which promises well for solid growth in attendance. The percentage of students pursuing partial courses is decreasing, and many more are, from the start, looking toward degrees.

Including those who are now in the theological seminaries, and the seniors who expect to enter the ministry, Muskingum has, in the last ten years, furnished 55 to 58 to the ministry—45 of them in our own Church. This is over half the male graduates during these years. Sixteen are now in the seminaries, and five to eight will enter next fall. These figures indicate that the work is still so shaped as to contribute directly, and as largely as possible, to the Church's working force.

The location of the college in southeastern Ohio, with but one other college—lately started—within a radius of fifty miles, is important in determining what should be the Church's attitude toward her. The section served is one in which our Church is strong. The needs of the college, that she may worthily represent our Church in this favorable field, are of course numerous and varied; but it is agreed by trustees, synod, alumni, and faculty that a generous increase of endowment is the pressing want of the present. Rev. David Livingston, Station A, Route 2, Columbus, Ohio, is the college's representative with the people.

Tarkio College.—Professors, 13; instructors employed full time, 3; students in preparatory department, 123; students in collegiate department, 63; students in commercial department, 78; students in musical department, 248; students in art department, 33; total 545. Repetitions in above lists, 207; net total, 338. Men in senior class, 5; women in senior class, 9; total 14. Number in senior class, who expect to enter the ministry, not known. Organizations for Christian work, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. The students have been active in Christian work in conection with the special meetings held during the fall and winter. One hundred per cent. of the senior, junior and sophomore classes; 95.3 per cent. of the collegiate department; 94.3 per cent. of the preparatory department; 73 per cent. of the commercial department are professing Christians. Ninety-one per cent. of the three departments mentioned above are professed Christians. It is not practicable to secure statistics for the musical department. The endowment of the college is $60,000. There has been no increase during the year. The value of the college property is $85,000.

The college always needs more and yet more of the Spirit of God. This is its supreme need. Its managers should have more faith in God. An enlarged faith would bring enlarged means. Under God our greatest need is for increased endowment. There is a wide field in this former slave state for the increase of students, and the enlargement of the work of the United Presbyterian Church. It can only be fully occupied through the college. The college cannot occupy it without an increase of endowment and of buildings. So-far as the prospect for this is concerned, we walk by faith, not by sight. The college is proving a potent influence in the aggressive work of the Church. Its graduates who enter the ministry are willing to go into difficult fields. Many are working in the foreign field, and more are looking that way for their future work. Its alumni who go into other professions, business or into the home are, for the most part, useful in the Church and in society. Very many who do not graduate make better Christians and better citizens for their brief stay in college. The men and women for whom it is responsible are the best claim which the college can make on the Church and on Christian people.

Westminster College.—There are 12 professors in the faculty. The number of students in attendance during the year is 294. Fifty-two are in the preparatory, 191 in the collegiate, and 49 in other departments. The present senior class numbers 45. It is thought that eight of the young men will enter the ministry. The Christian organizations of the college are Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. More than usual interest has been taken in Bible study.

The effort to endow the college more liberally is now fairly started by the joint committee of the synods. The committee, while feeling deeply the great loss occasioned by the death of its interested and efficient chairman, Rev. Dr. Robinson, went on with its work without interruption. The outlook promises abundant labors and good results. An encouraging beginning has been made, and we are hopeful that the friends of the college will rally to her help and the year 1902, which rounds out her fifty years, may find her upon a satisfactory financial basis by the completion of the proposed new endowment of $200,000.

ACADEMIES.

Pawnee City, Nebraska.—The present faculty consists of Rev. R. T. Campbell, principal; Antoinette E. Latson, Laura Strong Shelden, Helen Gertrue Ogden and Frank E. Young. The enrollment of the year is 111. The classification is as follows: Seniors, 8; juniors, 11; sophomores, 5; freshmen, 12; irregulars, 29; commercial, 13; music, 33. This is an increase of four over the enrollment of last year, and an increase of seven in the literary department. The property is valued at $25,000, and is vested in a board of ten trustees. The property is secured to the United Presbyterian Church, as required by the Assembly. The subscriptions secured throughout the Synod of Nebraska are slowly being paid in, and, if carefully handled, will pay off the indebtedness of $8,500, which has rested on the building ever since its erection. The board of trustees earnestly ask that the academy be recommended to the General Assembly for the usual annual appropriation of $500 from the College and Seminary fund.

Waitsburg, Washington.—The Waitsburg Academy is under the control of the Synod of the Columbia. The faculty consists of Rev. J. A. Keener, principal; Robert M. Horner, Miss Elma R. Lorimer, Mrs. Vinnie Purrington, and Mrs. Vinnie Abbott, professors. Eighty-three students have been in attendance during the year—43 males, and 40 females. The classification is, academic, 50; music, 33. There are six in the graduating class. The academy has been in operation fifteen years. The present valuation of property is $20,000, with an invested endowment of $4,000.

The needs of the school are briefly stated. It needs, first, more endowment, as the present small endowment is entirely insufficient, thus forbidding enlargement of the course of study, as well as the employment of a sufficient number of teachers. It needs in the second place a dormitory, or dormitories. Being without anything in the shape of accommodation for students from a distance, it must necessarily be limited in the matter of attendance to local students. Wise parents do not, as a rule, send their children to a school where dormitory accommodations are not to be had, as such a course would leave their children at the mercy of the different circumstances of the community in which the school is located. Under such circumstances there is usually but little shelter for young minds and hearts. The school has an excellent standing in the community and throughout the State, and with a larger endowment and dormitory buildings, would rapidly increase in numbers and influence. Our hope is that the future will abundantly supply the needs of the Waitsburg Academy. An appropriation of $500 from the College and Seminary fund is asked for the ensuing year.

III. Finance.

The annual statement of the treasurer, properly audited, is submitted to the Assembly. Each presbytery in the home Church has made a contribution to the educational fund. The aggregate amount received from presbyteries is $607.70 more than was received from the same source during the preceding year. The General Assembly of 1900 appropriated 29 cents per member for educational purposes, 7 cents for the regular work, and 22 cents for the College and Seminary fund. The contributions received from the several presbyteries may be classified as follows: One presbytery gave less than one cent per member; two, less than two cents; six, less than three cents; three, less than four cents; three, less than five cents; six, less than six cents; six, less than seven cents; four, less than eight cents; two, less than nine cents; four, less than ten cents; three, less than eleven cents; two, less than twelve cents; three, less than thirteen cents; four, less than fourteen cents; two, less than sixteen cents; two, less than seventeen cents; one, less than eighteen cents; four, less than nineteen cents; two, less than twenty cents; one, less than twenty-three cents; and one—Cedar Rapids—twenty-nine cents.

The Synod of New York gave $1,648.80, 10 cents per member; the Synod of Pittsburgh gave $3,210.30, 13 cents per member; the First Synod gave $2,293.81, 13 cents per member; the Synod of Ohio gave $1,036.70, 10 cents per member; the Second Synod gave $719.70, 8 cents per member; the Synod of Illinois gave $970.32, 10 cents per member; the Synod of Iowa gave $1,318.67, 14 cents per member; the Synod of Kansas gave $335.26, 8 cents per member; the Synod of Nebraska gave $335.14, 9 cents per member; the Synod of California gave $147.79, 9 cents per member; the Synod of Columbia gave $129.91, 9 cents per member.

The Board has made full payment of appropriations to students, but it was found when closing the report that there was an overdraft on this fund of $469.34. Since balancing the accounts for the year a part of this money has been refunded, and the whole amount will be paid in the near future. Special mention should be made of the help received from the Young People's Tenth Anniversary Offering, from the Women's General Missionary Society, from former beneficiaries who have returned the money received that it may be used for the assistance of others; and for the thoughtfulness of those who by donation and legacy have added materially to the permanent funds of the Board.

IV. THE BOARD.

The Board asks for an appropriation of $33,000 for the coming year—$8,000 for the regular work, and $25,000 for the College and Seminary fund.

The term of office of Revs. Russell Graham, D.D., W. C.. Williamson, D.D., and J. F. Jamieson expires with this meeting of the Assembly.

By order of the Board,

T. H. HANNA, President.
W. T. CAMPBELL, Cor. Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

In presenting the annual report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, we again have great cause for thankfulness for the continued evidences of the oversight and guidance of the Head of the Church in our operations and plans for the relief of those who come under our care. There has been some improvement in the contributions received from presbyteries, and yet we have again to record that the amount received has fallen far short of the appropriation by the General Assembly. The amount appropriated by the last Assembly was $8,000, the receipts from presbyteries have been $5,082.83. We are glad to report that the income of the Board from other sources, such as legacies, individual contributions and interest on endowment fund, has been so large that there has been no delay in promptly meeting all the claims of the beneficiaries of the Board. This encouraging condition of our affairs has suggested the propriety of enlarging the plans of the Board and increasing the amount of relief granted to those in need. We herewith submit for the consideration and judgment of the Assembly, the changes which we have thought it would be well to make:

First, That the maximum annuity paid to beneficiaries be increased from $200 to $250.

Second, That any honorably retired minister who has reached the age of seventy years and who has been engaged in the service of the United Presbyterian Church, as a missionary of the Foreign, Home or Freedmen's Board, or as a pastor or stated supply, for a period aggregating not less than thirty years, shall be entitled, by such service, to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support without annual recommendation for the same from his presbytery. When such a minister shall certify to the presbytery the fact and amount of his need, together with his statement as to the years of service rendered to the Church, his field or fields of labor, with the term of service in each, it shall be the duty of the stated clerk of the presbytery to forward the application to the Board with his endorsement. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such applicant an annuity not exceeding $250 during the remainder of his life unless, because of some change in his circumstances, the presbytery or the applicant himself shall otherwise direct.

Third, That a standing committee, to be known as the Ministerial Relief Committee, shall be appointed by each presbytery. It shall be the duty of this committee to examine carefully every application for aid, and to report to the presbytery the result of such investigation, and also to endeavor to increase the interest of the congregations in the work of the Board.

We believe that, if this plan shall meet with the approval of the Assembly, the Board of Ministerial Relief will have a stronger claim than heretofore upon the sympathy and support of the Church. Our work will be enlarged in undertaking to provide more liberally for those already under our care, and also in including those who have not before been eligible to relief from our funds. The adoption of this plan would greatly increase the annual liabilities of the Board, but we hope and believe that the interest and zeal of our entire Church would be so increased and intensified that the propriety and success of the changes would be promptly manifest. We ask the earnest and prayerful consideration of the Assembly to the whole subject.

The endowment fund is now $116,090, an increase of $9,890 mainly from a legacy of 40 shares of Westinghouse Air Brake stock, valued at this time at $7,440. As mortgages are paid off and re-investments have to be made, it is found necessary in almost all cases to change the rate of interest from six to five per cent.

There are now 66 beneficiaries on the roll: 22 ministers, 41 widows, 3 single persons. Three died during the year and one new name was added:

In view of the prospective enlargement of the field of labor of the Board and the increased payment to beneficiaries, an appropriation of $10,000 is asked for the coming year.

The term of office of James McCartney, James S. McCracken and James D. Ferguson expires at this time.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S BOARD.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

In reviewing the work of this department, there is much to encourage from conditions both at home and abroad. Especially cheering reports have been received concerning what has been accomplished by our faithful missionary women, native teachers and zenana workers. The one regret is that a large part of the new work planned for last year did not materialize. Only two new missionaries were added to the force of missionary women (credit, however, should be given to three applicants who proved ineligible), and not even the foundations of the Tanta Hospital have as yet been laid, because of oriental fickleness.

Financially, the past year has been the most prosperous one of all in the history of this department, the contributions amounting to $37,479.30; disbursements, $31,707.21.

Precisely the same appeals as last year have come to our Women's Board for more missionary women, viz., four for each field. Just here we desire to ask the question, Are there no more physically strong, capable, well educated, consecrated young women in our beloved Church who are willing to devote themselves to the Master's service in our foreign fields? Will the fathers and brothers in this General Assembly please take the question home with them, otherwise it may be necessary to report next year that strangers are entering our mission fields and gathering the ripening harvests that we are unable to touch.

Work for the present year is the support of all work in hand, viz., the salaries of the thirty-nine missionary women, medical work, the girls' boarding school at Sialkot, some native helpers and Bible women, and a new boarding school for girls in Upper Egypt, at an estimated cost of about $800 for the first year, in a rented building. This new work is undertaken at the earnest request of the Egyptian Mission Association. The total cost of all this work amounts to something over $40,000. We believe the women of our Church will provide every dollar needed to carry on this most important work. Experience has proven that it is much easier to put money in our treasury than to put missionary women in the foreign fields, but both are needed.

HOME MISSION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Lord seems to have called our Board into special work for foreigners during the past year. Four ordained ministers, one evangelist and five women have carried the banner of the cross into eight different states. Rev. J. A. Speer and Rev. J. A. Morrow have continued in labors for the Indians, although both of these brethren have sent in their resignations, to take effect about September 1st. We are anxiously praying the Father to send us the right men as their successors. Rev. Thomas M. Chalmers continues in charge of Messiah Mission in Chicago; Rev. R. G. Edgar in charge of Italian Mission in Pittsburg, with Mr. Antoszeswski as a traveling evangelist through Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, carrying the Word printed in the Polish and other Slavic languages to these peoples. Miss Carothers, in Spokane; Miss Beaton, in Colfax; Miss Morrow, in Seattle; Miss Wishart, in Pittsburgh, and Miss Marlin, in Bloomington, Ind., have all rendered good and faithful service as city missionaries in mission stations. Several applications for similar workers have received favorable consideration.

Amount expended for Home work	14,271 90

FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT.

The year just closed has been the most prosperous since we, as women, have been doing mission work systematically.

Twenty industrial teachers and matrons have been supported, the expenses of the various industrial departments have been met, and extensive repairs on the farm and buildings owned by the Women's General Missionary Society, at the various missionary stations, have been made. A teachers' home was erected at Prairie at an outlay of $1,400.

A department for teaching domestic science was opened at Knoxville College; cooking is taught at Norfolk, Va., Henderson, N. C., and Millers Ferry, Alabama, additional this year.

The farm is now managed in a very satisfactory manner by Mr. N. B. Cotton, formerly of Knoxville College. Fine crops were gathered this year, consisting of corn and oats, and cotton, largely. Thirty-four bales of cotton were produced on the shares. There are those who rent for the half share of crop and those who prefer a money rent. A flourishing sewing department is supported at each of nine stations.

CHURCH EXTENSION AND PARSONAGE WORK.

We present the report of this department with gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His continued blessing.

That our parsonage work is growing has been evidenced this year in the large number of requests for application blanks, and in the increased number of applications for loans that have been returned to the Board. The latter number twelve. Eleven were granted aggregating $15,400. Later, it was found two of these grants amounting to $3,400 would not be called for owing to inability of the congregations to give proper security. One application was not granted because the Board felt it did not belong to the class of congregations that should receive aid from this fund, and was referred to Finance Committee at a higher rate of interest.

Receipts for the year, ending April 5, 1901, were $8,756.94. Missionary societies (Women's and Junior's) contributed $934.95. Received from repayments of loans, $6,791.99. From Thank-offering, $1,030. Total disbursements, $7,065.

We would urge, in the distribution of money by societies, that this department be not overlooked. There has been improvement in the matter of giving to this work, more societies contribute to it each year than formerly. But, if we would judge from the statistical reports a large number still overlook it.

The nine grants of the past year are as follows: New Haven, Mich., $500; Reinbeck. Iowa, $1,400; Clarion, Iowa, $1,000; Orchard, Neb., $400; Seattle, Wash., $2,500; Oak Harbor, Wash., $500; Superior, Neb., $1,500; Northfield, Ohio, $600; St. Joseph, Mo., $3,600.

JUNIOR MISSIONARY WORK.

The work of the year in this department has been exceedingly gratifying, showing earnest, persistent effort on the part of those in charge of the societies. We are enabled to report statistics more nearly correct than for any previous year. Out of the 60 or more presbyteries only 45 report Junior Missionary societies, showing the need of more work.

Number of members last year	5,428
Present membership, not including young women	6,537
An increase of	1,109
Number of societies	219
Number of new societies	20

The contributions show the largest amount ever reported, $5,249, an increase over last year of $1,210. The special work assigned the Juniors of the Church was the support of 40 girls in the Girls' Boarding School, Sialkote, India, at a cost of $1,000. The Junior Missionary societies have paid, up to date, the liberal sum of $1,465.60, or $465 more than asked for from all the Junior Societies of the Church; $217.70 has been received from the J. C. E's and J. C. U's, making a total of $1,683.30.

The Board has felt for some time that it has not had the hearty support of the ministers of the Church in this department of its work, but the splendid success of these societies during the past year as indicated in the above report justifies us in asking that the pastors will give due consideration to this plan of Junior organization, and that we may have your hearty co-operation and earnest prayers in our effort to train the children and youth of the Church for the Master's service.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT.

REPORT OF LEAFLET SECRETARY.

There has not been the advance in this department as in former years, owing, no doubt, to the delay in publishing a new catalogue. The leaflets have been carefully selected and we recommend their more general use. A Prayer Calendar, ordered by the W. G. M. S., has been issued and sent broadcast over the Church at great expense, but we believe large returns will be the result in answer to the prayers that may be made because of the suggestions of the Calendar. Seven thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight leaflets have been sold, besides many helps for Senior and Junior societies. Three thousand four hundred and fifty-nine leaflets have been distributed free.

REPORT OF MAGAZINE COMMITTEE.

The publication of the Junior's Missionary Magazine has proved an effort in the right direction and has been blessed in carrying missionary information to the boys and girls in the Sabbath schools and Junior societies. Subscribers generally express appreciation of its helpfulness, and the regret is that so small a proportion of the children of our Church are reading it. About 15,000 members are reported in the Junior societies, while our subscription list is but 5,717. At the small subscription price of 15 cents per single copy or 10 cents when sent to one address in clubs of ten or more, there is no reason why this little messenger of the coming of kingdom should not be in the hands of every child in the Church. May we not ask and expect the co-operation of every pastor and elder in securing the interest of parents and Junior workers in the more general circulation of our little Magazine? As stated last year the work was begun without any pledged support except a subscription list of 2,000 names, and as the list increased month by month we have been enabled to meet all expenses and close both years with a balance in the treasury, a fact declared to be impossible by friends who had some experience in publishing. We are therefore pleased to append the following financial report in the hope that it may commend itself to all, and be rewarded with a subscription list of not less than 10,000 names, and so make it possible to enlarge our borders:

Received for subscriptions	$551 41
Disbursed	684 70

THANK-OFFERING DEPARTMENT.

The thank-offering work of the past twelve months has been characterized with more than usual zeal and energy in all parts of the Church. Some congregations have given their first thank-offering toward raising the special Twentieth Century offering for missions. In different parts of the Church societies report having doubled and trebled their offerings of last year, while almost one hundred women have given liberal gifts over and above the box offerings, to help meet the needs of the hour in the special mission work assigned to the care of the women of the Church by our General Assembly.

The love of the women of the Church for the cause of missions has been well tested during the past year, and the large thank-offering to be laid upon God's altar at the Monmouth convention (after the indebtedness to the Boards of the Church and the contributions to societies have been met) will reveal the result in dollars and cents. The full value of these offerings of gratitude to the giver, to the Church and to the cause of missions only heaven's arithmetic can compute.

During the year 13,587 Scripture Responsive Verses were sold. The free distribution of supplies is as follows:

48,500 Copies Thirteen Years' Review.
26,000 Copies Thank-offering Question Box Opened.
1,500 Leaflets on "Giving."
30,123 Thank-offering Envelopes.
50,700 Letters to Societies.
1,394 Regular Thank-offering Boxes.
48,075 Twentieth Century Boxes.
2,109 Junior Boxes.

XENIA BIBLE TRAINING SCHOOL.

We regret the Xenia Bible Training School has nothing to report, except the "open door," and lack of acceptance of the opportunity gratuitously offered to persons of our own and all other denominations for training in mission work; however, several ladies who may be called training school pupils have attended the seminary lectures; but the number did not reach "ten," the condition made by the Seminary Board to secure a regularly organized training school. That such an inestimable opportunity for instruction—instruction so vital to the increasingly important cause of missions at home and abroad, should find so few desiring to avail themselves of it, is, to us, both a disappointment and a surprise.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The special work of this committee is to receive and investigate all applications for donations and loans (except for parsonages), attend to the investment of all special funds, place all surplus monies on deposit, and collect all interest due.

Loans to needy home mission churches this year amounted to $21,469.13.

Loans are in every case made upon first bond and mortgage only, interest paid quarterly or semi-annually as congregation may prefer, with privilege of reducing loan at every interest-bearing period. Insurance policies on building must have clause inserted as follows:—i. e., "All loss, if any, to be first paid to Women's General Missionary Society, of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, as its interest may appear." Policies must also be sent to us for deposit, and must be renewed from time to time while the loan remains unpaid. It is, of course, unnecessary to add that all mortgages are made out in the charter name of the society.

All applications for such loans should be made through chairman of finance committee. We have through this feature of our work, been enabled to assist congregations in erecting church buildings at a time when it would have been impossible without some such aid.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY MAGAZINE.

The Women's Missionary Magazine, now in its fourteenth year, continues on its way with a satisfactory amount of success so far as man may judge. In the way of increased subscriptions, its growth has been encouraging, an addition of 340 having been made to its mailing list during the past year. Its circulation now is 5,365.

The Magazine is in excellent financial condition, being free from debt. It makes an effort to afford information to its readers chiefly about our own church work abroad and at home; and secondarily about the missionary efforts of other denominations. As it is expected to cover so wide a territory in its literature, the Magazine sometimes feels a load of responsibility. But it can only do its best, leaving results with the Lord of the harvest. It is intended, during the coming year, to follow the proposed interdenominational scheme for united missionary study.

REPORT OF STATISTICAL SECRETARY.

The close of another year brings the annual report of the Women's General Missionary Society. The reports from the presbyterial and congregational societies encourage us to believe that the Lord has been mindful of and blessed the work of the women of our Church. Report follows:

REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

With deep sorrow we report the death of two members of the society within the past year, namely, Rev. S. H. Graham and William Stevenson. These brethren were well known throughout the Church and highly esteemed as useful and godly men. We who were intimately associated with them for many years loved and honored them in life, and now put on record this expression of our pleasant and profitable association with them. We also hereby express our sincere sympathy with the families of these trusted friends and brethren beloved.

Our records have been placed in the ample vault of the Allegheny Seminary building. They have not as yet been completely arranged and catalogued, but it is our purpose to have this done as soon as may be possible.

We regret to say that but little has been accomplished since the organization of the society in the matter of collecting the records of the Church, owing to the fact that the society was composed of so many members that it was difficult to get them to come together to attend to the business of the society, and also because there seemed but little to do after what had been accomplished in former years.

We suggest to the Assembly that a committee or board, composed of a smaller number of members, would be a more efficient agency in the management of the work of the society than the present number.

It is with great satisfaction we report that the Cuthbertson Diary, which for a time, it was feared, was lost, is now in the possession of the Theological Seminary.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

NARRATIVE.

Your Committee wishes, first of all, to make recognition of the fact that since the last General Assembly met in the city of Chicago, the old century has closed and a new century has dawned. In making this first report of the new century we are glad to say that the Church is in a prosperous condition. During the past year the Church has enlarged her work along various lines, and in so doing has expanded her influence and increased her power. From every quarter, north, south, east and west, come good reports. And to-day the Church seems more devoted than ever to the great work of uplifting humanity.

Within the past year from the ranks of the ministry some faithful ones have fallen. The mortuary list contains the names of 10 of our beloved brethren, and it is as follows:

Name.	Born.	Died.	Age.
Robert Reed McClure	Oct. 4, 1870	April 27, 1900	30
A. S. Montgomery	June 10, 1822	June 20, 1900	78
Marion Morrison, D.D.	June 2, 1821	Aug. 22, 1900	79
R. J. Hammond	Jan. 21, 1820	Aug. 22, 1900	80
James A. Wiley	June 21, 1855	April 10, 1900	45
Samuel Jamison, D.D.	March 2, 1820	Oct. 29, 1900	80
S. H. Graham	April 25, 1834	Oct. 23, 1900	66
John Gaily	Feb. 1843	July 27, 1900	57
R. B. Ewing, D.D.	Jan. 27, 1827	Jan. 13, 1901	74
W. A. Black	1820	Jan. 24, 1901	81

Average Age 67

From statistics carefully compiled and systematically arranged by the Assembly's Second Clerk, some items of information have been gathered which seem worthy of some special notice. In the number of synods and presbyteries there has been no change. Last year two synods reported a decrease in membership. This year there are three in this list. This decrease seems to be caused chiefly by removals and cannot be considered as indicating any serious loss to the Church. All the other synods show gains, ranging from four-tenths of one per cent. in the synod of New York, to twelve and one-tenth per cent. in the synod of Columbia. The increase in the whole number of ministers during the year is 19. Last year the increase was 31. Last year there was a decrease of 26 in the number of licentiates. This year there was an increase of 12. Last year there were 320 ministers without charge. This year there are 303. Although there has been some improvement here, yet 303 ministers are far too many to be without charge in the United Presbyterian Church. Something should be done to remedy this great evil. Last year the number of congregations was 996. This year 11 congregations have been organized. Last year we had 821 pastoral charges. The present number is 837, a gain of 16.

Last year the membership in America was 115,901. The present membership is 116,934, a gain of 1,033. Last year the membership in the whole Church was 128,836. The present membership is 130,447, a gain of 1,611, or about one per cent. Last year the number of scholars in the Sabbath school was 116,091. This year the number is 120,032, a gain of 3,941. Last year the contributions to the Boards were $282,202, this year $343,411, an increase of $61,209. Last year the total contributions were $1,637,425, this year $1,751,291, an increase of $114,866. Last year the average per member in America was $14,06. This year it is $14.89, an increase of 83 cents. Last year the increase was 67 cents. Our Sabbath schools and also our young people's societies show great gains in membership and great improvement in benevolence.

State of Religion.

The best way, and the only way, to ascertain the state of religion, or the spirituality and power of the Church, is to learn how faithfully and how well the Church is accomplishing her divine mission. The Church is the pillar and ground of the truth; the preservation and the proclamation of the truth, therefore, are the mission of the Church. How faithfully the Church is fulfilling her mission may be learned in part from statistics, and in part from other sources of information.

Is the Church faithful to the trust committed to her? Let her record for the past year and the work she is still doing make answer. It is true that even inside the Church there is some questioning, doubting and disputing of Bible truth. But this is no new thing. In every age there has been in the Church a doubting Thomas. Other years have witnessed similar attacks on the Holy Book. But never before, perhaps, have these assaults been so bitter and so determined. But as of old these assaults have all been in vain. The discussions may have weakened the faith of some, and caused some to become indifferent to Bible truth. But the heat of the conflict is dying out. The smoke of battle is clearing away. The attempt to overthrow the truth has failed, and its assailants have met their Waterloo. The Bible triumphant enters the new century—The Word of God. "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the Word of our God shall stand forever."

It is true that there is a disposition in some parts of the vineyard to make changes in creeds and confessions. In some instances this is to be regretted. But in others it is scarcely more than the lopping off of dead and unfruitful branches, and is a fulfilling of Scripture, "Every branch that bringeth not forth fruit is taken away." It may be true that there are some preachers who are not preaching the truth. But these are only the few. The great majority of ministers in all evangelical denominations are faithfully preaching the pure gospel of Jesus Christ. In the present-day preaching, sinners are converted, saints are edified and the glory of Christ promoted. It is true that in many homes there is no family altar, and in many others it is in great need of repair. But in many homes the Word of God is still read, and there is morning and evening prayer. As of old, "The saint, the father and the husband prays."

In membership, the Church is growing. This growth is such as to be encouraging. "The Lord is still adding to the Church daily such as are being saved." The regular Sabbath service and the mid-week prayer meeting are not so well attended as they should be. The time has not yet come when men are flocking to the house of God as doves to the windows. But in every part of the Church, large congregations assemble every Sabbath for public service. In every city and town and in the country, great multitudes are still faithfully waiting upon God in the observance of his ordinances. The contributions for the past year have been liberal. Nineteen millions have been contributed to advance the kingdom of Christ. Of this sum our own Church has contributed a part, of which she need not be ashamed. But our contributions, although liberal, are not what they should be. They are not such as to indicate the devotion that would be most pleasing to the Master, or secure for the giver the greatest reward. Worldiness, which is covetousness and therefore idolatry, still obtains. There are many, even inside the Church, who seem disposed to count the present world of controlling moment. There are many who even set at nought the kingship of Christ, and worship gods of silver and gold. But even here there is hope; "For the Word of God is quick and powerful and will not return void."

In the business world the religion of Christ is controlling men to as great an extent as ever before. In the great reforms the Church is moving forward. Aggressive assaults are being made on the kingdom of Satan. The Church is insisting on the proper observance of the Sabbath. In the temperance reform there is progress. The canteen has been driven from the army as it had been from the navy. In the west a new star appeared and gave a new impetus to this great reform. Everywhere new light is breaking forth. In realms, social and political, moral and spiritual, there is onward movement. Ignorance and prejudice and superstition are passing away. Tyranny is being overthrown. The rights and the duties of the individual, the office and the welfare of society, the largeness of the kingdom and the mission of the Church are all better understood to-day than ever before. The fatherhood of God, the botherhood of man, and the unity in Christ of all true Christians are, with the new century, taking on a new meaning and a new power. God is magnifying the witness of himself in every land. Great world movements are sweeping onward. The indications are that the present century will be a decisive one. The present state of religion is such as to inspire hope. The present condition of the Church gives a bright outlook into the future. The indications are such that we may pray, even now and in faith, that the kingdoms of this world may soon become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ; that the Church may soon go forward in all the beauty of divine and all conquering love; that soon earth's song and heaven's symphony meeting will unite in one triumphant song of praise, that will sound on and forever in honor of him who is before all things and in whom all things consist.

"And blessed be his glorious name to all eternity,
The whole earth let his glory fill. Amen, so let it be."

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. GARVIN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS.

Your Committee on Ways and Means would report that there was submitted to it, by the Committee of last year, a constitution and by-laws, for the use of congregations. Your Committee has examined the constitution and by-laws and has made such amendments as in the judgment of the Committee were deemed proper, and herewith submits a copy of the said constitution and by-laws, as amended, and recommends the same for adoption.

Your Committee, believing that a simple, and as near as may be, uniform system of keeping the accounts of congregations, would be for the best financial interest of the Church, herewith submits sample pages of a Church Treasurer's Record and recommends its adoption.

Recognizing that the giving of our means as the Lord may prosper us should be regarded as an act of worship essential to the highest Christian growth, that the method observed is important, and that the amount given should not be less than the tithe; your Committee, while not ready to recommend the adoption of what is termed the "Covenant Plan of Tithing" as a rule of the Church, believes that the plan is deserving of careful consideration. At the request of the Committee, Mr. George W. Somers has published an article in our Church papers explaining the plan.

While your Committee is of the opinion that the work of raising funds for the boards of the Church, under existing conditions, is more especially the work of our congregations, under the supervision of our financial agents, it has published a short article in our Church papers, urging our people to give of their means as the Lord may have prospered them.

It is the judgment of the Committee that, for the present, no better measures can be devised for raising the money necessary to support the general work of the Church, than the measures heretofore approved by the General Assembly. The recommendations in this report are intended as aids in the execution of the approved measures.

The contributions for the regular mission work of the Church, during the past year, have not been in proportion to the material prosperity of our people, but your Committee is inclined to believe that the cause has not been so much the fault of the measures, as in the execution of the measures.

A closer walk with Jesus will increase our interest in his cause, will enable us to live upon a higher spiritual plane, and we will find a greater pleasure in giving. The Spirit of God will give us a truer loyalty to our Church and we will regard the appropriations made by the Church as the work of the Lord. The Christian conscience cannot well be at ease, until the amounts necessary for the regular work of the Church have been paid as fully and as promptly as an honest business man pays his debts.

This Committee regrets to record the loss to the Church in the death of Mr. W. J. Sawyer, which occurred December 12, 1900. Mr. Sawyer had been connected with the Ways and Means Committee since its origin, and was regarded as one of its most efficient members. In council he was wise, in methods he was suggestive, as a member he was faithful. As a man he was honest and sincere, as a friend he was constant and firm, as a Christian he was conscientious and true. In the enterprise of raising the Quarter Centennial Fund his business habits and enthusiasm had no little part in the success of the movement, which has meant so much to the boards of the Church and her educational institutions. With regret this Committee has felt his absence during this year, and wishes to leave on record this token of appreciation of his services to the Church.

Respectfully sumbitted,

MILLARD MCMURDO,
J. H. MCMILLAN,
HUGH R. MOFFET,
W. S. WEIR,
ROBERT RUTLEDGE,
GEO. W. SOMERS.

MODEL CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, the need of orderly and better defined procedure in the affairs of the congregation is recognized; therefore, we, the members of the United Presbyterian Church of....., do hereby ordain and establish this, our constitution and by-laws.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This congregation is incorporated under the name of, and shall be known as the.....United Presbyterian Church of.....

RELATIONSHIP.

Being organized as a congregation of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, we hereby declare our acceptance of the government and discipline and directory for worship of that Church, and our subordination to her several courts, and particularly to the Presbytery of.....

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. Only members in full communion shall be eligible to office.

Sec. 2. The officers of the congregation shall be: 1. The officiating minister and the ruling elders constituting the session; 2. A Board of..... trustees; 3. A treasurer; 4. A clerk; 5. A chief usher.

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. An election for officers shall be held during the week following the last Sabbath of March of each year, and shall be by ballot, unless otherwise provided by unanimous consent or vote of two-thirds of the members voting.

Sec. 2. Only members in full communion are permitted to vote for officers.

Sec. 3. The number, term of office, and manner of choosing the members of the session are provided in the Book of Government and Discipline, chapters 6 and 7.

Sec. 4. A chairman shall be elected at the opening of each meeting of the congregation to preside during that meeting.

Sec. 5. The treasurer, clerk and chief usher shall be elected for one year from April 1, and shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified.

Sec. 6. The term of office for trustees shall be three years, and shall end when their successors are elected and qualified. The trustees first elected under this constitution, however, shall divide into three classes by lot, so that one-third of their number may retire at the annual meeting of the first year, and another third at the annual meeting of the second year, the remainder retiring at the annual meeting of the third year, thereby and thereafter requiring the election of one-third of the trustees each year.

Sec. 7. Terms of office shall begin at the annual meeting except when otherwise provided.

Sec. 8. Vacancies in elective offices may be declared by vote of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting of the congregation duly called for that purpose, or when an officer for any reason shall cease to be a member of the congregation in full communion. In case of such vacancy, an election shall at once be held to fill the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. The Session. The session is charged with the spiritual oversight and government of the congregation. It belongs to it to decide upon qualifications of applicants for church membership, to enquire into the knowledge, character and conduct of members, to arraign offenders, to admonish, rebuke or suspend them, as the proper exercises of discipline may require; to dismiss members in good standing with proper certificate to other congregations, and do whatever else pertains to their office, in maintaining the good order and promoting the edification of the Church, as denoted in the Government and Discipline of the United Presbyterian Church and the deliverance of her several judicatories. The session shall hold at least one stated meeting each month, the time and place of which shall be announced at the preceding Sabbath morning service.

Sec. 2. Board of Trustees (a) The board of trustees shall be entrusted with such responsibilities as the civil law assigns to it. (b) The board shall organize as soon as may be possible after each annual meeting of the congregation, by the election of a chairman and secretary who shall serve for one year, and shall adopt such rules for its own government as may be necessary. (c) It shall have charge of the property and finances of the congregation, subject, however, to the duly expressed authority of the session. (d) It shall attend to the payment of all taxes and assessments upon the property of the congregation, and care that such property is kept insured and in good repair, and shall secure and direct the necessary janitor service. (e) It shall audit all bills against the congregation and issue warrants upon the treasurer for their payment, signed by the chairman and countersigned by the secretary of the board. (f) It shall, prior to the first Sabbath of each April, secure as nearly as possible the names of all members of the church and others who are willing to subscribe a definite amount payable weekly towards the expenses of the congregation and hand the list of these subscribers to the treasurer as soon as practicable. (g) It shall prepare and submit in writing to the annual meeting of the congregation an annual budget of appropriations needed for all purposes for the succeeding year. (h) The board shall hold at least one stated meeting each month, the time and place of which shall be announced at the preceding Sabbath morning service.

Sec. 3. Treasurer. (a) It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all money belonging to the congregation, and pay the same out only upon proper warrants signed by the chairman and countersigned by the secretary of the board of trustees. (b) He shall be careful that expenditures do not exceed the appropriations in the approved budget, and shall charge each item of expenditure against the proper appropriations. (c) He shall keep a record of all receipts and expenditures, and shall from time to time advise the trustees of the general and particular condition of the finances. (d) He shall supply all members, and others who may wish to contribute, with weekly offering envelopes, and shall render to each subscriber a quarterly statement of his or her account. (e) In extraordinary circumstances and when large amounts of money are being handled by him, he shall on direction of the board of trustees give bond in a penal sum not exceeding $5,000, secured by a surety company approved by the board of trustees, who shall draw a warrant for the expense thereof.

Sec. 4. Clerk. (a) It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep correct minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the congregation, and to record the same in a suitable, well-bound book provided for such purposes, and to see that meetings of the congregation are called and announced as herein provided. (b) He shall be the custodian of all valuable papers, such as deeds, insurance policies, written reports of officers and committees, and all papers ordered placed on file by the congregation, and shall provide himself with a strong box (at the expense of the congregation for their safe keeping) and shall deliver all to his successor when he shall be elected and qualified) and He shall notify in writing all persons elected to office by the congregation, and furnish them with minutes of any action of the congregation affecting the administration of their duties.

Sec. 5. Ushers. The chief usher shall have entire charge of the seating of all audiences, and of ventilating the room during services, and shall appoint his own assistants, subject to approval of the session.

ARTICLE VI.

Sec. 1. An auditing committee of three members shall be appointed by the session of the church at its last meeting preceding the annual meeting of the congregation, whose duty it shall be to examine the records, papers and books of the trustees, treasurer and clerk, and to report on the condition and accuracy of the same at the annual meeting of the congregation.

Sec. 2. Special committees may be appointed by the congregation for the performance of special duties as may from time to time appear necessary.

SABBATH SCHOOL.

Sec. 1. The officers and teachers of the Sabbath school shall be appointed by the session. (See Directory for Worship, chap. 8.) The officers shall be appointed for one year. The superintendent shall have power to nominate teachers.

Sec. 2. The current expenses of the Sabbath school shall be paid from the treasury of the congregation, and shall be included in the annual budget. (See Art. 4, Sec. 2, paragraph G.)

Sec. 3. All money collected by the Sabbath school shall be turned over promptly to the treasurer of the church and applied to the missionary funds, unless otherwise directed by the session.

ARTICLE VIII.

SUB-ORGANIZATIONS.

No sub-organization can exist within the congregation except by authority and consent of the session, and it shall have power to disorganize any such when it shall deem this course necessary.

ARTICLE IX.

REPORTS.

Sec. 1. Annual reports covering the discharge of their responsibilities, the condition of the work committed to them and the recommendations for the good of the church, shall be made to the congregation by the session, board of trustees, treasurer and chief usher, and read at the annual meeting.

Sec. 2. The report of the session should be made by the pastor, and shall include the reports of all organizations within the church, the Sabbath school, woman's missionary, young people's Christian union, etc., and shall cover the following particulars: 1. The pursuit of the purpose of the organization; 2. Present officers and number of members; 3. Funds collected and in what manner; 4. Amounts disbursed, and for what purposes; 5. Balance in treasury, and bills payable, if any; 6. Prospects and plans for future usefulness.

Sec. 3. The report of the board of trustees should be made by the chairman and should contain a careful inventory of the personal property of the congregation, give full information regarding the assets and liabilities, the general condition of the property and suggest ways and means for increasing the resources and economizing the expenses.

Sec. 4. The report of the treasurer should be in sufficient detail to give the contributors and members an intelligent grasp of the finances under the heads, (1) Receipts, (2) Disbursements, (3) Bills Payable, and (4) Bills Receivable. It should also show clearly the amount appropriated for and the amount charged to each fund authorized in the budget.

ARTICLE X.

The annual meeting of the congregation shall be held during the week following the last Sabbath in March at such time as may be fixed by the clerk, suiting as near as possible the convenience of the session and board of trustees. Special meetings may be called by the session, and shall be called by the clerk at the written request of ten members. In all cases at least three days' notice shall be given by announcement at the morning service (Sabbath), and the object of all special meetings shall be stated in such announcement. The following shall be the order of business at all the regular meetings: Calling of meeting to order by clerk; Election of chairman; Devotional exercises; Reading of minutes; Report of officers; Report of committees; Unfinished business; New business; Adjournment.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

The constitution and by-laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present at any meeting, provided notice of such proposed amendment has been given in the announcement of such meeting.

BY-LAWS.

(1.) The annual budget submitted by the board of trustees (Art. 5, Sec. 2), may be amended and shall be approved by a majority of the members of the congregation voting before it shall be operative, and when it is approved shall govern the board of trustees, treasurer, and all concerned as the maximum amounts to be expended during the calendar year for the purposes specified. No liabilities unprovided for in the budget shall be incurred without the previous approval of the congregation.

(2.) The trustees shall draw a warrant for, and the treasurer shall remit to the presbytery's financial agent, one-twelfth of the amount appropriated for missions at the end of each calendar month; or, in the discretion of the trustees, one-fourth at the end of each quarter.

(3.) Proportionate giving being a distinct and positive command in the Scriptures, all persons becoming members of this church are expected to contribute to the support of the church, of such a portion of their incomes as God requires according to the principles laid down in 1 Corinthians 16:2.

(5.) Persons uniting with the church, having been approved and accepted by the session, shall enter at once on the enjoyment of all the privileges and duties pertaining to this fellowship, and shall be publicly received on the following communion Sabbath, or at such other time as shall be determined by the session.

(7.) The use of the church buildings or grounds, for any other than religious services of the congregation and recognized organizations within the church, can only be had with the consent of the session.

(8.) The copy and proofs of all printed matter issued by or bearing the name of this church, or of any organization within this church, shall be submitted to and approved by a committee appointed by the session for that purpose.

(9.) In absence of the clerk, any elder may call the congregation to order, and preside until the election of a chairman and clerk pro tempore.

(11.) The chairman of the board of trustees is ex-officio purchasing agent of the congregation. All purchases to be paid for from funds in the church treasury should be purchased by him or by some one authorized by him.

(12.) Persons having bills against the congregation should present the same to the chairman of the board of trustees.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

Our report consists of statistics and suggestions. We trust the latter will not be presumptuous and the former not tiresome, as they certainly are not discouraging.

I. The Statistics are as follows: Senior societies reported, 777. Of these 618 are under the Christian Union constitution, and 159 are Christian Endeavor organizations. The membership is 31,601. The total amount contributed was $45,002; $13,743 were given through the boards of the Church, or about $1,200 less than one-third the entire sum. Tithers reported, 4,492, and 229 tithe committees. Among the juniors, 419 societies are reported, 289 of them being Junior Christian Unions and 130 of them Junior Missionary Societies. The membership of the Unions is 10,351, and their contributions $5,975. The membership of the Missionary Societies is 6,517 and their contributions $3,687.

In connection with these figures, this item of interest merits special mention. For the first time we are able to give reports from both Egypt and India. In the synod of the Nile, there are eight Christian Union Societies and four Christian Endeavor Societies, with a total membership of 781; four Junior Unions with 116 members and three Junior Missionary Societies with 331 members. The Seniors, 34 of whom are tithers, contributed $159, and the Juniors $38. The synod of the Punjab reports four Christian Union and two Christian Endeavor Societies, with a total membership of 104, and three Junior Unions with 89 members. The Seniors, 18 of whom practice tithing, contributed $16.

These figures do not represent thoroughly the condition of our young people's work. For the statistics are far from complete, and in very many instances they are quite fragmentary in what they are supposed to give. This year, reports were received from every presbytery save one, the presbytery of Spokane. After repeated letters and a telegram, the man supposed to be the secretary of the Christian Union for that presbytery replied that he did not know he had anything to do with it, and so could furnish no data. But out of the 60 other presbyteries reporting, only 19 gave returns from every society. So that in one presbytery all of the societies, and in 41 presbyteries very many of the societies have no credit whatever. But notwithstanding this, which however is annoying and apparently inexcusable, progress has been made in every particular except two, and for one of these losses there is a reasonable excuse. The contributions for this year are less than last year's by $5,424. But you will remember that last year's report had the benefit of the special enthusiasm generated by the Tenth Anniversary Offering at the Pittsburgh convention. During the year, there has been a gain of 47 societies and 840 members among the Seniors; and among the Juniors, a gain of 27 societies and 1,762 members.

The presbyterial conventions have been quite up to their usual standard. Some of the presbyterial secretaries speak of them as follows: "Increased interest," "Large attendance," "Outlook of aggressive work excellent," "More interest shown than ever before," "Splendid meetings," etc. I have multiplied these quotations, and I might easily have given more, with a purpose. Your Committee has no sympathy with, nor endorsement of the idea that young people's work is on the wane. The facts do not warrant even the suggestion of the charge, much less the serious entertaining of it. Still, we have not yet attained nor are we already perfect. For 221 congregations report no senior society, and 578 have no organization among the juniors.

II. These are Our Suggestions: First, At our last meeting in Warsaw, Indiana, this action was taken: "The General Committee on Young People's Work would respectfully request the General Assembly that Mr. E. B. McKown, who has acted as chairman since the withdrawal of Rev. R. G. Ramsay, be continued to fill regularly his own term of office the coming year."

Second, At the same meeting this was acted upon: "The minutes of the Denver concention contain the following recommendation, viz.: 'After considerable discussion the General Committee was directed to take the necessary steps to change our motto to, 'God: Whose I am and Whom I serve.' Notwithstanding this action and with all due respect to it, it is the sense of this Committee that the proposed change is not needed, and the General Secretary is hereby instructed to incorporate this action in his report to the General Assembly."

Third. The General Secretary was instructed to correspond with George B. Graff, agent of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, and ask for our societies, where desired, the right to have their prayer meeting topics printed locally. These topics are selected and copyrighted by the United Society of Christian Endeavor, and Mr. Graff's reply was that such privilege would always be granted, provided each society, so desiring, would write for permission to have its own printing done. Your Committee would suggest that a copyright is a copyright, and that we have neither legal nor moral defense for disregarding it, and that both law and Christian comity ought to be respected more in this regard.

Fourth, The thirteenth annual convention of the Young People's Christian Union is to be held at Winona Lake, Indiana, July 24-28, 1901. The program is being arranged with the one idea prominent—a spiritual quickening and uplift. And you, as ministers and laymen, may contribute largely either to the achievement of this result, or to a disappointment by your attitude towards the convention.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEE OF THE UNITED SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The undersigned was nominated by the Assembly of 1898, as a member of the board of trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor for a term of three years. Your nominee begs leave to report that he was elected to that position and has endeavored to represent the United Presbyterian Church in that great organization, which stands for denominational loyalty and interdenominational fellowship in a movement to develop the activities of young Christians. It is the desire of the United Society of Christian Endeavor that this Assembly should again nominate a person to represent you in that body.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE ALLEGHENY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The work of another prosperous year of this institution has been completed. The professors have all been in their places throughout the year, and the health of the students has been generally good. There was an invasion of scarlet fever which gave great alarm, but happily only two mild cases appeared.

The number of students enrolled has been 74, being nine more than last year. These have been classified as follows: In the senior class, 23; in the middle class, 30; in the junior class, 21.

The faculty continues, as per our last report, as follows: James A. Grier, D.D., LL.D., professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology, temporary professor of Homiletics, and president of the faculty; D. A. McClenahan, D.D., professor of Old Testament Literature and Criticism, and secretary of the faculty; John McNaugher, D.D., professor of New Testament Literature and Criticism and registrar of the faculty; J. A. Wilson, D.D., professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, temporary professor of Pastoral Theology, and librarian.

The curriculum established by the Assembly has been pursued, including Christian missions and experimental religion. A course of lectures on Sabbath school work was given the past year by men especially qualified on the subject. This has been very helpful to the students.

The board is able to report to the Assembly that the work of both faculty and students has been thoroughly done, and men are being sent out to fill the sacred office of the ministry well equipped for their work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. WILSON, President.

REPORT OF THE MANAGERS OF THE XENIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

In presenting our report, we desire to make mention of the grace and goodness of our covenant God, vouchsafed to us as a board and seminary, during the past year.

1. In that, during the session that has just closed, we have been permitted to install in the chair of Systematic Theology in connection with that of Church History, a worthy successor to the worthy Prof. James Harper, D.D., resigned, in the person of Prof. Joseph Kyle, D.D. It is a matter for congratulation to the Church at large, that the synods in charge have shown such unmistakable wisdom in this matter. The departments, once more, are all equipped with loyal and devout men.

2. The lives of both professors and students have been precious in God's sight. No interruption has been permitted to occur on account of sickness, serious enough to prevent the faithful carrying out of the curriculum as set for the class-room work, so that the entire course for the year has been gone over. Besides the regular class work, several addresses have been delivered to the students by visiting brethren under the auspices of the Students' Missionary Association on themes relating to the work of the ministry.

3. The spiritual status of the seminary is most gratifying, as indicated by devotion to duty, and appreciation of privileges on the part of students and professors, manifesting themselves in the spirit of harmony and self-dedication, found also in the fact that in ten years a higher general average in grades, in recitations and final examinations, has not been attained, the minimum grade being 92 per cent., the maximum 97.9 per cent.

4. The board is desirous of devising liberal things for the physical and spiritual welfare of the young men who are seeking a safe, and a comparatively inexpensive, preparation for the great work of the gospel ministry. To the steam heating plant has been added electric light, by way of making the building comfortable and cheerful; and the finance committee has been instructed to fit up bath rooms, during the summer vacation. The board has also taken steps to arrange for an extended course of lectures to the students during the year, to be delivered by well-known and able instructors.

5. To the general endowment fund there has been added through gifts of generous hearts and hands, the sum of $20,000. The number of students in the third year class, who have received their graduating diplomas, is seven. Though the number graduating this year is not so large as last, yet we feel sure that the Church has received an ample compensation in that both the students and her ministry are richer "in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." "How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight?" "It is not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

W. S. McClure, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE FIFTEENTH ARTICLE OF THE TESTIMONY.

After carefully considering the matter submitted to us by the last General Assembly your Committee would respectfully report:

It does not appear that there exists in the Church such a demand for a change in our Testimony against secret societies, as would justify the sending down in overture the Article under consideration. It does, however, appear that the rule is variously construed, and that there are differences of administration. Uniformity in this particular has been rendered more difficult by the multiplication of various secret orders, with a great diversity of objects in view. Some sessions have construed the law as mandatory and consequently requiring the exclusion of members of secret orders of every kind from membership in the Church, irrespective of the special object which they may seek to promote, or the spirit and the attitude of the applicant for membership in the Church. Others have regarded the law as advisory in character, and not necessarily excluding from membership in certain societies. In some cases sessions have recognized the principle that there may be exceptions to all rules and have used discretion in individual cases, while others have not felt free to exercise any discretion in the premises.

We recommend the following for your adoption:

Resolved, That while Article XV. of our Testimony defines in a manner sufficiently explicit the general law of our Church on the subject of secretism, sessions possess and are expected to exercise a wise discretion in the administration of the law, dealing with such cases as may arise upon their merits, and in such a way as may best promote God's glory and the peace and prosperity of the Church.

Inasmuch as the "formula" of questions for the admission of members was referred to this Committee by the reference of the report of the committee to the last Assembly, and inasmuch as there are certain inaccuracies in the order of these questions, such as adherence to the distinctive doctrines of the Church taking precedence to profession of faith in Christ, we would recommend that such action be taken as may be necessary for the amendment of Sec. VI. Chap. 2 of the General Administration to read as follows:

1. Do you believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the infallible and only rule of faith and practice?

2. Do you profess your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; your acceptance of him as your Saviour, and your resolution through grace to continue in the faith?

3. Do you accept the doctrines, government and worship of this Church as agreeable to and founded on the Word of God, so far as you have been enabled to understand them, and do you profess your willingness to be instructed in them?

4. Do you promise to be subject to the order and discipline of God's house; to be diligent in your attendance upon divine ordinances, both teaching and sealing; faithful in the study of God's Word and in devotion to private and family religion; to avoid every form of worldiness as detrimental to your spiritual growth?

5. Do you engage to seek the peace, purity and prosperity of this congregation while you remain a member thereof, to give it your active service, your financial support as God may prosper you, and the influence of a godly life?

6. Do you make this profession as in the presence of God, in reliance on his grace, and as you desire to give in your account with joy at the great day?

REPORT ON THE LIMITATION OF APPEALS IN CASES OF DISCIPLINE.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly "to consider such changes as may be necessary in our Book of Government and Discipline, in the limitation of the synod as the last court of appeal or complaint in all matters of discipline not affecting the doctrines of the Church," respectfully submits the following report:

The Book of Government and Discipline is constructed on the principle of the right of appeal to the highest court in every case. It would, therefore, seem to be desirable that all parts of the Book relating in any way to the powers of the courts, the right of appeal and the processes to be followed, should be rewritten; but, on the principle that all subordinate regulations are to be interpreted in accordance with a clearly defined statement of law or regulation setting forth a general course to be followed, a few changes may be sufficient to affect the object in view, and limit appeals in cases of discipline to the synod. The following changes are, therefore, recommended:

1. Amend Part I, Chapter V, Article IV, by striking out Section 4, which authorizes the General Assembly to refer appeals in cases of discipline to a commission.

2. Amend Part III, Chapter XII, Section 2, which treats of "the ways in which a case may be carried from a lower to a higher court," so as to read: "Every decision in any court, except the highest having jurisdiction, is subject to the review of a superior court."

3. Amend Section 1, of Article II, of the same Chapter, to read as follows: "A reference is a judicial representation made by an inferior court to a superior court having jurisdiction, of a matter not yet decided."

4. Amend Article II of the same Chapter, by inserting the following as Section 2: "In cases of discipline, an appeal or complaint may be made to the synod as the court of final jurisdiction, but an appeal or complaint concerning doctrines, general regulations, the interpretation of law, or the regularity of proceedings, may be made direct from the presbytery or synod to the General Assembly, whose judgment shall be for the guidance of the lower courts. Such appeal or complaint shall always be made in writing, and shall contain a clear statement of the issue involved. The General Assembly shall enter upon its records the appeal as presented from the lower court, a clear statement of its own decision, and the grounds upon which it is made."

REPORT ON UNEMPLOYED MINISTERS AND VACANT CONGREGATIONS.

Your Committee, to which was referred the matter, by the last Assembly, of some remodeling of our plans for securing appointments for unemployed ministers and the supply of vacant congregations, beg leave to present the following report:

In answer to several memorials presented to the last Assembly, in which certain defects in our home mission system were complained of, your Committee was appointed to report to this Assembly some method by which the irregularities and inequities of the present plan might be removed, or a new plan proposed. The problem, given to us for solution, seemed to our minds so perplexing and difficult, that we were at a loss to find any plan which would vary in any considerable degree from that at present in operation, unless we should depart from our whole Presbyterian order of the settled pastorate, and adopt some form of episcopacy, which would place the power of appointing all ministers to their respective fields for a definite period in the hands of the synods or some central committee, under the direction of the General Assembly.

This plan contemplates the removal arbitrarily, after a period of from one to five years, of every minister, and assigning him to another field. Such an arrangement would remove from the people the right to chose their own ministers; a right which has been jealously guarded by our forefathers, and cherished by our Church in every age, as a part of the liberty which we have in Christ; and it would further be a radical departure from the established order under our Presbyterian system of a fixed pastorate, only to be dissolved by the consent of the parties. Any such change seemed to your Committee too radical and revolutionary to be acceptable to our Church, and whether the desired relief would be thereby secured seems to your Committee very questionable.

It is a well known fact that under a system such as this, the Methodist Episcopal Church, which has such a splendid record, and such great missionary spirit, which used to boast that it had a place for every minister and a minister for every place, now has its best pulpits filled with ministers, who have been virtually called to the place before the bishop or conference has passed upon the matter, and all that is left for them to do is to ratify the choice or call of the local church for the man they want; while a long list of supernumeraries and local preachers, terms often covering inefficiency and unacceptability, and of poorly supplied churches, only repeats the complaints so often heard against the plan which obtains among us. The complaints about "favoritism," "clicks" and "wire-pulling" to secure desirable appointments, and the consequent jealousies, heart-burnings and bitterness, which are often heard of from these sources, indicate that the severe arraignment of "shameful system," "lawless procedure," "a disgrace to the Church," "humiliating to the Christian ministry," etc., sometimes heard among us, are not peculiar to our system, but are hurled with vehemence against the Episcopal form of government, by those who grow dissatisfied with it.

Your Committee, in its perplexity as it wrestled with the problem, turned to other brethren in the Church, to learn what might in their judgment, and in the light of their experience, be a better method, than the one now operating. A circular letter was sent out to one hundred representative ministers and laymen, chiefly to ministers, asking their opinion on the matters presented in the following questions. Replies came to sixty of them, almost all of them from ministers, and we give the result.

First question:—"Is the present method of appointment for ministers and the supply of vacancies satisfactory, or the best which can be successfully carried out?" To this question there were twenty who answered in the affirmative, thirty in the negative, and ten non-committal. Among the comments on the affirmative were, "Less complaint now than formerly," "Gives every one a chance on his own merits," "Gives more liberty of choice to the men and the congregations," "Not faultless, but the best available," "Not satisfactory to all, but you will not find a plan to suit all." On the negative side, "Too much Congregationalism," "Works well for large men and congregations, but poorly for little ones," "Not worthy of the name, method," "Difficult to get men in remote fields," "Older men do not get a hearing."

Second question:—"Would a return to a system similar to that formerly employed, of having the General Committee of Missions distribute the men be an advisable method?" Answers: affirmative, fifteen; negative, thirty-five; non-committal, ten. Comments for, "As good as any that can be devised," "Better than the present method," "It was more successful in securing regular employment for men," "Commended by many in the Presbyterian Church," "Our vacancies were better cared for then;" against, "We have outgrown it," "Many men would not submit their names," "Presbyteries got supplies elsewhere," "Wholly impracticable," "Church too large now for such a system," "Men sought their own appointments, and congregations their own supplies."

Third question:—"Would a more thorough oversight of the appointments by the presbyteries, and more presbyterial authority in the matter remedy the evils complained of?" Affirmative, forty; negative, five; non-committal, fifteen. Comments, "Would help," "We are drifting into Congregationalism," "Do more to solve the problem than anything else," "Certainly," "Congregations should be trained to listen to the voice of the presbytery," "We need to get down, or rather up, to presbyterial authority," "As a penalty where men will not go to needy fields, withhold all appointments," "Yes, if backed by the General Assembly and the ministry generally," "Men who resign should report their names at once to the home mission secretary, and he send these names monthly to superintendents of missions," "Does not reach the case of providing for the unemployed," "A consummation devoutly to be wished," "Yes, if presbyteries will deal with obsteperous men as well as with obsteperous congregations," "Congregations want better men than they can get; men want better places than they can hold; presbytery would be a better judge as to what would be a good fit," "An S. M. with grit, get-up, grace and gumption about him, and who magnifies the presbyterial authority behind him, the best remedy," "Would not remedy all evils, for complaints will probably be heard as long as men are deficient in spiritual power and ministerial efficiency," "Better get back to presbyterial oversight, than adopt some plan which leads away from it."

Fourth question:—"Have you any other plan or method to suggest that might aid in solving this difficult problem?" Affirmative, thirteen; negative, forty. Comments, "Men might be distributed by a small committee, or subcommittee of one from each synod in connection with the work of the General Committee of Missions. This would be worth five years' trial," "Get the best possible man for S. M., and hold him responsible," "Congregations may ask for certain men of the S. M., but let him arrange the dates and make the appointment," "The Church should have greater care in admitting men to the ministry. Ministers who are incapacitated for effective service should be encouraged to go on an honorably retired or superannuated list," "We should have more money for home missions and give employment to more men." "Restrain settled ministers from running after every good vacancy which occurs," "Supply home mission congregations by the home board, others by the presbytery," "Put all the authority in the hands of the secretary of the home board, and let him have absolute control of all vacancies and all the men," "Less self-seeking and more of the spirit of Christ," "A form of sustentation by which congregations may be formed into pastoral charges, and a salary of not less than $800 be provided for each charge," "Work the plan we have." A father in the Church says, "My experience is that any minister of respectable ability and approved piety can always find work in our Church, if he will go to places where he is needed. I do not think any great number of ministers are suffering injustice under the present system, or that there is any other system which would not be exposed to similar evils." "More men ready to obey the call which comes to them, fewer men looking after good settlements." "Recognition of the fact that some men are no longer efficient and acceptable." Others suggest some form of Episcopacy, in which some central board, under the direction of the several synods or the General Assembly, shall have control of all ministers and all congregations. All appointments made for one year, subject to renewal year by year up to five years, but no minister to be continued more than five years in one place. Much as we respect the opinions, and appreciate the love for our Zion of the brethren, who advocate this form of modified Episcopacy, we regard it as too wide a departure from historic Presbyterianism, and too radical, not to say drastic, in its operations, to be acceptable to our Church. Much as we deplore the difficulties which beset our present method, we believe this one would give rise to endless complaints and dissatisfaction. We believe that the provisions of the Presbyterian form of Church Government, which is not only scriptural, but a golden mean between the looseness of independency, and the rigidity of Episcopacy, is adequate to meet the situation, and properly care for all the interests of the Church. These considerations,

"Make us rather bear those ills we have,
Than fly to others that we know not of."

If men, as they appear in the pulpit to feed the flock of God do not impress themselves as suitable guides for the flock so as to receive a call, there is little to hope for in the way of useful pastorates, when these ministers are thrust upon the people by some appointing power, and are not the free choice of the people. We believe the most careful, judicious mind of the Church to be, not a new system for vacancy and supply, but more of the spirit of Christ, in following out the arrangements we already have, and which may be amended from time to time to suit changing conditions. The plan to have the former system of distributing men by the General Committee, while having much merit, broke down under the spirit of congregationalism, in which many ministers and congregation made their own arrangements for preaching, by methods wholly aside from the provisions of the presbytery and the General Assembly, and hence it was set aside. A committee was appointed by the Assembly of 1897, to devise some different plan. That committee, after careful deliberation, proposed a plan to the General Assembly of 1898, providing for a committee, composed of one minister from each synod, which should meet twice each year to distribute ministers desiring employment, to the different presbyteries. This report, which removed many of the objections to the former system, and seemed to afford relief from the evils complained of, was laid upon the table of the Assembly, where it still remains. (See Minutes of 1898. Report on page 624, and action taken, page 508.) This seemed to dispose of the idea that the Church wants the distribution of men to the different presbyteries by any committee, whether large or small.

As these methods are not acceptable to the Church, is it not a time for the General Assembly and the presbyteries to rally to a more careful observance of the Presbyterian system in caring for our vacancies and unemployed ministers? We all lament the decay of the power of the presbytery, and no one is to blame for this, so much as the presbyteries themselves. If the presbytery fails to exercise its divinely given authority and magnify its high calling, its influence will speedily fall into contempt. Nothing so soon undermines authority, as to allow its requirements to be trifled with, and its rulings to be trampled upon. We believe a judicious and firm application of the authority of the presbytery will remedy nearly all of the irregularities and inequalities complained of.

One prominent complaint is that we have no order in providing for vacancy and supply, and that ministers and congregations are a law unto themselves. Our Presbyterian system supposes that a vacant congregation is under the care of the presbytery. In other words, the presbytery is the pro tempore pastor of pastorless congregations, and is to have the supply of the pulpit, and all arrangements for securing a pastor under its direction, until a settlement is affected. There may be at times some restiveness under the method of each congregation receiving its supplies through the presbytery, but these are exceptional cases. Usually by due consideration of the rights, both of the congregation and presbytery, these matters may be adjusted satisfactorily. Indeed the complaints about our present system have not proceeded from the congregations, but from the ministry themselves, and when made, these resolve themselves into about two grievances; first, that the ministry is overcrowded, and that the Church should regulate the matter of the increase of the ministry, so that men already in the office may not be displaced or crowded out; and second, that to seek appointments through the superintendents of missions, is belittling and repugnant to a self-respecting minister. As to the first of these objections, it is probably overestimated. It is true that presbyteries are sometimes a little weak in admitting men into the ministry, who may be over anxious to get into the pulpit, or whose friends may be very persistent in crowding them in.

Instances of failure in the ministry can often be traced to this over-persistency. A great kindness would have been done to these persons, if presbyteries had kindly but firmly said, "We do not think that this person has the gifts and qualifications calculated to give success in the ministry, and that his services, in some other calling than the ministry, would seem to give promise of greater usefulness to the Church." Many a good farmer, physician, or teacher, has been spoiled when certain men have crowded into the ministry only to be disappointed in the after years, and cry out against the Church that they have not been fairly treated.

Presbyteries should carefully guard the door to the ministerial office, so that over-anxious persons, without the necessary gifts and qualifications, may not thrust themselves into the ministry. But is the ministry overcrowded? We sometimes think so when we hear it announced that 320, or nearly one-third of the entire ministry of our Church, are without charges, and only 187 congregations to be supplied. But a careful analysis of this list shows that, of these ministers, 34 are editors, professors in seminaries or colleges, or secretaries of boards, and cannot enter the pastorate, as their time is taken up serving the Church in other lines; 34 are agents or lecturers, or engaged in other business, which would prevent their entering upon the pastoral office. Then 64 are disqualified by some sickness or some complication, which hinders them from the pastorate; 66 are infirm by reason of years and long service; 33 are missionaries in foreign lands; five are engaged in special lines of religious work, apart from the pastoral office. During the year, at least, seven have died, and 15 have accepted charges. This would leave but 60, who are able and willing to undertake the active work of the ministry in the pastoral office, to supply something like 187 congregations. Is the ministry overcrowded? During the past year, we know that many superintendents of missions have found it difficult to find men for needy fields. It is not so hard to find men for nice-feathered nests, but to find men willing to take up hard fields, and make something of them, is a difficult matter.

As to the objection that men have to ask for appointments at the hand of superintendents of missions, we hope this is not a serious objection with many. It is simply coming into the line where the Lord of the vineyard may find laborers to send them forth. This is not seeking employment from congregations, but coming forward to offer one's services, through the properly constituted authorities, to the Church. If any one's zeal for saving souls and building up the Church of Jesus Christ is overshadowed by such extreme delicacy, it should be overcome. The Church wants men, must have them. Will not these brethren help solve this hard problem, by placing themselves in the hands of the superintendents of missions, that they may be available for appointments?

Unlicensed students should not be allowed to assume the right to supply vacancies. This is often done to the supplanting of both ordained ministers and licentiates, and has grown to be a scandal upon our theological seminaries and our Presbyterian system which places honor upon the ordained ministry. If law and order in the Church means anything, if protecting the rights of our unemployed ministers means anything, presbyteries should be instructed to lay hands on this great and growing evil and suppress it. For young men who need financial help in entering the ministry, the Church out of its own beneficence provides funds for their assistance, that they may give themselves wholly to their studies, and the temptation to break over the safeguards of law may be removed.

Ministers, who are already settled over congregations, have given occasion for much complaint by the way in which they seek a hearing in congregations supposedly better than their own. When a charge paying a good salary becomes vacant, many settled ministers in hope of bettering their condition besiege by letter by their "next friend" for a hearing to the supplanting of worthy and deserving brethren, who are without charge, frequently with families to support, who are dependent upon them for some such income. This policy, which sets aside those who are regularly in the field as supplies, works serious injury to these brethren, and who can blame them if they cry out loudly against such intrusion upon their rights? Your Committee would recommend for adoption, the following resolutions:

1. That each presbytery be instructed to hold a conference at an early date upon the authority and rights of the presbytery and how these are to be maintained in the matter of vacancy and supply.

2. That the Board of Home Missions, through its corresponding secretary, be constituted a bureau of information, and that on request he furnish each superintendent of missions, at the first of each month, the names and addresses of ministers and licentiates who are able and willing to fill pastorates.

3. That each minister who becomes unemployed, and each licentiate on his licensure, be instructed to communicate his name to the Home Mission Board, for their use in informing the superintendents of missions.

4. That presbyteries be instructed to choose the best possible man for the office of superintendent of missions, and that he, as chairman of the committee on supplies, be charged by the presbytery with the duty of caring for the vacant congregations, and to hold congregations and ministers to the rule, that appointments in each pulpit be made only through this officer of the presbytery.

5. That the attention of the presbyteries be called to the rule, and that they be instructed carefully to enforce it, that only licentiates or ordained ministers are to receive appointments in vacant pulpits.

6. That in case of a protracted vacancy, the presbytery shall have the right, after one year of vacancy, to place in such pulpit a supply for three months or longer, as may seem expedient, with a view to secure prompt settlement of vacancies.

REPORT ON A BOOK OF INSTRUCTION FOR JUNIORS.

The committee, appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare a book of instruction to cover the three-fold field of Bible study, missions, and Church history, for the use of our junior societies, would respectfully report as follows:

R. J. Miller, D.D., was prevailed upon to undertake the authorship of such a book. Rev. J. O. Ashenhurst kindly furnished blackboard helps, and Rev. J. A. Cosby gave some helpful suggestions for memorizing Scripture and for prayer. The work grew to be of larger proportions than was at first anticipated, and in order to make a smaller book for use, as well as to get out a portion of it more promptly, it was decided to publish it in two parts.

Part I. was issued by the Board of Publication about January 1, and consists of 24 lessons for children in Old Testament study. Part II., which will cover New Testament study, with Church history, and twelve lessons on the subject of missions, will probably be issued early after the return of Rev. Dr. Miller from Europe.

From the annual statistical reports concerning junior work it is learned that a very large number of our junior societies have introduced the book. The high praise accorded it wherever used, seems universal. There is one criticism, and only one, which has been urged with the committee, and that is in reference to the cost of the book. It has sold at the rate of 25 cents per single copy, or 15 cents in lots of ten or more copies. This has been against its more universal introduction, and has led to its being used by the superintendents alone, in many instances, instead of its being taken by the societies for distribution among the children. Your committee would recommend:

1. That the book be furnished to our juniors for 10 cents per copy, in lots of ten or more.

2. That this little book, so carefully prepared by the editor of our children's literature receive the earnest consideration and hearty patronage of our junior workers.

J. F. JAMIESON, Chairman.

REPORT ON REFORM.

Besides her duty of giving the gospel to every creature, the Church of Christ has the work of doing good as she has opportunity to all men. It is under this department that she is the originator and promoter of public reforms. As the divinely commissioned benefactor of the human race, it is the work of the Church of Christ to oppose, and, as far as possible, eradicate the vices and sins that corrupt society and bring upon its individual members temporal misery, moral degradation and eternal ruin. The legalized liquor traffic, the profanation of the holy Sabbath, licentiousness legalized in laws of marriage and divorce, and prevailing lawlessly in literature, harmonized in nearly every conclusion. The aim was, first, To find out and plays and prostitution, the gambling spirit, invading the parlors of society, entangling the young and unwary in its innumerable cabals and conspiracies, and with all this such a low state of civic virtue that the solemn oath of civil officers gives no security for the performance of their duties, the Church, as the reprover of sin and the conservator of public righteousness, has call to the most energetic and effective performance of her function.

It is not enough that the representatives of the Church in the Church courts should appeal to the representatives of the people in legislatures and executive offices. A more direct appeal to the people themselves must be made. To give this stronger influence and wider effect, the appeal should be not denominational, but general. If the supreme courts of all or of many of the Christian bodies could be combined in a testimony against prevailing vices and an earnest appeal for needed reforms, their testimony and appeal would come with greater power and would influence a much larger constituency. It will be good for followers of the Son of God, who was manifested to destroy the works of the Devil, to move together under their one Leader, and will be an evidence to the world that the Father hath sent him.

We therefore recommend that the Assembly appoint a Committee on Reform for the coming year; that it direct the Committee to meet and organize early in the year, and to proceed at once to open correspondence with committees or representatives of as many Churches as possible; and that, securing such co-operation for the present and preparing the way for it in the future, the Committee be authorized, in the name of the General Assembly, to act as its agent in seeking to secure needed reforms, and in preventing all efforts to legalize and popularize prevailing vices. We also recommend to our people the discriminating support of all Christian reforms in civil and social life.

J. T. McCrory.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE METRICAL PSALMS.

The Joint Committee of American and Canadian Churches on the Revision of the Metrical Version of the Psalms met in the First Presbyterian church, Asbury Park, N. J., from September 18th to the 27th, 1900, and in the board room of the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, Philadelphia, from April 24th to May 7th, 1901, holding a session of three or four hours each forenoon and each afternoon (excepting Saturdays), and two extra evening sessions. There were present representatives from the following Churches: (1) Presbyterian Church (North), (2) Canadian Presbyterian Church, (3) United Presbyterian Church, (4) Reformed Church in America, (5) Christian Reformed Church, (6) Reformed Presbyterian Church (Synod), (7) Reformed Presbyterian Church (General Synod), (8) Associate Presbyterian Church. At Philadelphia the Committee noted with sorrow the recent removal by death of one of their number, who took a deep interest in the work, namely, Rev. Dr. John T. Duffield, of Princeton.

At the meeting held in New York, in April, 1900, the first nine Psalms were revised; at the meeting in Asbury Park the revision was carried as far as Psalm 34, and at the meeting in Philadelphia it extended to Psalm 72. A careful examination was also made of the next book (Psalms 73 to 89), for the purpose of selecting for each Psalm the best version available, which versions will be thoroughly revised at the next meeting of the Committee. While the Scottish version of the Psalter was adopted as a basis for revision, yet in the case of not a few Psalms other versions in various meters have been substituted or will be added as giving better expression to the Psalms they represent. These versions have mostly been tested by public use.

The Committee rejoice in the perfect unanimity in aim and method and spirit which has prevailed in their meetings, and in the last meeting they felt more fully than ever before that the Spirit of God was leading them in the work, and the Committee believe that the results attained so far will be found more faithful to the text, and at the same time in smoother verse than anything that has yet appeared on the Psalms. Of course, the work done will receive another and final revision.

It is gratifying that the Presbyterianism of North America is so largely represented on the Committee, and it is hoped that any branches of the Church not yet co-operating may decide to send representatives, as they are hereby cordially and earnestly invited.

The next meeting of the Committee will be held in Toronto, from August 20th to 29th.

The Psalms as already revised will be printed and sent to the present members of the Committee, and to new representatives when their names are sent to the secretary.

To meet the expense of printing and other small items, the Committee ask, for the current year, the sum of $15 from each of the denominations co-operating. This should be sent without delay to the secretary, Rev. Dr. J. D. Steele, 74 West 103d street, New York City.

The Committee express their cordial thanks to the friends in Philadelphia who so courteously extended hospitality to them while in the city, and to the First Presbyterian church, Asbury Park, and to the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, Philadelphia, for comfortable rooms in which to meet.

REPORT OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL COMMITTEE ON REVISION OF THE METRICAL PSALMS.

The chairman, Rev. R. G. Ferguson, D.D., was unable to meet with the Committee. The undersigned took part in the work, at Asbury Park, N. J., during ten days in the fall of 1900, and for two weeks at Philadelphia, in April and May, 1901. Before our appointment the Committee held a week's session in New York, in April, 1900, and revised the first nine Psalms. At Asbury Park the revision was continued through Psalm 34, and at Philadelphia to the end of Psalm 72. The next meeting is to be held in Toronto, Canada, on the last ten days of August, where we hope to reach the end of the third book, Psalm 89. All this work, however, is to be revised again before submitting it to the various Churches.

Thus far the Committee has prepared only a single version of each psalm, though in the final revision a few second versions may be added. In the first 72 psalms the common meter was selected in a majority of cases; yet a large minority of selections are from the various meters of our Revised Psalter, a liberal use of which was made in every psalm except a very few. The Committee aims to have all the different meters that are used in sacred music represented in the psalms, to the end that the Churches may have as large a variety of music as is desirable. The changes made by the Committee are chiefly in the Scottish versions; the new versions of our Psalter are generally so accurate as to require few and slight changes.

In this revision eleven denominations are partially enlisted; the eight following are represented by delegates actively engaged in the work: The Canada Presbyterian and the R. P. General Synod, by three delegates each; the R. P. Synod and the U. P. Assembly by two delegates each; the Northern Presbyterian had two delegates at the first meeting, but one of them, Rev. Prof. Duffield, has since died; the (Dutch) Reformed, the Associate and the Christian Reformed, by one each. The Committee have made an effort to secure, if possible, the co-operation of other denominations in our work, and they desire full delegations from each denomination represented. The whole Committee cordially agreed to the principle of a close rendering of each psalm as far as possible in a smooth versification; and in the work so far there are fewer deviations from the text than in the Scottish version or our revision.

The delegates differing in sentiment on many questions, not always agreeing in judgment as to the true sense of Hebrew words and phrases, nor as to the essentials of a close translation, have yet with little dissent harmonized in nearly every conclusion. The aim was, first, To find out and express the true sense of each verse; second, To select the best meter in which to make the versification; and, third, To make each stanza the closest possible to the text, and as smooth as the accepted limitations would allow. We do not imagine that all mistakes are avoided, that our work is not open to just criticism, nor that it will meet universal approval from any of the Churches represented. Objections will be made here and there to our work, and perhaps ought to be made; and doubtless other and better revisions may be made. But we believe that any just critic, in comparing our revision with the original text and with other versions will be compelled to say that we have made great improvement on former versions; that in none of them has there been as close and clear rendering of the text, as few violations of poetic accent and rhythm and meters so well suited to the sentiment of the psalm. We hope to make it, when completed, a revision worthy of recommendation as a twentieth century attainment.

The time spent in Committee meetings is but a small part of the demand upon us. Since our appointment, a year ago, every hour that could be spared from other duties has been given to the study of the Psalms and the preparation for material which may help the Committee in their determinations. We gratefully recognize the manifest evidences of the Holy Spirit's guidance and blessing, both in our personal and committee labors. Without this, nothing could have been done; with it much has been done that we trust will redound to the perfecting of divine praise, the unity of the Christian Church, and the glory of Christ Jesus our Lord and Saviour.

REPORT OF THE QUARTER-CENTENNIAL COMMISSION.

The treasurer of the Quarter-Centennial Commission desires to report to the Assembly that a short time ago he received from a gentleman in Iowa the sum of $31, in payment of a note that had been given in 1883, and of which he had no knowledge until quite recently. The treasurer, by the advice of some other members of this Commission, asks the Assembly whether he shall divide this small sum pro rata among the objects designated by the Assembly of 1883, or give it in bulk, with the consent of the donor, to one of the other objects now before the Church.

Yours respectfully,

J. J. PORTER, Treasurer.

WILLIAM J. REID, President.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

There has not been any correspondence with the Committee of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South on the subject of union during the past year. There are many indications of a growing feeling in favor of such union, when it may be accomplished without any division or dissatisfaction. The relations are becoming more cordial, and co-operation is continued in mission work and in the young people's work. It is, therefore, judged better not to take any direct steps towards union at the present time, being well assured that the union will take place as soon as the edification of both bodies will call for it.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Committee,

A. G. WALLACE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED SYNOD OF THE SOUTH.

I beg leave to report that, by the appointment of the General Assembly of 1900, I attended the meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod, held in Louisville, Georgia, November 8-12, 1900. I was received and entertained in a most cordial and fraternal manner. The highest regard was expressed on every hand for the United Presbyterian Church, union with which all seem to consider only a question of time. Delegates were appointed by the Synod to attend this Assembly.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. WILSON.

REPORT OF THE ASYUT COLLEGE COMMITTEE.

The Asyut College Committee desires to present to the Assembly the following statement concerning its origin, work and purpose:

On December 26, 1900, a meeting of ministers and laymen was held in Calvin Hall, Pittsburgh, to consider the needs of the educational work of our Church in Egypt. At this meeting a Committee was appointed, consisting of Revs. Drs. J. K. McClurkin, R. M. Russell, John McNaugher, D. F.

McGill, Messrs. J. R. Reed, Samuel Young, T. J. Gillespie, J. D. Fraser and J. J. Porter, to consider the entire subject and to report to a subsequent meeting. This Committee held two sessions, carefully considering the subject in its many phases. At the second meeting, held January 30, 1901, in the Monongahela National Bank, Drs. Barr and Kyle, secretary and president of the Board of Foreign Missions, were present by invitation and took part in the conference. The Committee decided to report the following resolution: "Resolved, That we make an effort to raise $100,000 for the purchase of grounds and the erection of buildings for Asyut Training College, at Asyut, Egypt, the subscriptions to be payable one-third July 1, 1901, one-third July 1, 1902, one-third July 1, 1903." The two officers of the Foreign Board expressed themselves as being in thorough sympathy and accord with this action.

A second meeting of ministers and laymen was held in Calvin Hall, Pittsburgh, February 8, 1901, at which the Committee reported action as above. The report was discussed and unanimously adopted. The Committee was made a permanent one, with power to add to its number, and with instructions to proceed to raise the money as speedily as practicable, and to report to another meeting to be called in May.

The Committee, to be hereafter known as the Asyut College Committee, met in the Monongahela National Bank, Monday, February 11, 1901, and organized by the election of J. K. McClurkin, D.D., 456 South Atlantic avenue, chairman; R. M. Russell, D.D., 572 North Sheridan avenue, vice-chairman; John D. Fraser, treasurer, Monongahela National Bank; J. J. Porter, secretary, 918 Penn avenue.

Since the above date the Committee has been holding fortnightly meetings in the parlors of the Monongahela National Bank, tabulating results of efforts made and planning new duties. The Committee is happy to report that the sum of $65,163.10 has been already pledged, of which amount the sum of $17,683.16 has been paid to the treasurer, and is held by the Committee for the work in Egypt. It is the desire of the Committee to continue its work until the whole sum is raised, the buildings erected and turned over to the Foreign Board free of debt. It is a pleasure to express our conviction that the money raised and to be raised will in no way interfere with the regular contributions of our members to the boards of the Church. The sums received so far are from a comparatively small number of members, whose loyalty to the boards will be rather increased than diminished by this special effort.

The Committee is assured, from the liberal response made to its call within the brief period of its existence, that the full amount asked for will be speedily raised, and expects to conduct its work along lines which will have the fullest approval of the Assembly, and which will be recognized as auxiliary to the regular work of the boards.

Respectfully submitted,

J. K. McClurkin, Chairman. J. J. Porter, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF REFORMED CHURCHES.

The Executive Commission of the Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System, presents to your venerable body its annual report, invoking upon you and your churches the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Ghost.

The Commission has held two meetings during the year, one on November 15, 1900, at Louisville, Ky., in the Warren Memorial Presbyterian church of that city, the second in the Marble Collegiate Reformed (Dutch) church, New York City, on April 9, 1901. Both meetings were characterized by much good feeling, and were highly profitable to the mutual interests of our Churches. The members of the Commission were the objects of a cordial hospitality in the two cities, and in New York City an evening reception was given by the Presbyterian Union.

The Commission has appointed Rev. A. G. Wallace, D.D., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body the fraternal greetings of the Alliance, with John McNaugher, D.D., as alternate.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the apportionment of the expenses of the Alliance, due from your venerable body for the present year, and which amounts to the sum of $270. Remittance may be made to the American treasurer of the Alliance, Frank K. Hipple, Esq., LL.D., president of the Real Estate Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

We regret to report the removal by death of one of the most distinguished members of the Commission, General Benjamin Harrison, ex-President of the United States. He belonged to the highest type of Christian statesmen, and was honored in all the Churches.

The work on the European continent needs once more to be emphasized in our correspondence. A large proportion of the visitors to Europe each summer are connected with the American Churches of the Alliance. Their spiritual needs receive but little attention. Where effort has been made to supply them, the result has been most encouraging. It is respectfully suggested that the agency having charge of the work of foreign missions under our jurisdiction, be charged with the duty of special effort with a view to providing services of the Churches of our faith and order in Europe during the summer season, in such places as are most frequented by American visitors.

In connection with this work we report that a draft of a constitution for "Auxiliary Societies for European Work" was adopted at the meeting of this Commission, held in New York City, on April 9, 1901. Copies of the same can be secured upon application to the American secretary of the Alliance.

Your attention is also called to the movement presented to the Commission by the Rev. Dr. J. A. Worden, looking toward, first, the organization in our Sabbath schools of a normal department for the higher study of the Scriptures and for the training of persons to be Sabbath school teachers; and, second, to the furnishing of these normal departments with a series of lessons in the Bible, and with the methods and principles of teaching in a normal quarterly. It is also worthy of note that a plan of systematic beneficence of an efficient character is now in operation in the Sabbath schools and Christian Endeavor Societies of the Reformed Church in America.

The Commission having given careful consideration to the home mission work of the several Churches in the Western Section of the Alliance, submits the following resolutions, adopted by it, to your venerable body, viz.:

Whereas, The blessing of God has been graciously and in remarkable degree bestowed in the past upon the home mission work of the Churches connected with this Alliance on the American continent; and, whereas, in the new century which opens before us, yet larger opportunities for progress appear to be afforded by divine Providence; and, whereas, God has blessed his people with greatly increased means for the prosecution of the work of his kingdom; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That it be recommended to the supreme judicatories of the several Churches in the Western Section of the Alliance to take such steps as shall lead to renewed effort along all lines of home mission work, with a view to a yet more thorough evangelization of the American continent.

2. That special attention be called to the increasing alien immigration so full of peril to our religious institutions; to the religious destitution among the isolated dwellers in our mountain districts, and the great field open to us among them, and to the changing conditions among the colored people, requiring greatly increased efforts for their instruction and spiritual elevation, providential calls to special work at this critical period.

3. That it be earnestly recommended that in all these lines of special mission work the plan of co-operation already adopted be carefully carried out, that the Churches represented may come nearer together in the common field.

The Commission further took action in relation to the Ecumenical Missionary Conference, held in New York last year, and as follows Resolved, That the executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System, Western Section, herewith records its great joy that there was held in the city of New York, in the closing year of this century, an Ecumenical Missionary Conference, whose truly representative character and strong personnel, whose splendid program of noble addresses and comprehensive papers evoked widespread missionary enthusiasm and inspiration, and marked it as unique and glorious among the great councils of the Church of Christ.

This Commission also records its profound gratitude to God that the Alliance of the Reformed Churches of the world was permitted to have part in inaugurating the movement that resulted in this great conference, the beneficent effects of which will doubtless be felt, and strongly, far into the coming cenutury, as the Christian Church realizes its splendid privilege and great responsibility and enters the doors of the heathen world that everywhere are opening to the gospel.

The matter of the conditions prevalent in China was under consideration at the meeting November 15, 1900, at Louisville, Ky., and the following action was taken:

Resolved, 1. That this Alliance expresses its high appreciation of the devotion and courage of the missionaries of the Christian Churches in China during the troublous events recently occurring in that country, and its thankfulness to God that not even the fear of death availed to shake the faith or weaken the fidelity either of the missionaries or of the great majority of their converts.

2. That the deep sympathy of the Alliance is tendered to the relatives of the missionaries, both men and women, who suffered martyrdom for the sake of Christ.

3. That it is the judgment of this Alliance that the work of missions in China, where destroyed, should be re-established at the earliest practicable date, and that missionary efforts should be carried forward with renewed and unflagging energy, when God in his providence opens the way.

4. That Christian missionaries, equally with other citizens, are entitled to the full protection of their governments while resident in China, and that the officers of the Alliance communicate to the President of the U. S. A. our thanks for the kindly interest and care which the representatives of the U. S. government in China have shown to the missionaries during the recent dangerous and sorrowful times.

With gratitude to God we draw attention to the movements toward union within our Churches. The several Presbyterian missions in Southern India, representing three separate Churches, have under consideration arrangements for co-operation in mission work, and the union of the native congregations in one body. This movement is in line with the religious tendency of the times, a tendency yet more clearly manifested in the completed union of the Free Church and the United Presbyterian Church of Scotland, which took place at Edinburgh, Scotland, October 31, 1900. The new Church is called The United Free Church of Scotland, and has about 1,786 ministers, 1,706 congregations, 405,178 communicants and 282,965 Sabbath school scholars and teachers.

The Commission addressed a letter of congratulation, signed by its officers, to the General Assembly of the United Church, as follows:

Beloved Brethren: The Western Section of "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian System," tenders to you its heartfelt felicitations upon the union now happily effected between the United Presbyterian and the Free Churches of Scotland. In tendering our congratulations we feel that we represent a widespread and affectionate interest in your welfare as a Church among the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the American continent. From the Southern Cross to the Aurora Borealis, in Chile, Brazil, Mexico, the United States and Canada, there is heard the voice of thanksgiving and praise for the goodness of God as made evident in your dwelling henceforth together in one visible household of the faith. Especially when we remember that the Alliance, which gives expression to this spiritual unity of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches throughout the world, was brought into existence by the earnest efforts and unselfish devotion of such men as Rev. Drs. Wm. Garden Blaikie, James McCosh and John Cairns, we can but rejoice that their work, in the line of Christian unity has in part found fruitage in the union of your two Churches. Indeed, as we think upon the past, rejoice in the present and cherish hope for the future, we are "bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth."

May the union now realized by you be an incentive, in many lands, to the bringing into the visible unity of Christ's Church the many beloved brethren who, with us, are one in faith and practice.

"Now, our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father which hath loved us, and hath given us the everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work. Finally, brethren, pray for us that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you."

We close this report with brief reference to the great interests which are entrusted of God to the Churches of this Alliance. We are in agreement upon all essential matters. We draw from the Holy Scriptures, as the great source, our doctrine, worship and government. We acknowledge these Scriptures as the only infallible rule of faith and conduct. We stand for the certainty of the accomplishment of God's purposes alike in salvation and in providence. Our Churches have been in the forefront in the past in all missionary work, both at home and abroad. We have on the American contient 8,000,000 of adherents and 17,000,000 in other parts of the world. We should come yet more closely into sympathy and co-operation, striving together for the faith, and praying earnestly for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon Christian and heathen nations alike, God thus co-operating with his people for the redemption of the world, and responding to their prayer, "Thy kingdom come." May the opening years of the twentieth century witness great revivals of religion in this and other Christian lands, and the overthrow of idolatry in heathen regions, in particular in that empire where so many Christians recently have sealed with their blood their fidelity to Christ and his cross.

Tendering fraternal sympathy and earnest prayers for the prosperity of the work of Christ within your bounds, and in fulness of faith that his purposes shall be fulfilled in due time, whose is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, we are in behalf of the Alliance,

WM HENRY ROBERTS, American Secretary.
GEORGE JUNKIN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE REED ESTATE.

The executors and trustees of the William Reed estate would, as required by the will of deceased, present this our annual report of progress:

1. In the collection of $8,976.66, balance on the sale of 2,695 acres of mineral land in West Virginia. Some 12,000 acres remain there unsold, and not very saleable, worth probably $3 per acre.

2. The collection of $20,000, the amount of compromise referred to in our last report, as due from the sale of land in Missouri.

3. These sums and some other funds, less expenses, have, by direction of the Orphans' Court, under special bequest in the will of the deceased, been paid to the estate of Mrs. Reed, deceased, and will soon pass entire, less expenses, to the boards of the Church.

We have failed to sell during the year any of the land reported last year as belonging to the estate.

After paying all taxes and other expenses incurred in defending the estate against various law suits, there remains about $2,100 cash and securities, for incidental and possible expenses, pending additional sales.

Respectfully submitted by order of executors.

S. Collins, Secretary.
